SANITARY DIST. PAY ROLLS LAID TO T. J. CROWE

3 Trustees Testify Before Grand Jury.

Timothy J. Crowe, former president of the sanitary district, who was defeated for reëlection as a trustee last fall, was pictured to the special grand jury yesterday by three of his former associate trustees as the one directly responsible for the preëlection condition of the district's pay roll. The pay roll then carried 4,800 employés. It has now been reduced to 1,100.

Crowe, a Democrat, was served with a subpœna yesterday afternoon. He will be given a chance to tell his side of the pay roll situation as well as what he knows of contracts and other district affairs this afternoon, if he signs an immunity waiver, according to First Assistant State's Attorney Frank J. Loesch.

Assembly Quiz Demanded.

Another development in the investigation was a demand, in a resolution presented in the lower house of the legislature at Springfield, for the appointment of a committee authorized to go into every phase of the pay roll situation. The resolution, presented by Representative Robert J. Branson of Centralia, was read and laid on the speaker's table. Speaker David E. Shanahan announced that it will be considered in a committee of the whole next week.

The committee, if appointed, would have seven members and would be authorized to go into every ramification of the pay roll scandal. Under the Branson plan it would be given the right to subpoena witnesses, books and other necessary documentary evidence and would be authorized to employ the necessary clerical and legal help.

Three Trustees Testify.

Trustees Lawrence F. King, August W. Miller, and John K. Lawler, composing the Crowe-Thompson group of trustees, told the jurors yesterday that all appointments had to receive the sanction of Mr. Crowe. They said the employment committee was a committee in name only and never had any function to perform—that Mr. Crowe seemed to constitute himself a committee of one to pass on recommendations.

Trustee King aroused the interest of the jurors, it was reported, when he said that his campaign for reëlection cost him approximately $50,000. He admitted making this expenditure to obtain a job paying a salary of $7,500 a year.

"Can you explain why a man should spend so much more than what his salary is to secure the position of trustee?", was one of the questions the jury is said to have asked King.

"Just a Sucker," He Says.

"Not unless it is because a man is just a sucker," is reported to have been the trustees's reply. "Members of the family and some of my political associates wanted me to run for reëlection."

The money for the campaign was contributed by members of the King family and not one penny came from contractors or corporations doing business with the district, the trustee said. He offered to produce his check book to show the contributions and disbursements during his last campaign. His first campaign cost only $10,000.

Trustees Lawler and Miller explained that their campaigns cost only small sums because they were elected during a presidential campaign four years ago.

Trustee King left with the jurors voluminous reports of the affairs of the district for the six years from 1920 to 1926. These reports contain an itemized list of all expenditures for that period. Records of the money spent during the last two years, however, are not yet available

Discuss Boulevard Building.

The expenditure of $1,350,000 for the building of McCormick boulevard was also discussed. Trustee King said that this four mile road project was handled by the firm of Sackley & McGarry. He said the improvement was put in because of the necessity for a road leading to the north side sewage disposal plant of the district.

"It is easy for you, Gus, you have only four years of it to explain," remarked Trustee King as he passed Trustee Miller in the hall after concluding his testimony.

Trustee Lawler was the second witness of the day. He said he was the sponsor of only 30 of the 4,800 workers found on the pay rolls at election

17 DIE AS BUS AND INTERURBAN CRASH IN SNOW

Motor Coach Cut in Two at Crossing.

Bellevue, O., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Seventeen passengers on a Greyhound motor bus, eastbound from Toledo to Pittsburgh, were killed outright and fifteen injured when a Lake Shore Electric interurban car, coming out of a blinding snowstorm, crashed into the bus on a double crossing a mile and a half east of here today.

The list of the dead, as revised late tonight, follows:

Elmer Almond, Bela Theisz, D. Coughanour, S. R. Rawney, Chicago; Mrs. J. H. Harmon, Harry Flickman, J. S. Davenport, Mrs. A. Robinson, Lewis Flynn, John Kuncil, W. J. Cook, two unidentified women, and four unidentified men.

The injured included four women. One of the injured men was expected to die.

The terrific impact came almost before the passengers in either the bus or the car had time to realize what was going to happen.

Driver Sees Nothing.

The snow was so thick that all was invisible beyond a few feet. Edward Butler of Cleveland, driver of the bus, pulled within twenty feet of the interurban tracks, got out and wiped off his windshield, which had become coated with ice, and looked in both directions. He saw nothing.

Then he climbed into the bus and started across the tracks. When he was about half way the interurban roared out of the storm.

Thomas Scheyler of Fremont, O., motorman on the interurban, frantically shut off the power and applied the brakes, but there was no chance.

The trolley crashed the bus squarely in the center, hurtled into the air, and descended on the wrecked vehicle with such force that it obliterated it. The impact threw some of the bus passengers 30 feet.

Wreckage Lands in Ditch.

The mass of broken steel, all that was left of the bus, was carried twenty feet under the trucks of the car and then landed in a ditch at the side of the interurban tracks. The electric car remained upright, and although its passengers were badly shaken up, only two of them were injured.

There were 32 passengers in the bus, all of whom were listed among the dead and injured.

Belief that an eighteenth body remained under the wreckage was dispelled when a wrecking crew had cleared off the wreckage. The report was believed due to the fact that a salesman aboard the bus had a large mechanical doll with him, which some passengers had thought was a baby.

Motorman Tells Story.

Motorman Scheyler in a report made to Lake Shore Electric officials said that his car was traveling at about 35 miles an hour as it approached the double crossing that is labeled one of the most dangerous in the state. Twice within a distance of about a mile U. S. highway No. 20 crosses the tracks.

About 800 feet from the second crossing Scheyler spotted the track signal warning him to sound the whistle. Ahead of him he could see only a swirling mass of snow. He sounded the whistle and allowed the car to go on at about 40 miles an hour.

Then suddenly he discerned the big gray body of the bus about ten or fifteen feet away.

"I saw that there was going to be a collision," he said. "I shut off the power and applied the brakes. I couldn't stand seeing that crash, so I ran back in the car and a second later the impact came."

CHARGE WITNESS AGAINST ELLERS WITH CONTEMPT

Edward Johnson, who was a state witness in the trial and conviction of fifteen Eller henchmen a few months ago, was arraigned yesterday before County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki charged with contempt of court for his refusal to repeat his testimony in the prosecution of Morris Eller, boss of the 20th ward, and his son, Judge Emanuel Eller.

Johnson's defense, as outlined by his attorney, Samuel Herr, is that his previous testimony was false, that he was forced to the witness stand at the former trial by threats and promises by the special prosecutors and their investigators. Johnson alleges that he was imprisoned for eight days on a bread and water diet before he agreed to testify against the Eller group. The hearing was continued until tomorrow.

Kidnaps His Own Children in Movie Style

BY HENRY WALES.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1929: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Jan. 22.—While a pair of detectives stood by helplessly and a dozen school teachers sputtered impotent threats, Frank Woodward, cereal magnate of Nyack, N. Y., today staged a movie thriller, as a climax to the divorce suit he had filed in New York a month ago against Persis Earle Woodward by bundling his two children into an automobile and dashing across the French border.

A few hours later his wife, whom he is suing on statutory grounds, was served with divorce papers in her Paris home by special order of the New York Supreme court.

The melodramatic coup took place outside the McJannet Junior school in the Avenue de Tokio, in the fashionable Passy district, as the Woodward children, accompanied by two private detectives, were proceeding to their classes.

Takes Children for a Ride.

Mr. Woodward stepped out of his car and greeted his children, whom he had not seen for half a year. At the same moment a dozen huskies quietly stepped out of two other machines standing at the curb and surrounded the children, pushing the detectives to one side.

"I've come to take you for a little motor ride," the father told the children.

Frank Woodward Jr., aged 9, immediately ran to the car, but Rush, aged 12, demurred, insisting that she would have to ask her mother's permission. Her objections attracted the attention of teachers and passers by, who started to charge the ring of huskies. At the same time the father gently lifted the girl into the car and the chauffeur stepped on the accelerator.

Escapes Over Border.

As the car leaped from the curb, Emory Foster, head master of the school, broke through the barricade and smashed his fist through the back window. A second later the car was speeding away at fifty miles an hour while the huskies broke up the ring and laughed in the faces of the teachers and detectives.

Aided by the heavy early morning fog, Mr. Woodward accomplished his abduction in less than two minutes. The scene unrolled so rapidly that witnesses were unable to give a coherent account. The Paris police made no attempt to stop the speeding auto and it was reported that Mr. Woodward and his children had safely passed the French border.

REVISED LAKE FRONT ORDINANCE RETURNED BY I. C.

Attorneys for the Illinois Central railroad yesterday returned the redrafted lake front ordinance to Supt. George T. Donoughue of the south park system. The ordinance has had three revisions in the last two months upon the demand of the south park commissioners, who asserted that the railroad had failed to keep the letter of the informal agreement reached last November.

John C. Richert, attorney for the railroad, stated that the clause found objectionable by the commissioners at their meeting last week has been removed. This clause required that the parks submit to a referendum within five years a proposition calling for the construction of two extra sections of elevated boulevard through the I. C. yards at Randolph street.

Attorneys for the railroad and representatives of the south park board will confer tomorrow.

Surplus for Treasury Seen by Coolidge

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Prospects for ending the fiscal year with a surplus in the treasury are considered excellent by President Coolidge.

Although there is an apparent deficit of three hundred and seventy-five million dollars, the President believes he will be able to turn the treasury over to President Elect Herbert Hoover in such condition that there will be little chance of a deficit.

Warn of Waste.

For several months both the President and Budget Director Herbert M. Lord have warned that congressional spendings must be cut down this year if the nation expects to close the year with a favorable balance in the treasury. The President made it known today that while it will still be necessary to keep a close eye on expenditures, the present deficit should disappear when the income tax receipts, due March 15 and June 15, are paid.

It is probable that the apparent deficit will run into hundreds of millions of dollars when Mr. Hoover takes office. The quarterly tax payment in March is expected to wipe out the deficit temporarily. Expenditures during the balance of the fiscal year are not expected to be large enough to eat up the funds which will flow into the treasury on June 15.

Help for Hoover Start.

It was stated at the White House that the President expects to make every effort to leave the treasury in such a condition that Mr. Hoover will be able to end the year with a surplus. The President realizes, it was said, that the margin will be narrow, and feels all unnecessary expenditures should be curtailed.

Man "Without a Country" Kills Family of 3 and Self

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PRAGUE, Czecho-Slovakia, Jan. 22.—Johann Szatan was one of thousands of Central Europeans who found themselves without a country after the treaty of Trianon was signed. Born under the old Austro-Hungarian empire on the border between what is now Poland and Czecho-Slovakia, he could not get citizenship either as a Pole or a Czech, let alone an Austrian or Hungarian. Without a passport he could not get a work permit, therefore could not get a job. So after suffering hunger for three years he took a shotgun today and killed his wife, his two children and himself.

Cold Wave Hits Chicago; Coats Streets in Ice

The first surge of the Canadian cold wave predicted for the middle west struck Chicago last night with a sweep that plunged the temperature from a balmy 43 degrees in mid-afternoon to an unofficial mark of 7 above at 5 o'clock this morning. By daybreak the reading was expected to be zero, and the thermometer will remain within 3 degrees of that mark throughout today and tomorrow, according to Forecaster C. A. Donnell. No relief is in prospect before tomorrow night, he predicted.

The sudden freeze left the rain-drenched streets glassy with ice. Pedestrians, who splashed to work through puddles yesterday, stumbled home on icy pavements last night. Crews on the surface lines, which had worked through the day to drain flooded tracks under viaducts, were confronted with a new problem last night as the power current leaked away to the ground through insulators which were sheathed in ice.

Ice Impedes Traffic.

Motorists, sensing the hazard of the icy pavements, were extra cautious, with a resultant retarding of traffic but an avoidance of serious accidents within the city. Icy rails caused the injury of five persons on a Chicago, South Shore and South Bend interurban train at Michigan City, Ind., however. The train skidded into a Nickel Plate gondola car at a siding, causing minor injuries to R. M. Clouston, E. J. McNamara, Marie Yoeman, Albert Doherty and Paul Ross.

Blustery winds stiffened the grip of the cold snap. A strong gust shattered a plate glass window in the quarters of the Madison Baking company at 365 West Madison street, and another at 179 West Monroe street. A small cyclone swept into a revolving door in the Tribune Tower lobby, whirling it at dizzy speed until the panes smashed with a report as sharp as a bomb explosion. In Evanston large plate glass windows were shattered in the State and Trust bank building, the public library, and several other places.

Buried Under Straw Stack.

None was injured by the freak winds here or on the lake, the weather bureau having issued a storm warning advising mariners to remain in port. But at Ottawa, Ill., a blast of wind upset an ice sheathed straw stack, burying Herman C. Knoll, 38 years old, wealthy bachelor farmer, and his hired man, William Budach. Knoll was found suffocated when neighbors pitched away the straw, but Budach was revived after three hours' application of a pulmotor.

The wind will moderate today and skies will be clear, according to the forecast. The prediction for fair weather was hailed with relief in communities downstate where streams were reported overflowing their banks and flooding the lowlands.

Crews from the state highway department were patrolling trunk roads near Peoria, watching the bridges for possible washouts. The Illinois river, swollen by heavy rains, stood at 16.5 feet, a rise of one foot in 48 hours. Yesterday the Peoria fire department answered fifty calls to pump out flooded basements. Floods in Chicago were confined mainly to the subways under railway viaducts.

The thermometer performed acrobatics during the flood and ensuing freeze. At 9 a. m. yesterday it mounted above the freezing point, 32 degrees, and at 4:30 p. m. had reached 43 degrees. From thence it dropped at a rate of 3 degrees per hour until midnight.

Nebraska's Bill to Gag Press Given Death Blow

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 22.—(AP)—The anti-publicity bill, prohibiting Nebraska newspapers from publishing any information about the various department of the state government, without the consent of the department head, was killed late today by the judiciary committee of the house of representatives.

SENATE CALLS FOR SHOWDOWN ON PROHIBITION

Provides Vast Sum for Enforcement.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—After four days of vociferous prohibition debate the senate late this afternoon, by an overwhelming vote of 50 to 27, approved immediate appropriation of $24,000,000 for a showdown Volstead enforcement drive before June 30, 1930. A few minutes later a viva voce vote added $250,000 for the sweeping prohibition investigation promised by President Elect Hoover.

The two proposals, included finally in a single amendment to the deficiency supply bill, are certain to provoke a battle when the measure reaches the conference committee. The fight is almost certain to be carried to the floor of the house as a result of the determined opposition of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon to the huge prohibition allowance and the activities of Anti-Saloon league and Methodist church leaders in behalf of it.

As passed, the $24,000,000 item resembles the original proposal of Senator W. J. Harris [Dem., Ga.] only in amount.

He Asked 25 Millions.

The Georgia senator first proposed and secured the appropriations committee's approval of an amendment to make $25,000,000 immediately available to the secretary of the treasury for expansion of dry law enforcement machinery.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon warned the senate committee against appropriation of such an amount in advance of a definite program for its expenditure, and Senator W. L. Jones [Rep., Wash.], heretofore regarded as the Anti-Saloon league's chief senate spokesman, took the floor against the Harris amendment and urged adoption of a substitute which would provide $1,000,000 to increase prohibition bureau field personnel and $250,000 to finance a propaganda appeal for "law observance and enforcement."

Today, to meet the objections raised by senate critics of prevailing enforcement policies, and, it is reported, at the behest of dry organization leaders, who have centered their fire upon Secretary Mellon, Senator Harris offered the amendment subsequently adopted.

Pass Buck to President.

This places $24,000,000 in the hands of the President, "to be used as he may see fit" in increasing the personnel of the various federal agencies charged with prohibition enforcement.

Party lines and past alignments on prohibition were utterly disregarded in the final roll call on the $24,000,000 amendment. Outstanding wets like Senators E. I. Edwards [Dem., N. J.], Harry Hawes [Dem., Mo.], and M. E. Tydings [Dem., Md.] voted with Senator Morris Sheppard [Dem., Tex.], father of the 18th amendment, Senator F. M. Simmons [Dem., N. C.], and Senator H. L. Black [Dem., Ala.] for the huge increase.

Against the proposal a number of well known drys, including Senators Jones of Washington, Charles Curtis [Rep., Kas.], the Vice President Elect, and W. E. Borah [Rep., Idaho], lined up with such unrelenting wets as Senators W. C. Bruce [Dem., Md.], W. E. Edge [Rep., N. J.], and James A. Reed [Dem., Mo.].

Bruce Attacks Churchmen.

Just before the final roll call, Senator Bruce launched a vitriolic attack upon Bishop Thomas Nicholson, president of the Anti-Saloon league; Bishop James Cannon Jr. of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, and Eugene L. Crawford, secretary of the latter church's board of temperance and social service, for sending "a bulldozing telegram" to Secretary Mellon last Saturday. The telegram demanded that the secretary indorse the Harris proposal or admit he is unwilling or unable to enforce prohibition.

"Who in the name of God are these people, Cannon, Nicholson and Crawford?" shouted the Maryland senator. "Are they ministers of the gospel or are they common politicians? They belong to some kind of a neuter gender, lacking the mental ability of a man and the compassionate tenderness of a woman. Who are they to arrogate to themselves the function of attacking a cabinet officer?"

Jim Reed Grows Cautious.

Senator Reed [Dem., Mo.], warned his colleagues that the appropriation of such a huge sum in the face of the disapproval of the department charged with spending it wisely, was unprecedented and added, "I am opposed to appropriating money for vague, indefinite and uncertain purposes, to be put in the hands of the President, or any other officer, to spend as he sees fit."

When debate on the Harris amendment was resumed at noon, Senator F. E. Warren [Rep., Wyo.], chairman of the appropriations committee, threatened to keep the senate in continuous session until the deficiency bill was disposed of. Shortly before 4 o'clock, a unanimous consent agreement was reached limiting senators to 10 minutes each on the Harris amendment, and at 5:30 o'clock the amendment was adopted.

At that time the prospect was that the controversy over the McKellar amendment, proposing to give the board of tax appeals sole jurisdiction over tax refund claims exceeding $10,000, would keep the senate in session until a late hour. At 6:30 o'clock, however, an agreement to recess until tomorrow was reached.

SWANSON ASKS HIS AIDS TO USE COMMON SENSE

State's Attorney John A. Swanson announced yesterday that he has called a meeting of his assistants for this morning to have a "common sense" talk with them on the disposition of minor criminal cases. The prosecutor will tell his assistants, it was said, that where a felony waiver is warranted by the facts they should not hesitate to make such a recommendation to the court, but that they should not under any circumstances allow a confirmed felon to escape his just punishment through a waiver.

"The felony waiver situation has gone from one extreme to the other," said Prosecutor Swanson. "I want to tell my assistants to use their common sense in disposing of all criminal cases."

The meeting was called as a result of a report from the judicial advisory council calling attention to the clogging of the court calendars because of the failure to waive felonies in any case.

IRAK BREAKS WITH BRITAIN; CABINET QUITS

LONDON, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The government of Irak, the British protectorate just northwest of the Persian Gulf, has broken off negotiations with Great Britain and the Irak cabinet has resigned. The dependency contended that the British governmental policy was stifling its desire for self-government.

The disagreement arose over military questions. Under an understanding reached in 1924 Irak was to have possessed forces adequate for its own defense by 1928. It complains that it never has been allowed to raise these forces.

Irak also dislikes the continued occupation of the territory by Great Britain, especially as the cost of this administration is charged to the Irak government. The latter contends that this system nullifies a treaty reached in 1927, but never ratified, whereby Irak was to become a sovereign and independent state.

AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM DIES OF INJURY; TOLL 42

James O'Neill, 75 years old, 7436 Blackburne avenue, died yesterday from injuries received on Jan. 7 when he was knocked down by a speeding automobile at 66th street and Western avenue. The driver did not stop after the accident. The death raised Cook county's motor toll to 42 since Jan. 1.

In Geneva, Ill., William Paulsen, 47 years old, manager of the Frazier Coal company of Rockford, Ill., was burned to death as his automobile overturned and caught fire.

MILK WAR TRUCE LEAVES PRICE UP TO ARBITRATOR

Dealers Recognize Farm Organization.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Dairy farmers of the Chicago area and Chicago milk distributing companies turned to arbitration yesterday afternoon for a permanent solution of their milk price controversy, following the declaration of a truce in the farmers' strike at an early morning conference between representatives of the dealers and the Pure Milk association. The truce was regarded as a victory for the farmers, in that the distributors recognized, for the first time, the farmers' organization and agreed to deal with them as an organized unit rather than as individuals.

Negotiations will be delayed between the milk producers and dealers until Dr. Clyde L. King, an eastern arbitrator, replies to an invitation to act as arbitrator on the Chicago market. This decision was reached by representatives of the farmers and distributors who met at the health department yesterday afternoon.

Prices Not Discussed.

In reassembling, after the all night session at which the strike was called off, there was no discussion of prices because small and medium sized distributors were not fully represented. The farmers asked for a more representative group before taking up the price question. Both groups renewed their pledges made the night before to coöperate in bringing about a satisfactory solution of the situation which caused the strike and resultant heavy losses to both distributors and farmers.

Distributors said that practically all of the country receiving plants have been reopened and that the others would be running on full schedules in a few days. The strike had so upset the distributors' country plants that in some cases it will take several days to get their tanks back on the normal routes.

Send Message to Arbitrator.

Early in the day Dr. Arnold H. Kegel, commissioner of health, sent the following telegram to Dr. King of the Wharton school of finance, University of Pennsylvania: "Pure Milk association and the distributors of Chicago have requested me to appoint an arbitrator in disputed matters. They offer full coöperation in every respect. Will you accept the appointment, and, if so, how soon will it be possible for you to take active part? It is my opinion that arrangements should be made as soon as possible."

Twenty-one officials of the Pure Milk association and the large dealers attended the meeting. It was agreed that ten men would meet for the price discussions, five representing the producers' organization and five representing small, medium, and large dealers. It was also agreed that an effort would be made to get all dairymen to resume delivery to the plants to which they delivered their milk before the strike was started.

Officers and members of the board of directors of the Pure Milk association who attended yesterday's conference are: W. C. McQueen, president; H. C. Vial, secretary; Herman Schwake, H. C. Yale, E. E. Powell, B. M. Norem, Herman Jandt, John Crydes, L. E. Johnson, E. E. Ekhoff, H. A. Pfister, Ole Stalheim, James Tupper, A. M. Prahl, D. N. Geyer, field representative of the association, was spokesman for the dairymen's group.

Among the dealers at the meeting were Fred D. Walmsley, president, and Harry M. Reser of the Borden Farm Product company; Charles Wieland of the Wieland Dairy company, which is owned by the Borden company; Frank H. Kullman, vice president, and M. J. Metzger of the Bowman Dairy company.

U. S. to Study Situation.

Harold Teegarden, a special investigator sent from the United State's attorney general's office, arrived here yesterday morning from Washington, D. C., to make a study of the Chicago milk marketing situation. He expects to meet various representatives of the distributors and farmers.

Picketing in the country was brought to an end as soon as the striking farmers were notified that the dairymen's officials and dealers had agreed on a truce. The pickets were out in many sections ready to continue their blocking of deliveries and the dumping of milk when word of the truce reached them.

Trouble was expected at Elkhorn yesterday morning when forty Illinois automobiles loaded with 150 striking dairymen assembled to defy deputy sheriffs who were on duty to prevent violence. The tenseness of the situation was relieved when word came that the strike had been called off. A few cans of milk were dumped before the message was received.

House Asked to Act.

Appointment of a commission of seven members to supervise and regulate the milk industry of Illinois was asked in a resolution introduced in the house of Representatives by Representative Richard J. Lyons of Mundelein. Mundelein is located in the center of the milk belt, where clashes between farmers and dealers have occurred.

Members of the commission, as provided by the resolution, would be appointed by the governor and would draw annual salaries of $3,400 each.

Gov. Louis L. Emmerson, on receiving word of the truce, announced that he would defer his intended intercession in the matter pending the outcome of negotiations.

Windows Shot Out in Ward Fight

Window of flat at 1369 West Huron street, which was one of three riddled with bullets. Frank E. Konkowski, candidate for alderman in the 31st ward, was one of the victims. Police believe that the shooting was intended to intimidate him and his supporters.

Opening Guns Fired

Opening guns in the 31st ward aldermanic campaign were fired last night—literally, according to the police. Three youths cruised through the ward in a small coupe, shattering the front windows of three establishments with shot gun slugs. Shots were fired at the office of Attorney Frank Konkowski, 1051 West Chicago avenue; the soft drink parlor of Joseph Szubernot, 685 Milwaukee avenue, and the grocery of George Kavatis at 1369 Huron street. The tradesmen are political followers of Konkowski.

Attorney Konkowski announced his candidacy for alderman Monday night and was endorsed by several Polish organizations. The present alderman, Stanley Adamkewicz, is running for reëlection.

1,361 PRISONERS FACE COURTS AS RESULT OF RAIDS

Three Police Stabbed by Negro Suspect.

The criminal branches of the Municipal court had the busiest day in their history yesterday. Suspects to the number of 1,361, a part of the prisoners seized in the great week-end drive against criminals, were arraigned in the courts on charges ranging from disorderly conduct to robbery with a gun. Others seized in the raids will be arraigned today.

In its results the drive was paramountly successful, Commissioner of Police William Russell said. One of the purposes, as announced by the commissioner, was to show Chicago just was could be done by an adequate police force in keeping the underworld on the run. Another purpose was to call a halt on the rising tide of winter crimes.

One hundred and twenty robberies were solved as a result of the drive, the commissioner said, and he believes that more than a hundred criminals will be sent to the penitentiary as a consequence.

Over 800 Are Set Free.

Every criminal branch was jammed and attaches struggled to keep a semblance of orderly procedure as long lines of suspects were paraded before the bench. More than 800 were freed because the only evidence the police had against them was that they were found in suspected places or in bad company.

By far the greatest number of prisoners passed through the South State Street court. Judge Peter H. Schwaba, sitting there, heard 593 cases. Maxwell street court, with 200, was next in the number of prisoners handled. Fillmore, Stockyards, South Chicago, Shakespeare, and Chicago avenue courts followed in close order.

Negro Stabs Police.

A tragedy occurred during the arraignments in the South State street court. Oscar Monroe, 34 years old, 2016 S. Dearborn street, a Negro, while being taken from a cell with 100 other prisoners, attacked a guard with a knife. Before he was fatally shot by the police the crazed man had wounded Roderick O'Brien and John Bernotous, patrol wagon drivers, and John Burns, lockup keeper. O'Brien was in a serious condition at St. Luke's hospital last night. The Negro died later at the county hospital.

The station, its cells jammed with prisoners, became a bedlam as the shots rang out.

Munroe had been searched by Lockupkeeper Burns before being imprisoned and no knife was found on him. Due to the confusion and necessity for haste resulting from the great influx of prisoners, Burns was only able to make a cursory examination. The knife apparently had been hidden in the Negro's clothing.

Eight Identified as Fugitives.

Eight of the prisoners were identified as fugitives when arraigned in the various courts. Two were held for federal deportation. They were Tony Sampson, 49 years old, 1021 Madison street, and Kasimir Biola, 45 years old, 4423 South Wood street.

Edward J. Chambers, 26 years old, colored, 675 South St. Lawrence avenue, was held to the grand jury in bonds of $15,000 charged with robbery with a gun of Miss Clara Frestadt, 803 South Wood street and Arthur W. Doell, 4932 Lake Park avenue, on Jan. 7.

Ralph Stale, 25 years old, 920 Eastwood avenue, was held to the grand jury in bonds of $10,000 charged with operating a confidence game against the Fidelity Trust and Savings bank.

Five soft drink parlors in the vicinity of South State and 61st streets were raided yesterday by the Woodlawn police. In each place the police found a quantity of liquor.

CRIMINAL COURT.

John Copeland and Leslie Tiller, confidence game, sentenced to one to ten years each in the penitentiary; Patrick Collins and Daniel Dante, robbery [changed to larceny], sentenced to one year each in the Bridewell by Judge Harry B. Miller.

Henry Roberts and James Winsfield, robbery, sentenced to one to twenty years each in Pontiac reformatory by Judge John J. Sullivan.

JAPAN CREATES MONOPOLY FOR NARCOTICS SALE

GENEVA, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Japan today notified the league of nations that manufacture and distribution of narcotics in Corea had been taken out of the hands of private companies and made a government monoply.

Naotake Sato, the Japanese league of nations representative, informd the international opium committee that Japan was successfully applying medical treatment to Corean morphine addicts. Out of 684 cases, 660 had been sent to hospitals and cured. His statement created interest because of Stephen G. Porter's plan to curb American addicts. Mr. Porter, representing the United States, has long argued for limitation of narcotics in medicinal requirements.

M. Sato quoted Corean statistics to show that crimes, due to the use of narcotics, had been increasing. Hence the Japanese government will pursue actively the encouragement of medical treatment.

FORMER KAISER'S BIRTHDAY GUESTS OVERRUN DOORN

[Copyright: 1929: By the New York Times.]

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—The number of guests visiting Doorn on the occasion of the former kaiser's 70th birthday is so large that accommodations arranged in Doorn and other places are not sufficient, according to Count Wilhelm Bentinck, who arrived in Berlin this morning.

Doorn's two hotels have been completely taken over by Wilhelm for his guests and many have been furnished with rooms in Utrecht. Thirty automobiles have been hired to transport his friends to and from his Doorn castle. To help relieve the situation Count Bentinck has placed his own castle, Middachten, near Steeg, at the disposal of the former monarch.

Wilhelm Bentinck is a nephew of Count Bentinck, who turned his castle at Amerongen over to the former kaiser when he fled from Germany just before the armistice.

HAIL GRANDSON OF EX-KAISER AS HEIR TO CROWN

2,000 Germans Cheer as Republic Is Scored.

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Two thousand royalists tonight celebrated the forthcoming 70th birthday of former Kaiser Wilhelm. At a gathering in the "Kriegervereinshaus" under the auspices of the "Upright" organization, they cheered Prince Eitel Freidrich, second son of the former kaiser, and hailed Prince Wilhelm, eldest son of the former crown prince, as "heir to the imperial crown."

The assembly, with many men in uniforms, and many women in the dresses of nurses with Red Cross medals, made an unusual picture. In the gallery children displayed a large banner reading "youth faithful to the kaiser."

A military band played marches, and after almost every speech led the audience in singing some song pledging fidelity to Wilhelm or castigating the present Republican "shame" of Germany.

Young Prince Bows Frequently.

The former crown prince did not appear. He was not referred to in the speeches and it was his son who was hailed as the lawful ruler of the country. Welcomed by Lieut. Gen. Waechter, the chairman, the young Prince Wilhelm, who sat in the front row, had to arise and bow frequently.

The audience greeted with cheers the chairman's declaration that no people was ever more ungrateful to its ruler than the Germans toward their kaiser and a few minutes later when he began to read a message from the exile in Doorn, the entire audience rose and stood reverently. Tears were in many eyes as Gen. Waechter read:

"May the spirit of the 'Uprights' so permeate the whole German people that the way to freedom and imperial glory may be clear."

Cites Army Oaths to Kaiser.

Former Court Chaplain Walter Richter-Reichhelm in his address declared that their oath to the flag still bound former soldiers of the empire to the kaiser.

During the intermission there was a mad rush by the crowd toward the front of the hall to get a glimpse of the Hohenzollerns. A cordon of husky men was immediately formed around them and only officers in uniform or persons with an impressive assortment of medals had access to the inside of the circle to greet "their royal highnesses."

ALDERMEN HEAR PLEA TODAY FOR ADEQUATE POLICE

Seek Way to Add 1,000 Men at Once.

Chicago's need for more police will be considered this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the council chambers by a subcommittee headed by Ald. John S. Clark [30th], chairman of the finance committee.

Commissioner William F. Russell was invited by Ald. Clark to be present with material supporting his request for the immediate addition of 1,000 men to his force and the gradual building up of the department to a fully manned force of 10,000 policemen.

Other members of the committee who will participate in determining how many policemen should be added to the force at once, and where funds for the purpose may be found, are: Alds. William R. O'Toole [14th]; Guy Guernsey [6th]; James B. Bowler [25th], and E. I. Frankhouser [49th].

Public Hearings Asked.

Public hearings, at which the citizens may make known their demands for better police protection, will be suggested to the committee, and Ald. Clark said yesterday the committee will decide whether this testimony will be heard. Commissioner Russell has received thousands of letters, from individual citizens, from Kiwanis and Rotary clubs, business and improvement associations and many other interested sources, all urging that the police force be increased at once. Particularly in the outlying wards is the demand for a larger force urgent, the letters state.

The aldermen, particularly the members of the subcommittee, have expressed a desire to know how police personnel and police costs in Chicago compare with those in other large cities.

Ald. Guernsey said yesterday that he favored the proposal to make a substantial increase in the police force, but that he would insist on approaching the subject scientifically. He proposed to learn from Commissioner Russell how the men would be used, whether they would actually be assigned as patrolmen to travel beats in the wards of Chicago.

A Demand for Efficiency.

"The police department needs many improvements," Ald. Guernsey said. "We ought to make sure that all needless special assignments are eliminated, so that every available man may be placed directly in the war on crime. And I want to see how Chicago compares with other cities in the business of spending funds for police protection."

Commissioner Russell said he would repeat his pledge already made to place all the new men on the streets for the purpose of preventing crime before it is committed. He cited the following table to show how Chicago has less policemen per capita than many other large cities:

City.	Police.	Police per capita.	Police per sq. mile.
Boston	2,170	1 to 363	45
New York	16,117	1 to 367	51
St. Louis	2,064	1 to 402	32
Cleveland	1,921	1 to 499	28
Chicago	5,421	1 to 690	27

Commissioner Russell pointed out that per capita costs in the different large cities varies, due to widely varying wage conditions. The rate of a policeman's wage, which in Chicago has always been fixed by the city council, is higher in this city than in many others, just as wages in other trades and professions are higher. Chicago policemen work an eight hour day, while other cities have forces on a ten and even a twelve hour basis. Commissioner Russell believes this does not make for good efficiency and morale.

Comparison with New York.

A statement of costs prepared by the United States department of commerce census bureau and released two weeks ago, shows that in 1926 the cost of the New York department was $36,989,615, almost exactly two and a half times the cost in Chicago, where it was $14,917,073. Yet New York's population, 5,924,000, is only 1.7 times greater than Chicago's, which is 3,741,-000. If it is reliable to use per capita costs, then New York citizens are 48 per cent better protected than Chicagoans.

The census bureau's statement, also holding that per capita comparisons in police costs are untrustworthy, nevertheless gives a list of the following cities, showing per capita costs:

Chicago	$4.80	Cleveland	$3.83
Jersey City	9.28	Rochester	3.53
Newark	6.20	Kansas City	3.38
Detroit	5.77	Indianapolis	3.11
Buffalo	4.75	Cincinnati	2.71
Pittsburgh	3.97	Louisville	2.71
Milwaukee	3.80

Actual expenditures for police departments in all cities with a population above 500,000 are given in the government statement, as follows:

New York	$36,989,615
Chicago	14,917,073
Philadelphia	10,212,244
Detroit	7,311,749
Cleveland	3,486,315
St. Louis	5,009,703
Baltimore	3,664,986
Boston	4,992,937
Los Angeles	5,253,426
Pittsburgh	2,529,923
San Francisco	3,137,687
Buffalo	2,569,874
Washington	2,923,665
Milwaukee	1,963,238

The census bureau makes no effort to compute per capita costs for these cities, conceding such comparisons are unscientific.

Chairman Clark, in announcing yesterday that the subcommitttee would hold its first meeting today, said it was possible the committee would consent to the police department expending the 3 per cent salvage allowed in the annual budget. The appropriations for the police department were $15,000,000, which would provide for a salvage of $450,000, and this sum, said Ald. Clark, might permissibly be added to the projected expenditures of the department.

An Emergency Solution.

"I have been giving earnest thought to this matter," Ald. Clark added. "Several things have occurred to me as possible solutions. We might authorize Commissioner Russell, during crime emergencies, to have the department work twelve hours a day instead of eight, increasing the pay of the men by 50 per cent during these times. This would serve to increase the man power of the department by 50 per cent, or, in other words, the 6,000 men now on the department would be serving the hours of 9,000. And they would be experienced policemen."

Commissioner Russell stated he had considered the same solution, but had rejected it as too destructive of morale. When a policeman walks the streets for eight hours another four would seem too great a burden, unless he was accustomed to such a grind, the commissioner said. He said he would ask the aldermen to give him an immediate new force of 1,000 men, and further, to provide a method by which the force could be gradually and systematically augmented during the next five years until it reached a membership of more than 10,000.

GETS CONTINUANCE

MARJORIE ADAIR.

The case of Marjorie Adair, 23 year old dancing instructor, who was arrested by Sergt. Peter Bernacchi of the South State street station in connection with the holdup of Frank E. Pierce and a party of friends, who were robbed of jewelry valued at $40,-000 after they had attended a loop night club several days ago, was continued yesterday until Jan. 30. According to Sergt. Bernacchi, she pointed out the victims to Rocco Rotuna and Murray Humphries, who are accused of the robbery.

Burglar Caught in Act; Confesses 30 Robberies

Kay Orsted, 31 years old, 1622 North Whipple street, was arrested last night as he stood on a stepladder at the rear of a Crosby radio store at 1605 North Kedzie avenue, preparing to shatter the transom glass with a brick. Neighbors saw him and called the police. At the West North avenue station Orsted confessed committing thirty burglaries in the last few months, according to the police. Furniture, clothing, and jewelry valued at $10,000 were recovered from his home.

MME. WALSKA'S HOME IN PARIS, SHE TELLS COURT

She Fights Paying Duty on $2,500,000 Effects.

BY TOM PETTEY.

New York, Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Mme. Ganna Walska renewed her tilt with the customs court today, but first she explained the fight was not for money, but to establish the legal equality of women. The opera singer and wife of Harold F. McCormick of Chicago came here last night to testify today at her appeal against the ruling of the treasury department holding her liable for duty on jewelry and personal effects said to be worth $2,500,000. Customs authorities have held these goods since she brought them over from Paris last September.

While on the stand before Justices George M. Young and Genevieve R. Cline Mme. Walska disclosed that she receives no money from her wealthy husband for the support of her enterprises in Paris. She also testified that Mr. McCormick had agreed to her having permanent residence in France. No decision was reached today, and at the close of the hearing her counsel was granted 30 days to file a brief. The government counsel was given 20 days more to file.

Waits for Case to Be Called.

Mme. Walska arrived at the customs court in an open car and went immediately to the 9th floor where she had to await the calling of three cases before her's was reached. She wore a persian lamb coat over a dark colored dress. Her hat was a high crowned Cossack turban. A small cluster of violets provided the only touch of color.

The singer has lived in America at intervals but she still speaks English with an engaging Polish-French accent. Today she was quite at ease on the stand.

Glancing with interest at the woman judge, Mme. Walska testified she had been a resident of Paris for nine years and for two years before she met Mr. McCormick. She said she owned in addition to her home in Paris, a perfume shop and a building housing three theaters.

Third Trip to U. S. Since 1922.

"Mr. McCormick pays nothing for the support of these enterprises," she testified. "I shall never give up my Paris residence. I come to the United States only to make a visit. This is only the third time I have been here since 1922, when I married Mr. McCormick."

Mme. Walska then told of her agreement with Mr. McCormick, made before her marriage, that she was to have separate residence in Paris. She explained all of her financial ventures were sound and did not need any support. Six months after the marriage, she testified, she returned to Chicago with her husband and remained two or three months. Then in 1925 and 1926 she again visited in the United States. Always she returned to Paris with her husband's consent, she declared.

As Mme. Walska was hurrying away to her automobile she was asked if she planned a concert in New York.

"I shall give a concert here soon," she replied. "My manager has not decided the date, but it will be in Carnegie hall. Then I shall return to Paris."

Involves $40 in Lace.

The case heard today was a test case involving only a bit of antique lace assessed at $40, but the issue will decide whether the opera singer will have to pay a duty estimated at more than $1,000,000. It also will establish whether or not a wife legally has the right to a separate domicile.

It is Mme. Walska's contention that she has a right as a Parisian to bring her jewelry and wardrobe into the United States duty free. The government insists her legal residence is in Chicago with her husband.

ACTOR ENDS LIFE WITH STAGE GUN AS CROWD CLAPS

HAVANA, Jan. 22.—(AP)—A stage cannon, which for once was loaded with real shot, dramatically ended the life of a Negro actor known only as "Baltimore," and police today believed he had chosen the climax of his act to commit suicide.

"Baltimore" stood before the cannon, as he had done hundreds of times before in the Miami Follies minstrel show. There was a flare as the gun was touched off and a dull boom and the actor dramatically fell, as the curtain descended, and the audience applauded what seemed to them to be a good bit of acting. While the shouts of aproval still sounded from the house, "Baltimore" dragged his shot torn body to the wings and died.

Police at first suspected that the cannon had been loaded with real shot by some person other than the actor. They later learned from the owner of the show that "Baltimore" always insisted on charging the cannon himself for his act.

SCRATCH ON HAND FATAL TO BOY.

A scratch on his hand received five days ago resulted in the death yesterday at the Lutheran Memorial hospital of Adam Sugiel, 15 years old, 2043 Potomac avenue, from an infection.

JOHN T. A. ELY WINS DIVORCE; WIFE IS ABSENT

Case Ends in Default After 4 Year's Litigation.

John T. A. Ely, son of Dr. Richard T. Ely, noted political economist and member of the Northwestern university faculty, won a divorce yesterday before Circuit Judge Hugo M. Friend from Mrs. Ruth Mallory Ely of Washington, D. C. It was a default hearing on a bill charging desertion.

Attorney Leo Weisskopf, Chicago counsel for Mrs. Ely, tried to postpone the trial, telling the court that his client was intimidated and afraid to come to Chicago. Attorney Benjamin H. Ehrlich, representing the husband, produced evidence that Mrs. Ely had been served with due legal notice of the proceedings and the judge agreed to hear the case.

Ends Four Years' Litigation.

The trial ended four years of litigation, during which time Mrs. Ely brought three suits against Mr. Ely, in New York and in Washington. He alleged that she did not enter into their marriage in good faith, but for the purpose of extorting money from his father, Dr. Ely.

Mr. Ely, an advertising man living with his father in Evanston, testified that his wife refused to live with him on the night following their wedding on July 6, 1922. It was not until several weeks after the marriage, he said, that she lived with him as his wife, and then only for a couple of months.

Asked $20,000 Claim.

Mrs. Ely was employed as a clerk in the prohibition department at Washington, when she was married. The date she last lived with her husband was given in the divorce bill as November of 1923.

Dr. Ely took the witness stand in his son's behalf. He testified that his daughter-in-law had asked him for $20,000 but that he "had seen no reason for giving it to her."

A son, John Jr., 5 years old, is at present with her mother in Washington. Judge Friend, in indicating he will award a decree, reserved the question of custody of the child.

"YOU SHALL NOT" IS NEWEST RULE FOR BERLIN PEDESTRIAN

[Copyright: 1929: By the New York Times.]

BERLIN, Jan. 22. — Berlin has mobilized tonight the greatest force of traffic police in the history of the city. Tomorrow morning this army of police will begin to enforce a set of new traffic regulations in preparation for the last two years. Again the old German standby "verboten" will be brought into its own and pedestrians hereafter will be guided more by what they are not allowed to do than what is permitted.

One of the chief changes is the prohibition against parking on business streets and forbidding of handcarts and bicycles on streets controlled by light signals and traffic towers. Horse drawn vehicles also are further restricted.

For pedestrians there are eight commandments, mostly of the "you shall not" order. Jaywalking and loitering are subject to police fines and duties. Crossings not only will be made at the walker's risk but are also punishable by a term in prison.

ROBBERS TIE UP FOUR AND STEAL $20,000 IN RUGS

Three armed robbers entered the rug store of Ashjian Brothers at 6836 South Chicago avenue yesterday and, after tying Leon, Jack, and Harry Ashjian, three of the five brothers who own the store, and Harry Choolian, 120 North Halsted street, an employé, escaped with rugs valued at $20,000 and a truck belonging to the company. A fourth brother, Albert, who called while the robbers were in the store, became suspicious when a strange voice answered the telephone and he notified the Woodlawn police. Before policemen arrived at the scene, however, the robbers had fled.

SINGLE CONTROL OF COOK COUNTY TAXING IS URGED

Matthews Bill to Be Given to Legislature Today.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Centralized control of all taxation in Cook county is proposed in a bill prepared by J. Scott Matthews, chief examiner of titles of the Torrens system. Its aim is to place taxes on the basis of the ability of the tax payers to pay, and not on the capacity of the tax spending bodies to spend. It is to be introduced in the house at Springfield today by Representative William G. Thon of the Oak Park district.

The Matthews-Thon bill, which is short and simple, proposes what was regarded yesterday as perhaps the most revolutionary change in taxation method since the passage of the Juul law three decades ago.

Budget System Proposed.

It takes all the taxing bodies of Cook county at their common meeting place, the spot where the county clerk applies the scaling process and extends the rates, and it sets up new machinery as follows:

1. The board of review shall serve as a board of estimate and apportionment of taxes in Cook county.

2. Every taxing body in the county shall file with this board of estimate every year a budget. The budget must show in detail the estimated receipts and expenditures of such taxing body for the ensuing year.

3. The board of estimate shall settle the rates. It shall pay due regard to three items: The necessity of the expenditures shown in the budgets, the full amount which is being asked by all the taxing bodies, and the ability of the taxpayers to pay the aggregate amount. The act supersedes all acts in conflict, and allows the board of estimate to knock off as much as 25 per cent of the present minimum rates if necessary. The county clerk shall extend the rates as certified by the board.

Would Reduce Expenditures.

Mr. Matthews, who for the last twelve years has specialized in advancing remedial legislation at Springfield, is rated at the county building as having sponsored more laws now on the statute books than perhaps any other one individual in recent years. He maintains that if a material decrease in taxes is to be gained in Cook county it will be by curtailing the amount expended by the various taxing bodies and not by simply apportioning justly the aggregate amount among the individual taxpayers.

With President Anton J. Cermak of the county board Mr. Matthews has been asserting that a maximum should be fixed for all the taxing bodies in Cook county, as was contemplated thirty and more years ago by the Juul act. They insist the maximum amount of all the taxes should be a fair one from the standpoint of the taxpayer, and should be a limiting beyond which taxes should not go.

Purpose of Bill Explained.

"The principal objects of the bill," said Mr. Matthews, "are as follows: To place responsibility for the raising and expenditure of taxes in one body, so that there may be no passing of the buck from the tax raising bodies to the tax spending bodies, and back from the tax spending bodies to the tax raising bodies.

"To place every tax spending body in Cook county on a rigid budget basis, to the end that the public may be informed of the receipts and expenditures of all public moneys.

"To reverse the viewpoint from which taxation problems have in the past been solved. In the past a question of taxation has arisen and been solved on account of the needs and necessities of the tax spending bodies. Under this bill such a question would be solved from the viewpoint of the taxpayer, not the tax spender.

Plans to Set Taxing Limit.

"To establish an aggregate of taxation for the individual taxpayers beyond which the tax spending bodies may not go.

"To bring about a condition whereby a saving by one tax spending body will not be absorbed by another tax spending body, but every such saving will be immediately reflected in a decrease in the taxpayers' bills.

"To make it possible to give to the legislature and to the public the information which would be necessary in order to determine whether any increase in taxation over the minimum amount is actually necessary or justifiable in view of other expenditures which the taxpayer must make."

Mr. Cermak has been urging the creation of a statutory board of estimate and apportionment having jurisdiction over the tax rates of every tax levying body in Cook county. He has been urging the Merriam commission which he appointed on the subject to get its report ready, but so far the commission has not formulated a legislative program. So Mr. Matthews, who has been working on the matter for the last three years, has put forward his bill, making tax estimate and apportionment a power of the board of review.

Bill Proposes New Criminal Court for Chicago Cases Only

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Establishment of a new Chicago criminal court to handle all criminal cases arising within the city limits which now are under jurisdiction of the county Criminal court was proposed in a bill offered to the legislature today by Senator James J. Barbour of Evanston.

A court such as provided for in the Barbour bill would strip the present county court of probably ninety per cent of the cases now brought before it, inasmuch as virtually all of them deal with offenses committed in Chicago.

"The handling of criminal cases in the county court has proven very unsatisfactory," Senator Barbour explained. "Its methods are antiquated, resulting in long delays, great expense to the public, and many miscarriages of justice. A new city court would go far toward modernizing the entire system."

The Barbour bill was drafted by Judge Hiram T. Gilbert, 79 year old former magistrate of Ottawa, Ill., who drafted the act creating the Municipal court of Chicago. Senator Barbour made it clear, however, that the proposed new criminal court would have no connection with the Municipal court. It would be distinct and independent.

Twelve Year Terms.

The bill provides for the election of twelve judges to twelve year terms, the first of them to be elected in June, 1930, and thereafter in years of of circuit judge elections. The judges would have power to make all rules and regulations and to "introduce a modern system of practice." Their salaries, equal to those of Circuit and Criminal court judges now, would be paid, one-third by the state, one-third by the county, and one-third by the city. Assistants to the judges would be paid by the city alone.

Judges of the new court and judges of the Circuit and Superior courts would be authorized to interchange and hold court for each other.

Further coördination between the county and new city court would be secured by the fact that the clerk of the County Criminal court and sheriff would act ex-officio for the new tribunal. All city policemen would be ex-efficio bailiffs.

To Tighten Criminal Laws.

The county would furnish space and accommodations for the new court, probably in the new Criminal court and jail building. Senator Barbour believes that the business of the present County Criminal court would be so reduced that it would require no more than one or two rooms in the new structure.

Coincident with his bill, Senator Barbour presented a measure proposing four constitutional amendments intended to tighten up the laws allowing criminals to obtain bail. In 1907 and 1917 amendments were made to the code of 1874 whereby, after a verdict of guilty in felony cases other than capital, a defendant is entitled to freedom with bail no matter what the character of his crime. The constitutional amendments, if adopted, would restore the code of 1874, barring a defendant from bail after he had been found guilty of a felony by a jury.

MUST ALTER CONSTITUTION.

First Assistant State's Attorney Frank J. Loesch pointed out that under the state constitution it would be impossible to establish a separate Criminal court with the jurisdiction given to the present court. He said a constitutional amendment would be necessary. A city court could be established under the present constitution, he said, but its jurisdiction would be limited.

Judge Frank Comerford of the Criminal court said that it would be a step in the right direction if such a court could be legally established.

"The judges should be elected to a separate Criminal court," he said. "The Criminal court should be a complete unit in itself, and the judges permanently assigned to that work. By that system the judges would become specialists in criminal work and would be able to speedily dispose of cases. The present system of shifting judges from one branch to another each year does not allow the judges to specialize in criminal law."

CHICAGO TAXES UP FOR HEARING IN SPRINGFIELD

Finances of City to Be Discussed.

BY CARL WARREN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—By a unanimous vote, the house at its first business session today decided to wade into Chicago's tax muddle caused by the legal obstacles which have tied up the reassessment of 1927 taxes ordered by the state tax commission last July.

The house adopted a motion of Representative Michael L. Igoe inviting county officials and others interested in the tax situation to appear tomorrow and plead their case. Among those asked to come are Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board; Douglas Sutherland, secretary of the Civic federation; Harris S. Keeler, director of the bureau of public efficiency, and George Fairweather of the University of Chicago.

"We are in a bad fix up there and must have help immediately," Mr. Igoe told the house. "Unless this reassessment goes through, I understand, our tax spending bodies are going to be stranded without funds."

Two bills designated to unkink the tax tangle are pending in both the house and senate, one to remove the $7 a day limit on the salaries of deputy assessors and allowing the employment of $100 a day experts, and the other permitting late delivery of tax books. Mr. Cermak and a delegation last week urged Gov. Emmerson to support the bills. The governor objected to the fancy salaried experts.

Water Fund Issues Up.

Chicago's water fund dilemma came to the front today in two bills, drafted by Corporation Counsel Ettelson, approved by the city council, and presented by Representative Calvin T. Weeks. The water fund at present shows a $12,000,000 deficit, due to the heavy issuance of so-called water certificates or I. O U's, which the banks recently have rejected. One of the Weeks bills would validate $3,250,000 in certificates unsold while the other provides for future issuance of six per cent, twenty year bonds by the city without a referendum. The latter bill carries an emergency clause.

The Weeks bills were two of ten measures brought to Springfield by Leon Hornstein and James I. McCarthy, assistant corporation counsels for Chicago.

One of the Thompson bills sets the special tax rate for Calumet Harbor outside the $1.12½ limit of the Juul law; another creates a special tax rate for the construction of air fields; a third gives the city more specific powers to license restaurants, hotels and filling stations; and a fourth clarifies the city's right to collect from insurance companies, changing the existing law so that the period for collecting will correspond with the period of the reports made to the state superintendent of insurance.

Plan Exchange of Property.

The assistant corporation counsels have another bill to legalize the exchange of Clarendon bathing beach, owned by the city, for the Cicero avenue airport property owned by the school board.

They also will try to secure the passage of a bill "strictly defining the duties of the corporation counsel." This is said to arise from a renewal of the feud between Mr. Ettelson and Michael J. Faherty, head of the board of local improvements, over the employment of attorneys in special assessment cases.

Evanston Wife Worsts Her Mate with China

Evanston police, receiving a telephone call yesterday that a man was beating his wife at 1209 Ashland avenue, hurried to the scene and said they found Antone Weman, 44 years old, weight 135 pounds, crumpled up in a corner amid a pile of broken china, while above him towered his wife, Mary, weight 165 pounds. Weman was taken to St. Francis hospital and his wife was arrested.

DEMANDS STATE GET BIG SHARE OF TAX ON GAS

Emmerson Wants Aid to Road Program.

BY PARKE BROWN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
(Picture on back page.)

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Gov. Louis L. Emmerson manifested an intention today to fight for the kind of gasoline tax that he thinks is necessary for the completion of the state road system.

That he will battle proponents of plans different from his own was shown today when he received a friendly call from the legislative committee of the Illinois Municipal league.

The governor has been displeased by the activities of the league in favor of a 3 cent tax to be divided three ways—between the state, the county and the city, village or township—in proportion to the contributions to the motor vehicle license fund, or in other words, on the ratio of the number of machines in any community to the total number in the state.

Plan Regarded as Clumsy.

This proposal is regarded as clumsy, but Gov. Emmerson's position, it is said, was due to his conviction that the state must have at least 2 cents out of every 3 cents paid in gasoline taxes in order to finish the $100,000,000 bond issue system.

The delegation was headed by Mayor Charles H. Bartlett of Evanston, president, and included several other mayors, among them Mayor Frank Doyle of East St. Louis and Mayor O. W. Smith of Decatur.

It is reported that Gov. Emmerson with a bit of sarcasm spoofed the visitors about their failure to wait and see what the new administration's gas plan might be before launching their own scheme.

He is said to have told them that he considers it a duty to rush the completion of the roads listed under the $100,000,000, and that this end cannot be gained before 1934 or 1935 unless the state collects at least 2 cents of the gasoline tax.

No Appointments in Day.

Gov. Emmerson had no new appointments to announce today, and the most recent additions to his official family, Leo Lowe of Kewanee, director of trade and commerce, and Rodney H. Brandon, director of public welfare, were too busy talking over their new jobs to begin selection of their staffs.

Director Brandon, whose jurisdiction includes all the state charitable and penal institutions, issued a statement emphasizing the humanitarian motives of his administration.

"First, of course," he said, "my plan will be to completely organize the department and then the institutions to the highest degree of efficiency, finally making analyses of the individual cases in order that we ultimately may discover the best treatment of them. The great aim will be to learn how society can conduct itself to prevent these conditions.

"Gov. Emmerson is anxious that Illinois shall undertake a most vigorour campaign to find the causes of criminality and insanity, and I feel most highly honored to have the privilege of being associated with him in this work."

Day in Springfield

Gov. Emmerson indicated his intention to fight for three cents gasoline tax with two cents for the state road system.

MAY REDUCE PAY OF 13,000 PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS

Board Faces $6,000,000 Deficit in 1929.

Possibility of a cut in the salaries of Chicago's 13,000 public school teachers was seen yesterday, as officials considered means of preventing a deficit in school finances for 1929.

A survey of school expenditures, to be presented to the board of education at a conference today, indicated that $6,000,000 must be trimmed from operating costs in order to bring expenditures within the board's revenue.

Legislature Is Last Hope.

Although H. Wallace Caldwell, president of the board, was reluctant to discuss the report yesterday, it was stated that unless relief for the schools' financial difficulties is secured from the state legislature, the president will recommend a reduction in salaries and the suspension of a number of special divisions in the educational department.

The recommendation of the report, which has been compiled under his direction, will be followed in making up the budget for 1929, Mr. Caldwell stated. The survey will show where reductions in personnel and expense may be accomplished without hampering the proper functioning of the schools. These reductions, however, will be insufficient, and further reductions, which may cripple the normal activities of the schools, will be imperative, the president declared.

Will Drop Several Hundred.

Mr. Caldwell stated further that several hundred employés will be dropped from the pay rolls following the adoption of the report. The retrenchment will affect every department of the schools, he said.

The report will discuss at length the present system of maintenance which has cost the schools nearly $2,000,000 more annually since the employés engaged in cleaning and heating the school buildings were placed under civil service.

JUDGE FORFEITS CAROZZO BOND ON GUN CHARGE

Illness Plea Fails to Win 8th Delay.

Michael Carrozzo, who as far back as March, 1920, was described in the public prints as "one of our most promising gunmen," became a fugitive from justice yesterday. Chief Justice Harry Olson of the Municipal court ordered Carrozzo's bonds forfeited when he failed to appear on a seventh continuance to answer to a gun carrying charge.

The court order came after the gunmans' lawyer had made a plea that Carrozzo was seriously ill—presumably in his apartment in the Lake Shore Drive hotel—and asked for a further continuance. This request was vigorously opposed by Sergt. William Drury of the detective bureau, who first arrested Carrozzo on the gun carrying charge on Aug. 17, 1928.

"Your honor," said Sergt. Drury, "that was his excuse at the last hearing."

Carrozzo's gun case began when he was picked up in the loop as a suspect in the McHenry, Ill., bank robbery.

"I'm a state highway policeman," he told Deputy Commissioner Stego. But state officials denied this, so Carrozzo was again arrested.

"Well, anyway, I'm a state game warden, and game wardens can carry guns," was Carrozzo's new excuse.

But the court again decided against Carrozzo, who then, to escape a jail sentence, asked for a jury trial. After numerous court skirmishes during October, November and December Carrozzo took the position that another municipal judge was prejudiced. Then the case went to Chief Justice Olson.

HANSON'S QUICK TRIGGER KILLERS PLACED ON TRIAL

Buffalo Coast Guards Slew Man Fleeing Holdup.

BY ORVILLE DWYER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Elmira, N. Y., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Testimony in the trial of Frank L. Beck and Glenn Jennings, quick trigger coast guardsmen who inflicted blindness, madness and a lingering death on Jacob D. Hanson, secretary of the Niagara Falls lodge of Elks, because they suspected he might be a bootlegger, will open in federal court here tomorrow.

The case is before Federal Judge John R. Hazel, and the jury was completed today. Prosecuting the two men are Raymond A. Knowles, state's attorney of Niagara county, and his assistant, Edmund D. O'Brien. United States District Attorney Richard A. Templeton for the western district of New York is defending them on the grounds that the Hanson episode was an unavoidable thing occurring in the performance of government duties.

Killing Is Admitted.

Jennings has admitted shooting Hanson. Beck admitted he ordered his men to shoot any one who failed to stop for them. The two were indicted for second degree manslaughter by the county grand jury, and District Attorney Templeton obtained transference of the case to federal court.

Hanson was fired on as he drove his car up Lewiston hill, a lonely spot along the highway between Niagara Falls and Buffalo, on the morning of May 6, 1928. Jennings' shot severed his optic nerve and he was taken to a hospital, blind for life. His plight ultimately maddened him, and after lingering until Aug. 24 he died.

The victim was never known other than a respectable business man. There was no liquor in his automobile on the night he was shot. It is asserted he never sold one drop of liquor in his life. In a statement he gave at the hospital he said he believed Beck and his men—sheepskin coats over their uniforms—to be holdup men and he therefore refused to stop when they hailed him.

Old Question of Right to Kill.

The question once more before a federal jury specifically, according to the prosecutors is, "May dry enforcers with more zeal than judgment shoot down citizens on the mere suspicion they might be breaking the dry law?"

The jury in this case will be asked to set a precedent. If Beck and Jennings are found guilty, they face a sentence of fifteen years' imprisonment.

The jury accepted by both sides at the end of this first day's session is one of representative citizens. They are: K. W. Wright, a merchant; Frank M. Burnham, a farmer; George C. Hamberger, a manager; Samuel Levich, farmer; John McCormick, laborer; Dennis V. O'Leary, insurance agent; Michael J. Morrell, cashier; Frank W. Straw, contractor; Raymond J. Schultz, farmer; Ward G. Rogers, machinist; James P. O'Rourke, draftsman, and Guy R. Spencer, bookbinder.

The defendants walked into the courtroom this morning in their navy blue, gold braided uniforms all spic and span. Beck, who is a boatswain, had a bit more gold braid and insignia than Jennings, who is only a surfman. They sat at a table with Lieut. Donald Feak of the coast guard, who has still more gold braid than Beck. Besides them sat a secret service man, an assistant district attorney and United States Attorney Templeton.

Behind them, against the wall, sat several other coast guardsmen and officers. One of the guardsmen behind Jennings is Christ Dew, who also was there the morning Hanson was blinded and ultimately fatally wounded. Dew testified he shot in the air when Jennings put a bullet through Hanson's head.

Alert for Jury Prejudice.

All day long the United States attorney and the prosecutor contended with talesmen in an effort to get a jury that would try gold braided men as they would an "ordinary citizen." The state's attorney wanted men who would not be impressed by the uniforms—the color, as he put it—and the fact the case was in the federal court, with a United States attorney defending; and the latter was afraid he might get a jury which had on it some men with grievances against the government and government men and policemen.

"Are you a rabid dry?" "Are you a rabid wet?" Mr. Knowles would ask; and "Are you impressed by the fact these men come in here in uniforms and gold braid, surrounded by friends in uniforms and gold braid? Or will you try them just as you would try any one dressed as you and I are?

"Can you see through all this color, all this uniform and gold braid stuff and find them guilty—if you think they are? Would you be confused by the peculiar round of circumstances that brings these men, indicted by the state of New York, to trial in the federal court? And with no less a person than the United States attorney defending them?" Attorney Knowles persisted. "Do you believe one law should be enforced by breaking another?"

Feared Dislike of Officials.

United States Attorney Templeton was anxious to learn whether the men he accepted for jury service ever had any "contact" with government officials or agents—"customs officials?" he suggested, in particular. No one was found who had met the customs officials, and that appeared to please the federal attorney. He smiled.

All Elks were barred from jury service for cause by the judge. Five Elks were called and excused. Each man was asked whether he was an Elk. If so, he was at once let go.

Prosecutor Knowles asked many of the jurymen whether they had been approached by secret service men. Asked about this question, after the session, he said the secret service had been busy trying to determine if Hanson was a bootlegger ever since the man was shot.

The state is said to have thirteen witnesses; the government (defense) four.

HUNDREDS SLAIN AND WOUNDED IN MEXICO ELECTION

Indians Battle in Scores of Towns in Hidalgo.

BY JOHN CORNYN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 22.—The election for governor of the state of Hidalgo last Sunday was a hecatomb, according to the newspaper El Grafico today.

The Parres faction alone counts forty-four dead and close upon 100 wounded, some quite seriously. This group had the protection of the military in the larger towns, but as Otomi and Aztec Indians are reported to have fought political battles in more than a score of villages without military protection, a member of the Parres party today estimated the number of election dead at more than 100 and the wounded at from 200 to 300 more.

A list of the Indian towns where the election battles took place reads like a catalog of Egyptian antiquities.

Like a Hunting Party.

In Ixmiquilpan and Mixquiahuala the Indians fought a battle to the finish. They were stopped only by the military. In these two towns a witness says "The dead fell like quail before a hunting party."

Hidalgo, the richest mining state in Mexico, finds business practically paralyzed and business men are leaving because of the fear of future political battles.

"Fearful as has been the political toll up to now, it promises to be still heavier, as both candidates for the governorship claim the election and are determined to have possession of the legislative buildings on the day of the inauguration, some three weeks distant," a member of the Parres party said.

Asks Federal Intervention.

"Already both parties are drumming up backers for the coming fight. Unless the federal government intervenes to keep the peace the toll promises to be still greater than that already taken."

The Parres party followers claim they were attacked in practically all villages and towns not protected by the military, and deaths occurred in most of these places.

Two Convicts Quarrel Over Opening Window; 1 Slain

George Washington and William Jordan, colored convicts at the Stateville prison near Joliet, quarreled on Monday night over opening their cell window, and Jordan struck Washington with a stool. Yesterday when the pair were at work with 75 other prisoners in the prison rattan shop, Washington beat Jordan to death with a monkey wrench. Both men were sentenced from Chicago.

DEDICATE NEW NORTH ROBEY ST. SPAN TOMORROW

Dedication of the North Robey street bridge across the north branch of the Chicago river at 11 a. m. tomorrow will open up the greatest improvement that the northwest side of the city has seen, Ald. Max Adamowski [33th] said yesterday. Mayor Thompson has been invited to cut the ribbon allowing a motor parade to proceed north in Robey street from Fullerton avenue. Members of the city council and civic organizations of the Logan Square district will be present.

The bridge with its approaches, which is one-half mile in length, provides a continuous thoroughfare from Byrn Mawr avenue to Blue Island avenue, a distance of twelve miles. A detour of nearly two miles for traffic in Robey street is eliminated by the connecting link. The bridge was constructed in twenty-three months at a cost of $1,650,000.

Two parades, one on the river and the other in Robey street, will open the dedication program. Luncheon will be served afterward at the Logan Square Masonic temple.

DENEEN, GLENN TO DISCUSS U. S. POSTS IN STATE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Consideration of Illinois federal patronage matters is scheduled for conferences between Senators Charles S. Deneen and Otis F. Glenn [Reps., Ill.], which are to take place within the next few days.

The principal appointments involved are the Cliffe vacancy on the federal bench, the Chicago postmastership, the collector of internal revenue in Chicago, and the controller of customs in Chicago.

It is the understanding that Senator Glenn desires recognition in the filling of the vacancies, even though they are in Senator Deneen's end of the state.

ITALIAN TROOPS BATTLE DESERT ARABS; 218 SLAIN

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, Jan. 22.—The Italian colonial troops have resumed their offensive against the rebel Arab tribesmen in Tripolitania, according to an official communique today which tells of a battle in the desert at Gara, near the Cufra oasis. The Arab marauders lost 208 men and rifles and munitions. The Italians were victorious, with the loss of ten killed and twenty wounded.

These operations emphasize Italy's constant vigilance in consolidating the occupation of Tripolitania and Cyrenaica along thetwenty-ninth parallel. The task requires unceasing activities, as the tribesmen continue to filter back into the two provinces as marauders and robbers.

Vigorous action in the two colonies of Lybia is expected during the coming months following the recent consolidation of the government of both provinces under the single command of Marshal Badoglia.

Radio Love Lecturer Goes to Trial on Woman's Charge

Joveddah de Rajah, radio lecturer on problems of love, was placed on trial yesterday in Judge Edgar A. Jonas' court, charged with being the father of a child born to Mrs. Wilhelmina Holliday, formerly of New York. Mrs. Holliday recently filed suit for breach of promise against Joveddah. Mrs. Holliday testified that she fell in love with Joveddah after hearing him over the radio. Joveddah took the stand and denied that he was the father of the woman's child, although admitting a love affair with her.

52 ON TRIAL FOR OVERLOADING OF MOTOR TRUCKS

Prosecution of fifty-two companies operating thousands of trucks on Chicago streets was begun yesterday before Judge Warren H. Orr of Carthage, Ill., who was brought in to the Municipal court by Chief Justice Harry Olson because of local angles involved in the case. A jury was selected last night and hearing of evidence will begin today.

The companies are accused of loading their trucks beyond the limit of 30,000 pounds gross weight which is allowed by city ordinance. As a result, according to Assistant Corporation Counsel Martin H. Foss, the city's streets are cut to pieces. The penalty for overloading is only a $100 fine, but police are also given authority to order overloaded trucks off the street.

The companies insist that the city ordinance is illegal. It was pointed out that a state law allows a gross weight of 40,000 pounds per truck. It is planned to take the case to the Supreme court for a ruling.

POLICE CAPTURE ESCAPED CONVICT, LAST OF GANG

John Tahor, alias Venetta, 45 years old, member of a gang of convicts who escaped from Folsom penitentiary, California, in a sensational jailbreak two years ago, was captured last night by Lieut. William Cusack and a detective bureau squad at 3715 Ellis avenue.

The other escaped convicts, all of whom are safeblowers, robbers, and stickup men, were captured two weeks ago and later confessed to a dozen burglaries and holdups committed last year, in which the loot totaled $200,000. They are Jimmy Martin, 52 years old, 6404 Drexel boulevard; Benjamin Salkin, 43 years old, 2322 Commonwealth avenue; Jack Morgan, 39 years old, 3609 Lake Park avenue, and Jimmy Burke, 25 years old, of Blue Island. Tahor will be sent back to Folsom immediately.

PAINTERS' UNION JURY LOCKED UP; FAILS TO AGREE

Failing to arrive at a verdict after almost seven hours' deliberation, the jury in the Wallace anti-trust case was ordered locked up for the night by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson late yesterday. In case a verdict is reached it will be sealed and returned in court at 10 a. m. today.

The defendants, Arthur W. Wallace, secretary-treasurer of Painters' District council No. 14, and ten others, comprising the board of business agents of the union, are charged with conspiring to force kitchen cabinet manufacturers to pay $2 for every cabinet shipped to Chicago, ostensibly under the pretense of furnishing work for union painters.

These actions, according to the government, constitute violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

COOLIDGE LAYS CRUISER DELAY TO SENATE HABIT

Expects Quick Adoption After Wordy Discussion.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—President Coolidge is confident of the enactment of the administration cruiser construction bill at this session of congress.

The President, it was stated today at the White House, believes that the filibuster in evidence in the senate will be broken down. He thinks it likely that the bill will come to a vote much more quickly than anticipated. From his own experience as presiding officer of the senate during his term as Vice President, the President believes that body has the habit of disposing of legislation speedily when a long drawn fight seems in prospect and of dragging out discussion when there appears no reason for lengthy debate. Consequently, he thinks that the apparent difficulties facing the cruiser bill will be overcome before long.

Kellogg Hangs Back.

While President Coolidge is ready to let it be known that he wants the cruiser bill passed, Secretary of State Kellogg, author of the war renunciation treaty, which was given precedence in the senate, is apparently unwilling to do anything for the pending measure. The cruiser bill supporters would like the sponsor for the war renunciation treaty to declare that the construction of additional naval vessels is necessary, even though all the nations go through the form of renouncing war. Secretary Kellogg, however, does not appear disposed to do so.

The reason for Secretary Kellogg's attitude is understood to be that he is anxious that all the signatory nations shall ratify the treaty before he goes out of office on March 4. By a favorable declaration on the cruiser bill the secretary of state is said to be fearful that he will stir up difficulties in some of the foreign countries. Advices to Mr. Kellogg at present are that all of the signatory nations are preparing for early ratification.

Pacifist-Radicals Busy.

Meanwhile, despite President Coolidge's optimism, the pacifist-radicals are in the midst of plans to obstruct the cruiser bill at every possible stage. It required several days to dispose of the prohibition amendment to the deficiency appropriation bill, finally acted upon late today, when under ordinary circumstances not more than two or three hours would have been taken in its consideration. The radicals who did most of the talking would not admit that they were filibustering against the cruiser bill, but every one else apparently took it for granted that this was what they were doing.

The administration leaders now intend to try to keep the cruiser bill continuously before the senate. It is expected, however, that within a few days there will be strong pressure to take up other appropriation bills. The independent offices appropriation bill has joined the agricultural appropriation bill on the senate calendar and the army appropriation bill will be ready within a few days.

REPORT ON FATAL ENGINE BLAST.

Officials of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad announced yesterday after an investigation that a low water supply was responsible for the explosion of a locomotive boiler which killed Engineer F. E. O'Neill and seriously injured Fireman H. C. [illegible] of Milford, Ill., on Monday night.

SENATE ROLL CALL ON WEST CONFIRMATION AS CABINET MEMBER

By PAUL R. MALLON.

[United Press Staff Correspondent.]

[Copyright: 1929: By the United Press.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—[U. P.]—Despite the strict rule of secrecy surrounding executive sessions of the senate, the roll call by which the senate confirmed the nomination of Roy O. West of Illinois to be secretary of interior was obtained today by the United Press.

Fifteen Democrats, 11 Republicans and one Farmer-Laborite voted against confirmation of West. Twenty-two Democrats and 32 Republicans favored the nomination.

Unusual efforts were made to keep even the official totals of the vote secret. The senate voted overwhelmingly not to make the roll call of the vote public. Following is the roll call:

WOMEN INJURED BY EXPLOSION; FIND MAN'S BODY

Two women were in the Henrotin hospital last night suffering from severe burns as the result of an explosion which occurred while they were investigating a gas leak in a rooming house at 52 West Superior street with the aid of a lighted candle. The blast, which tore out the side walls of the third floor room, revealed the body of a roomer who had been dead for three days. The police expressed the theory that the roomer, William Brown, had committed suicide by gas.

Brown, the police learned, had not left his room for three days. The landlady, Mrs. Anna Quinlivan, and her daughter, Katherine, the two rendered unconscious and burned by the explosion, went to his room to investigate. Mrs. Quinlivan carried the lighted candle in her hand. As she opened the door the explosion occurred. Rene LaFebre, another roomer, was partially stunned, but managed to call the fire department.

The blast was heard in the Chicago avenue police station two blocks away. Girl employés of the Riggs Optical company, a few doors distant, were thrown into a panic.

time. He said he had to go to President Crowe for all these appointments.

Quizzed on "Inner Circle."

Mr. Lawler was questioned at length, it is reported, about the secret meetings of the "inner circle," where the business of the board to be disposed of would be decided prior to the open meetings. He said that no reports of pay rolls or other subjects were published during the pre-election period as had been the custom.

"Why didn't you complain, make some kind of a public complaint?" he is reported to have been asked.

"What was the use?" he is said to have replied. "It would have done no good at the time."

All the trustees questioned yesterday denied having any connection directly or indirectly with any corporation doing business with the district. They denied having any knowledge that any trustee had such connections. The question of bank deposits in favored banks was also discussed. Mr. Crowe is reputed to be head of an Oak Park bank.

Trustee Miller was the last witness of the day and his testimony was similar to that of his associates, except that he said he had been allotted about 40 jobs for his constituents. The total jobs allowed these three trustees was approximately 105, compared with the total of 4,800 carried on the rolls.

Mr. Crowe, who could not be found on Monday by subpoena servers, allowed himself to be found yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Sherman. He denied that he had evaded service on the preceding day. He indicated that he might insist on certain concessions being made to him before he would go before the jury under immunity waiver and allow himself to be questioned.

MAY GET PAY THIS WEEK

Howard W. Elmore, president of the sanitary district, stated yesterday that the district's 1,100 employes will likely be paid by the end of the week. The trustees have found, he said, that a sufficient portion of the $1,550,000 in taxes turned over to the district recently could be appropriated to meet the overdue pay roll of $176,000 as well as the roll for a like amount which falls due on Feb. 1.

The pay rolls were withheld ten days ago by order of the district's treasurer, Frederick H. Rawson, pending an examination of the district's bookkeeping. The sum received from the county treasurer has since been segregated in order that part of the money might be used for current expenses.

Mr. Elmore also announced that the trustees are at work on a plan to unify the district's bookkeeping system. Previously each department had kept its own books. The new system will put all bookkeeping under one department to be associated with the clerk's office, Mr. Elmore said.

The bonds for the $27,000,000 bond issue which the district failed to sell before the new referendum law became effective on Jan. 1 were burned yesterday at the American Bank Note company, Cullerton street and Indiana avenue. There were 27,000 bonds, each of $1,000 denomination. The destruction of the bonds was supervised by Mr. Elmore, Chief Clerk Harry Hoff, and officials of the bank note company.

Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher yesterday continued indefinitely a decision on a taxpayer's suit which asked that the sanitary district be enjoined from holding a referendum election on its proposed $27,000,000 bond issue. The drainage board, by losing the suit, would have been able, by inference to issue the bonds without an election, as it tried to do before the first of the year when the new bond law became effective.

The suit, filed by Attorney Urban Lavery, contended that the new bond law is void because it fails to specify how the election should be held. Judge Fisher, in his opinion, indicated he was inclined to agree with this contention, but the court declared the fault should be amended, in the interest of the public, by the present session of the legislature.

NEGRO SHOOTS TWO WATCHMEN.

An unidentified Negro, angered because he had been thrown out of the Savoy ballroom, 4731 South Park way, a Negro dance hall, on Monday, returned there yesterday and shot two watchmen, Hugh Barkin, 28 years old, 468 East 41st street, and Thomas Robinson, 30 years old, 4730 South Michigan avenue. They are expected to recover.

The Day in Congress

SENATE.

The senate, by a vote of 50 to 27, adopted a modified amendment to the deficiency appropriation bill appropriating $24,000,000 additional for prohibition enforcement.

Filibustering tactics were employed during the consideration of the appropriation bill as a means of delaying action on the cruiser bill.

A fight over the tax refund question in connection with amendments to the appropriation bill followed the conclusion of the long drawn out discussion of prohibition.

HOUSE.

The District of Columbia annual appropriation bill occupied the attention of the house.

Additional witnesses for and against higher duties on sugar were heard by the house ways and means committee.

LAKE LEVEL PLAN URGED COVERING WHOLE PROGRAM

Illinois Seeks Delay Until Hoover Takes Office.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Present indications are that all the water diversion questions affecting the levels of the great lakes will be lumped into one general discussion when representatives of the United States and Canada negotiate a treaty providing for joint construction of the St. Lawrence seaway project.

The Chicago water diversion problem, raised by the Supreme court decision denying Chicago's right to withdraw water from Lake Michigan for sanitation purposes, will be one of the early matters discussed when the commission meets, probably early in the Hoover administration. Losses to lake levels caused by dredging of the St. Clair river and by water allocated to American and Canadian companies for the development of power in the Niagara river are also or the program.

Seek United Delegation.

The Illinois delegation in congress is moving to block immediate ratification of the American-Canadian treaty, which permits temporary increased water diversions for power at Niagara river and for the proposed improvement of the scenic beauty of the falls. Senator Charles S. Deneen [Rep., Ill.] thinks it would be better to have the allocation of additional Niagara river water for power purposes discussed when the Chicago diversion is argued with Canada. At a special meeting of the entire Illinois delegation tomorrow, efforts will be made to unite in a move to delay the Chicago diversion problem until the Hoover administration, in view of President Elect Hoover's friendly attitude toward the lakes to the gulf route.

Try to Save Gulf Route.

It is now considered possible that an arrangement will be included in the projected St. Lawrence seaway treaty with Canada which would eventually grant a diversion at Chicago large enough to insure the success of the lakes to the gulf route.

The Niagara Falls scenic treaty now before the senate would permit additional diversions from the Niagara river for power purposes amounting to a maximum of 20,000 cubic second feet. These diversions would be temporary and could be made only during the winter months. Should it be found practicable to make the additional diversions permanent, then the way would be open to amend the 1909-'10 treaty. Pressure is already being applied to the senate foreign relations committee to delay the treaty.

NANSEN REACHES U. S. TO LAY PLANS FOR HIS ARCTIC DIRIGIBLE TOUR

New York, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, Norwegian arctic explorer and scientist, reached New York from Norway today. He plans to spend two months in this country, devoting part of the time to plans for his expedition in the dirigible Graf Zeppelin over the north polar seas in the spring of 1930.

Dr. Nansen, now in his 67th year, will also discuss with the American government the need for a mooring mast at Nome, Alaska, if his trip across the top of the world is to be accomplished. He hopes to make three flights over the Actic sea. He plans to take a crew of forty men and ten scientists.

Kevish, 4636 South Whipple street, to give an exhibition of Russian dancing and a series of folk songs at a local Lithuanian theater. Skinderis, who arrived in the United States four months ago, says he was born in 1824 and has lived under the rule of four Russian czars. He has three daughters and one son in America and intends to visit them all during this trip.

Mrs. Roy Johnson, a bride of a few months, seems pleased with her first attempt at Marshmallow Gingerbread.

A Far Simpler Way In Baking

If your husband has a leaning to gingerbread, try this simplified recipe. Of 272 women who tried it, 270 had perfect luck! Of the two who failed, one blamed her oven; the other a mistake in mixing. It's virtually a mistake-proof recipe.

By the development of an utterly new type of flour—Gold Medal "Kitchen-tested" Flour—baking has been simplified amazingly for housewives. And the cause of most baking disappointments banished.

"Kitchen-tested" means that every batch of this flour has been tested in an oven just like yours, before it goes to you. Tested for uniformity of result with home recipes.

That means Gold Medal Flour always acts the same way EVERY TIME with your recipes.

Ask your grocer for GOLD MEDAL "Kitchen-tested" Flour. For perfect results, be sure and get that brand of flour before you try this recipe.

Cut out along this line and save—

RECIPE . . . . Marshmallow Gingerbread

½ cup shortening, ½ cup sugar, 1 egg, ½ cup molasses, 1¾ cups GOLD MEDAL "KITCHEN-TESTED" FLOUR, 1 tsp. soda, 1 tsp. cinnamon, 1 tsp. ginger, ¼ tsp. salt, ½ cup sour milk, 3 doz. large soft marshmallows.

METHOD: 1. Cream shortening and add sugar gradually. 2. Add well beaten egg and molasses. 3. Sift flour once before measuring. 4. Mix and sift flour, soda, cinnamon, ginger and salt together and add alternately with sour milk and mix well. 5. Pour into well greased and floured pan and bake. 6. While gingerbread is still warm, split it carefully into 2 layers, place about 16 marshmallows between layers. Then place about same number of marshmallows over top. 7. Return gingerbread to moderately hot oven, 450° F., until marshmallows are soft, puffy and golden brown. 8. Remove from oven and serve at once. TIME: Bake 30 minutes. TEMPERATURE: 350° F., moderate oven. SIZE OF PAN: One cake pan 7 inches square.

This and other delightful "Kitchen-tested" recipes are given every Wednesday and Friday in the Gold Medal Radio Cooking School. You are invited to listen in. BETTY CROCKER, Gold Medal Home Service Dept.

The Inspiration of High Standards

¶ It is inherent in humanity to feel pride in worth-while accomplishment. The laborer who severed from its parent block the marble which Praxiteles fashioned into figures that earned undying fame knew the dignity of his task and felt the satisfaction of doing his bit for the finest sculpture in the world.

¶ Whether an artist, a musician, a writer, a business executive or one who labors at some lowlier task, no intelligent person is insensible to the inspiration of participation in a work of great excellence.

¶ Day in and day out, with hardly ever a change in personnel, the Henrici organization persists, year after year, in its service to the public, with consummate skill and most conscientious regard for the welfare of patrons.

¶ In such an organization do you place your trust when you come to Henrici's for breakfast, luncheon, dinner or late supper—and you are not disappointed.

ALL MIAMI, LED BY 14 BANDS, OUT TO GREET HOOVER

Natives of Every State Shout a Welcome.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Miami Beach, Fla., Jan. 22.—[Special]—President Elect Hoover settled himself in his new home in Florida today.

It is on an island with close clipped grass, well manicured trees and shrubbery and open to water and motor highways on two sides. Birds of the sea used to find a haven here and the gulf stream waters pound the white sand only a few blocks away. At his doorway is the quiet blue backwater of Biscayne bay.

With his latest fishing rods in his hand, Mr. Hoover disappeared from the public gaze this afternoon after a big and colorful reception given him all the way through Florida and in the Miami cities. His chief thought now is to take his motorboat, the Patsy, and loaf out in the reefs and keys southeast of his new home, trolling for the king of all sea fighters, the sail fish.

Uncertain on West Indies Visit.

The possibility of a visit to the West Indies has not left Mr. Hoover's mind. He still is uncertain as to the time required and the completion of the work he has on hand.

Mr. Hoover was welcomed to the J. C. Penney home on Belle Island at 3 p. m. A select group of Miami citizens and officials accompanied him to the island and then left him with the assurance that he was to get all the rest and quiet that he desired and would not be bothered with visitors unless he invited them. The house is three stories of concrete and plaster, on a small island between Miami and Miami beach. There are other homes on the islands and the Venetian highway runs past the door.

Welcome Is Warm.

The welcome to Florida was warm in more ways than one. The natives called it "chilly" as there had been a little rain and the temperature was only 75 degrees, but to those who had come from sub-zero weather it seemed midsummer. Instead of furs and overcoats the people along the line of march wore summer clothes, straw hats and an astonishing number of young women had little on but bathing suits. Hundreds of pleasure boats dashed by as the line of parade passed the waters.

The first building to catch the eye of the visitors was the 27 story courthouse and city hall. Tall hotels, banks and office buildings arose on every side and Flagler avenue, the main business street, was packed with thousands. It was a holiday and the squares were thronged with school children. There were fourteen bands along the line of march, including the American Legion outfit that won the prize at the Paris convention.

Among the notables who greeted Mr. and Mrs. Hoover were Mrs. William Jennings Bryan and Jack Dempsey. No greater contrast could be imagined than between this gentle old lady who rides in the wheel chair and the husky boxer who has taken over the late Tex Rickard's affairs here.

Given Keys to Miami.

The keys of the city of Miami and two new fishing rods were presented to Mr. Hoover in the city park, where a platform had been erected and a great picture staged for him. The sun was bright and the sky blue. The Boy Scouts held back the crowds with ropes while Mayor E. G. Sewell welcomed Mr. Hoover to the city and the state. The governor already had sent his emissary with a similar message.

The people, however, made official assurances of welcome unnecessary. They were glad to see the President Elect and his wife and cheered and waved at them all along the march. The crowd came from all parts of the United States.

Mr. Hoover carried this city and county in the election. The Dade County Republican club had a live elephant to meet him. The elephant is the property of Carl Fisher, one of the builders of Miami beach. In its trunk the elephant waved an American flag. Illinois was represented in the groups along the parade near the park. Here all the state societies were gathered and Illinois was one of the largest. They sang the state song as Hoover passed. Iowa residents were singing the corn song as the President Elect passed.

VACATION OVER, FINDS HUSBAND DIVORCED, REWED

Wife Asks Court to Set Aside His Decree.

Fraud and duplicity by her former husband are charged in a petition filed yesterday by Mrs. Sylvia Mirotz asking Circuit Judge Stanley H. Klarkowski to set aside a divorce obtained on Jan. 21, 1928, by Abraham Mirotz, 2000 Walnut street.

Mrs. Mirotz first learned of the divorce action, she avers, when she returned recently from an extended visit with relatives in New York. She had been receiving letters from Mr. Mirotz while she was away, both before and after the date he obtained the divorce, she said.

Divorced and Remarried.

"On her arrival in Chicago," related Irving S. Abrams, her attorney, "Mrs. Mirotz went to her husband's store, threw her arms around his neck and tried to kiss him. He avoided her kiss and announced to her that he not only had been divorced from her, but that he also had been remarried in her absence.

"His second marriage will be annulled automatically if our petition to set aside the decree is sustained. I don't think my cient cares to live with her husband again, but there are some property rights that must be adjusted before any valid divorce is entered.

"Mrs. Mirotz, who was married in 1922, inherited some money from her father. She invested the money in a small general store which was conducted by her and her husband. In the fall of 1927, her health broke under the strain of housework in addition to clerking behind the counter.

Goes on a Vacation.

"Mr. Mirotz sent his invalid wife for a vacation with her relatives while she recuperated. He gave her no hint that there was another woman on the horizon. When Mrs. Mirotz was in New York he wrote to her in such a way as to make her believe they were still on the best of terms.

"In the meantime, he went into court, charged his wife with desertion; alleged that he did not know her present whereabouts, and obtained a divorce on a desertion charge without a contest."

BURNS TO DEATH.

William Spears, 40 years old, was burned to death in his home at 2337 Cullerton avenue yesterday after being overcome by smoke when an overheated furnace pipe set fire to the basement.

ALDERMEN REFER CAR TANGLE TO CITIZENS' GROUP

Reach Impasse When Both Sides Stand Pat.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The negotiations between the city and present companies on a transit agreement reached yesterday what Ald. E. I. Frankhauser [49] called an "impassé". Both sides stood pat on their contentions. The companies declined to recede from their "fundamentals" as a basis of enabling legislation and a franchise ordinance. The aldermen refused to yield on their "fundamentals." The two sets of ideas clash sharply.

Despite this situation the aldermen avoided a deadlock by suggesting that both sets of "fundamentals" be referred to the citizens' committee appointed by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson for their "advice and counsel". This committee is composed of James Simpson, A. A. Sprague, John A. Carroll, Joseph R. Noel, and C. M. Thompson. Alderman Frankhauser and O. F. Nelson [46th] have an appointment with Mr. Simpson at 11 o'clock this morning to present the two lists of "fundamentals" and also the Kelker franchise ordinance, now pending before the council subcommittee on franchises.

Expect Decision This Week.

The aldermen assume that the citizens' committee, appointed early in December, has had sufficient time to become acquainted with all of the salient features of the proposed ordinance and enabling legislation and can, therefore, reach a decision today or tomorrow and be ready by Thursday afternoon or Friday to make some suggestions. Ald. Frankhauser said that he will ask Mr. Simpson this morning to be ready to present something tangible to the subcommittee on Thursday afternoon, if possible.

Although there was considerable conversation at the subcommittee meeting yesterday afternoon, at which both sides announced their determination to stand pat, neither side referred, even indirectly, to certain important elements of the situation which may be summarized as follows:

The companies appeared fearful that they could not obtain a fair agreement from the aldermen on fundamentals because of the approaching aldermanic elections. The aldermen seemed hesitant to decide on what they may ultimately agree, as opposing candidates might use their decision as campaign material. The result is that a real exchange of views may not come until after the aldermanic election on Feb. 26. Both aldermen and company representatives appeared to be relieved that the transportation subject has been shifted to the lap of the citizens' committee.

More Time for Campaign.

When Leonard A. Busby told the aldermen yesterday that the companies would not change their statement of "fundamentals," the aldermen retired for a ten-minute executive conference. In that conference it was urged that the subcommittee pass the subject first to the local transportation committee and then to the city council, before passing it on to the Simpson committee of citizens. That would have used up several days or perhaps a week and given the aldermen more time for political campaigning.

The majority, however, stood for a direct transfer. The aldermen present were: W. D. Meyering, [8th]; O. F. Nelson, [46th]; J. M. Arvey, [24th]; J. B. Bowler, [25th]; E. I. Frankhauser, [49th]; John Toman, [23d], P. F. Ryan, [18th]. In announcing the transfer, the aldermen asserted that they are not pledging themselves to be bound by the citizens' recommendations. It is therefore uncertain what influence the citizens' committee will have.

The chief points of difference between the two sets of fundamentals may be put briefly as follows: The aldermen ask enabling legislation by which the city may grant either a fixed term franchise, not exceeding 40 year, or an indeterminate permit. The companies declare: "We are not interested in a fixed term grant."

Differ on Investment Return.

The companies ask "a reasonable return" on all present and future investments in the properties. The city asks the power to fix an unchangeable return upon money now invested.

On home rule the city desires certain powers vested in the city council and others in a local regulatory commission appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the city council. The companies insist that all powers of regulation and control be given to the local commission.

A fourth controversial point is a fundamental of the city that the companies shall not issue securities of which the par value is in excess of the agreed valuation in the ordinance. The companies contend that this unnecessarily interferes with negotiations for consolidation.

ASKS DIVORCE

Mrs. Florence von Puttkamer.

Mrs. Florence Hill Cuneo von Puttkamer of 999 Lake Shore drive, former wife of John Cuneo, filed suit for divorce yesterday against Curt von Puttkamer, insurance broker, with whom she has had several court battles since their separation on Sept. 15, 1927. A decree is asked on a charge of drunkenness. The bill also seeks an accounting, the return of $182,000 Mrs. von Puttkamer says she advanced her husband during the two years they lived together, and an injunction to restrain him from taking their child, Curt Hill von Puttkamer, 2 years old, from her.

The fight for the custody of this child was revealed last spring. Mrs. von Puttkamer, charged that her husband had kidnaped the boy and had demanded that for his return she sign a quit claim deed for her property at 315 Webster avenue, said to be worth $200,000. She got the child back in a habeas corpus proceeding. Earlier she filed a separate maintenance suit.

Charged with Attempting Pay Roll Holdup; Is Held

Charged with attempted robbery, George Marshall, 24 years old, 16 South Green street, was held to the grand jury in bonds of $10,000 by Judge W. L. Sanders yesterday. Marshall is accused of having attempted to steal the purse of Miss Gertrude Sluppich, 22 years old. 4233 North Spaulding avenue, an employé of the Elmer R. Arminger Produce company. The purse contained a $250 pay roll.

COUNTY BOARD LAYS OWN PAY ON ALTAR OF THRIFT

Each Member to Sacrifice Month's Salary.

The county commissioners voted unanimously yesterday to accept only eleven months pay for themselves during 1929. The action was taken, they said, to lend force to their pleas to other county officials to economize and save the county from a threatened $4,000,000 deficit.

The commissioners' voluntary salary cut will save the county $10,325. Each will give up $625 and President Anton J. Cermak will surrender $1,000.

Department Chiefs Called.

Departments heads will be summoned before the board at its next budget session, tomorrow, and will be requested to follow the thrift precedent set by the commissioners. President Cermak, with the aid of efficiency experts, has been making a survey to learn where pay roll slashes can be made without hampering public service.

Appropriations requested by institutions and departments for 1929 total approximately $21,00,000. The 1928 budget totaled approximately $19,000,000. The revenue for 1929 is estimated at $17,000,000, although admittedly this is little more than a guess since no one is sure how the tax revaluation will affect revenues.

In passing on some of the requests, the commissioners have cut approximately $2,000,000 from amounts asked and President Cermak said another $2,000,000 must be lopped to keep expenses within income.

Where Cuts Are Made.

Some of these items tentatively ruled upon are included in the following table:

	1928 allowance.	1929 request.	Allowed, 1929.
Supplies....	$1,817,822	$1,788,500	$1,430,000

Attorney General Oscar E. Carlstrom appeared before the board yesterday and promised to urge Gov. Louis Emmerson to indorse legislation to aid Cook county in its tax problem. The county is asking the general assembly to pass a bill permitting payment of higher salaries to experts working on the realty tax revaluation. The Supreme court, in a recent decision, held that the assessment experts, under existing laws, could not be paid more than $10 a day. Qualified men will not work for this amount, according to the officials.

TRUCE DECLARED BY SALVATION ARMY AS LEADER IS BURIED

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 22.—The Salvation Army declared a temporary truce today during the funeral of Commissioner William J. Haines. Thousands of officers and members gathered at Clapton, where his young daughter delivered a touching eulogy before the coffin, draped in the crimson and blue Salvation Army banner.

Commissioner Higgins, chief of staff, conducted the service. Thousands marched to Abney Park cemetery. Three bands, including Commissioner Haines' own, as well as Army banners, supplied much of the pomp and ceremonial characteristic of a military funeral.

Although Mrs. Bramwell Booth was not present because of illness, the general sent an eloquent tribute, and his daughters, Catherine and Mary, were present. They marched in the procession a few steps behind Commander Evangeline Booth, head of the American branch, who today characterized Commissioner Haines' final act in participating in the request for the general to resign as the "last fight of Commissioner Haines in the interests of a better and greater Salvation Army."

MELROSE PARK DEFENDANTS GET FINES, SENTENCES

Federal Judge Robert C. Baltzell yesterday distributed fines and jail terms to 53 defendants in the Melrose Park liquor conspiracy case which closed Saturday. Of the group sentenced, 46 had pleaded guilty during the trial and the other seven were convicted by a jury.

The fines assessed aggregated $6,350 and ranged from $50 to $500. The jail sentences totaled 165 days. In several cases jail sentences were suspended and all the defendants were given until Feb. 1 to pay their fines. Ventura Pacelli and John Fipria, both convicted by the jury, were sentenced to the county jail for sixty days each. Sentences of one year each imposed upon John De Mario and Joe Severino, two of the principals who pleaded guilty, were suspended and they were fined $500 each.

The case grew out of raids in the village more than a year ago.

Foch Recovering Rapidly; Thanks His Friends in U. S.

PARIS, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Marshal Ferdinand Foch had so far recovered tonight from heart and kidney attacks that his physicians thought they might permit him to receive visitors by Saturday. The 77 year old veteran sat in his armchair for a full hour today after showing no ill effects from a brief relief from his sick bed yesterday. The marshal sent a special messenger tonight to United States Ambassador Herrick, entrusting him with the task of thanking all his American friends for the interest they have taken in his welfare.

the Doctor says:

Don't dope YOUR COUGH

IT is not wise to use remedies which depend upon "dope" such as narcotics, chloroform, cannabis or tar products. They may stop your cough temporarily by numbing the tissues, as most cough mixtures do, but this is not enough.

The inflamed air passages must be soothed naturally, the germ-laden mucus loosened and expelled in order to effect a lasting recovery.

PERTUSSIN assists Nature to accomplish these results in a remarkably short time—and it is absolutely harmless.

GALE BATTERS 3 SHIPS; 1 FEARED LOST; 1 SINKING

Two Liners Buffeted by Storm Going to Rescue.

New York, Jan. 22.—[Special.]—From the very center of a north Atlantic gale two ships with about 70 persons on board sent out distress calls today. Two others, themselves storm buffeted, fought their way into the teeth of it as rescuers. Slowed up by the storm, the nearest of them had a chance to be on the scene in 15 hours.

The American tanker Dannedaike was reported sinking in latitude 37.56 north, longitude 59.37 west. The Italian freighter Florida sent a distress call from latitude 38.05 north, longitude 60.12 west, saying its rudder was damaged.

Ships 50 Miles Apart.

The Dollar liner President Harrison was about 15 hours away and the United States liner America about 36 hours from the two ships in distress which were about 50 miles apart.

A terrific westerly gale has been lashing that section of the Atlantic for three days and has done other damage to shipping. The British freighter Teesbridge called for help yesterday and has not been found today. It gave its position as 150 miles east of where the Dannedaike and Florida are. A rescue ship reported having lost touch with the Teesbridge during the night.

Capt. George Fried, hero of the Antinoe rescue three years ago, reported that he was sending the America as fast as he could from a point which at noon was 363 miles northeast of the position of the vessels in trouble. On account of the westerly gale smashing seas against the liner's starboard bow the best speed she could get up was ten knots an hour. He said he did not believe he could reach the scene in under a day and a half unless the weather moderated.

Reach Scene in 15 Hours.

The President Harrison was 150 miles from the trouble area and about due east. If the President Harrison could match the America's speed in the storm it would be on the scene in 15 hours.

While the Dannedaike's trouble on first reports sounded the more serious the Florida sent out a plea in midafternoon stating that its rudder was broken, lifeboats were smashed, and the vessel was in the midst of a tremendous sea.

In response to the Florida's urging Capt. Fried said he was turning so as to get the sea a little more behind him and sending the ship ahead as fast as was possible—he might be on the scene at daybreak tomorrow.

Steering for Dannedaike.

Capt. J. V. Guthrie of the President Harrison was steering primarily for the Dannedaike, but keeping in touch with the Florida.

The American tanker is of 4,300 tons. It left Beaumont, Tex., on Jan. 11 for Ghent, Belgium. The boat is [illegible] feet long, has a beam of 43.2 feet, and a depth of 27.1 feet. The Dannedaike Steamship corportion of Philadelphia is the owner.

The Italian vessel, which left Pensacola, Fla., Jan. 10, is owned in Genoa. Its tonnage is 3,503.

The America was bound from Bremen to New York.

Lithuanian Government Ratifies Kellogg Treaty

KOVNO, Lithuania, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The Lithuanian government today ratified the Kellogg anti-war pact.

Ratification of the Kellogg pact by Lithuania has significance in its bearing upon negotiations between Russia and Poland for a special protocol applying the pact in a localized sense to the states that touch the western frontier of Russia. Poland suggested it would sign the protocol provided the soviet government would invite Finland, Esthonia, and Latvia to join, while Poland, as intermediary, would pass the invitation to Roumania. There was no mention of Lithuania in the Polish proposal.

AUSTRIA PLACES LEGAL STAMP ON 54,000 WEDDINGS

Ends Plight of Pairs Joined by 'City Law.'

BY WILLIAM SHIRER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VIENNA, Jan. 22.—Fifty-four thousand Austrian couples, chiefly Viennese, who for years have been trying to discover whether they are legally married or not, received a bit of encouragement today when parliament voted a bill promising the eventual solution of the strange problem.

The Pan-German party members deserted Chancellor Ignaz Seipel's coalition government to join the seventy-one Socialists who put through the bill. However, their action does not threaten a cabinet crisis, as no question of confidence was involved. The chancellor, who is a Roman Catholic prelate, was out of town.

"Dispensation" Marriages.

The plight of the 54,000 couples is curious. It has no parallel anywhere in the world except perhaps in comic opera.

Vienna used to chuckle about it, but now is taking it more seriously, as are the 54,000 couples who thought they were married when they married and found later they were not—or at least not thoroughly married.

The 54,000 couples are all second timers. They wanted to get married a second time following divorce, and finally got the burgomaster of Vienna to permit the marriages. This happened after the war and thousands of divorcees took advantage of the Vienna mayor's ruling by entering "dispensation" marriages, the dispensation being furnished by the big hearted municipal government of Vienna.

Government Refuses Sanction.

The Austrian state is strongly a Catholic state and the government refused to sanction the "dispensation" marriages or recognize those already contracted.

The question of the legitimacy of thousands of children born under the new union soon arose in the courts. Many trials also sprang up, resulting from questions of inheritance. In many cases both first and second wives claimed rights to the inheritances of their husbands.

Not even the higher courts could agree. The Supreme court ruled that marriages after divorce were illegal, thus branding thousands of children as illegitimate. The state constitutional court gave a legal status to couples so married and there followed a legal jumble which the most judicious minds have been unable to solve.

Parliament's action today was simple. It merely stipulated that Austrian divorce and marriage laws be made within three months to conform with those of Germany, which recognizes the right of divorce and legality of civil marriage.

A MISSISSIPPI VALLEY BLOC.

Senators from Mississippi valley states have been asked to defer ratification of the Canadian water withdrawal treaty. The agreement, which was signed by Premier King of Canada and United States Minister Phillips on Jan. 2, provides for the further withdrawal of 20,000 second feet from the Niagara river. The beneficiaries would be New York and Ontario power interests and they would profit equally. These are interests which were energetic in combating the Chicago diversion.

The implications of the proposed arrangement are offensive to the middle west and the Mississippi valley senators should be a bloc against it until the Chicago diversion for the waterway is settled and the future of the lakes to gulf waterway is assured. Under the new treaty, which would supplant the arrangement of 1910, a maximum of 96,000 cubic second feet would be diverted by the New York and Ontario power interests. Senators Deneen and Glenn of Illinois have indicated a disposition to promote the welfare of the middle west in the matter of water. It is time for solidarity of the entire group of Mississippi valley senators and congressmen behind an honest program for the protection and advancement of the welfare of their territory.

THE CHICAGO CENTENNIAL.

The house of representatives has passed the Hawley resolution authorizing the President to invite foreign nations to join in the celebration of Chicago's centennial in 1933. Some eastern and southern congressmen suggested that if Chicago tried another world's fair it would produce only another bust, but other congressmen of greater confidence rallied around. Inasmuch as the resolution asked for nothing but an act of courtesy, it was adopted in good spirit.

If the present plans of the celebration develop as expected the city will not take a chance of falling down on another world's fair because it will not attempt to produce anything of the old fashioned type. It is pretty well agreed that the world's fair as Chicago successfully standardized it has had its day. The old one was a wonder for its period, but new things for new times. With a reasonable amount of good fortune the city will produce a new type of big show.

NEW YORK AND VOLSTEAD.

Eleven men and a woman, charged with conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws, were acquitted a few days ago by a jury in the federal District court in New York. The defendants were the owners, managers, and employés of a number of night clubs.

The lawyers for the defense placed no witnesses on the stand, but in cross-examination brought out the fact that the liquor sold was sound and no one had ever been poisoned by drinking it. They admitted that the Volstead act had been violated.

In arguing to the jury, the attorneys for the defense said that their clients, if found guilty, might be imprisoned for as long as two years and fined as much as $10,000. These penalties, the defense implied, were altogether too severe for the offense. In addition, the defendants were "only night club people." The jury accepted this argument and returned its verdict in an hour, about the time required to ballot once on each defendant.

The verdict will astonish no one who is familiar with life in large cities; it will astonish and alarm the men and women of rural Kansas. They will say that here is the proof that special methods of enforcement must be devised to maintain respect for the Volstead law in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, and other metropolitan communities, for, as juries will not convict admitted violators, jury trials in these cases must be dispensed with.

The New York verdict accurately focuses the conflicting points of view which have made discussion of prohibition in this country as sterile as it has been rancorous. Chicago cannot understand Wichita and Wichita cannot understand Chicago, and nine years of experience with the law has apparently accomplished nothing toward bringing the two within arguing distance of each other.

The fact that there has been no progress toward compromising the two viewpoints in ten years suggests that prohibition is likely to divide the American people for many years to come. New York has no state prohibition law and federal prosecutors in New York may decide that prosecution under federal statute is a waste of effort; but as long as prohibition cases are only rarely heard by juries this method does not offer much hope.

Perhaps there will be no improvement until the present generation, with its preconceptions, its misinformation, its prejudices, and its hates, is out of the way. It is not impossible that another generation, freed somewhat of accumulated mental rubbish of a half century and more of controversy, will be able to work out a method of controlling the manufacture and sale of alcoholics which will be more generally acceptable. By that time Kansas may have discovered that it cannot enact a moral code for New York, and vice versa. If that day ever comes, a better solution of the liquor problem than federal prohibition will be sought and it may be found.

CATO IN GLACIER PARK.

Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana has a summer cottage in Glacier National park. He acquired the site, he says, before the park was created, and it is an attractive place at the head of the lake, loved by his family. For nearly forty years the senator and his family have been accustomed to spend their summers in the region.

The house of representatives passed a bill authorizing the government to take over lands privately owned in the big timber districts in or adjoining national parks when needed to preserve them. The Yosemite National park contains privately owned sections, and the lumber men will soon be taking off the great trees. Citizens interested in the preservation of the forests have endeavored to save them. John D. Rockefeller Jr. offered $1,000,000, and it was planned to raise $3,000,000. The house bill proposed to match that with a government appropriation and acquire the land by condemnation. The immediate objective was Yosemite, but Glacier park was included. The senate was willing to pass the bill until Mr. Walsh, supported by Senator Wheeler, objected. He loved his summer home, and the bill would enable the secretary of the interior to take it from him. Senator Smoot said there was no intention of condemning Mr. Walsh's property, and it was further explained that even if the government needed it, the place would remain his for use during his life. That, Senator Walsh thought, did not protect his family.

Any one who has held a home and its surroundings in the affections of long habit and use must sympathize with the Montana senator. Some of his constituents have the same interest in retaining property which has been protected for them by the preservation of adjoining land. The nation has given them a park which keeps others from spoiling the scene they love. It also regulates the public use which may be made of the recreation ground and the private possessors fortunate enough to have property in this beauty spot are protected in their possessions.

Mr. Walsh has been old Cato himself in his repulse of special privilege whenever it fixed its eye on public interest. It may be doubted that he would have seen a Rockefeller equity in a little home in a national park. Mr. Rockefeller would have been regarded as a citizen enjoying an inequitable privilege, and if he had protested that he did not want to have his property taken for national purposes, Mr. Walsh would have been the last to see his point of view.

Mr. Walsh's associates in the senate, however, are clubby and companionable. They are sentimental and sympathetic. They are standing for senatorial privilege which includes the retention of property in a national park.

NEWS FROM RUSSIA.

For filing news of famine riots in Russia, jobless peasant uprisings, crop failures, and reprisals, the soviet government is taking against the rich peasants, the foreign correspondents stationed at Moscow have been rebuked by the official soviet news agency and other government newspapers. The correspondents are reminded that they are guests of the soviet government and must not write news derogatory to their host.

THE TRIBUNE does not maintain a correspondent in Russia, and this recent incident of soviet interference with the dispatches relating political and economic conditions and occurrences in Russia shows the why of it. We know the surveillance under which the correspondents are kept and the restrictions to a free pen imposed by soviet officials. Accurate, truthful, and balanced news is not to be had from Russia. The dispatches are censored for facts or sentiments which might attract unfavorable criticism from the world. Furthermore, the correspondents are encouraged to promote the soviet cause. THE TRIBUNE believes that it can serve its readers better by keeping out of Russia rather than by circulating propaganda in which the readers can have no confidence.

Editorial of the Day

THE OLD FARM DAYS.

[Danville (Ill.) Commercial-News.]

A Michigan newspaper man, moved to the depths by a spell of cold weather, writes feelingly of winter life on the farm in the old days. He pictures the farmer's son, roused in the forbidding gray of early dawn, wrenching himself from his warm bed to dress in the unspeakable chilliness of an icy bedroom, stumbling downstairs, half asleep, to begin the before-breakfast chores—splitting wood, milking the cows, feeding the hogs and horses, and so on. Then he mentions the old fashioned farm breakfast—griddle cakes, home made sausage, fried eggs, many cups of coffee; solid, appetizing food for one who has toiled in zero cold.

From that he continues to a general discussion of winter recreations in the rural districts years ago; hunting, coasting, and the like, with healthy youngsters enjoying their isolation and spending weeks at a time without ever getting more than three or four miles away from home. And he adds: "There aren't any farmers' boys any more. They're all city chaps. Winter or summer, good roads and automobiles enable them to go to town easily and quickly. And when they stay at home the radio brings them the latest jazz from the city."

The old days, remembered by some of us and made familiar to the rest of us by books, are gone. The social and economic conditions that prevailed in them are rapidly changing. We still have farms, we still have snow and cold weather, and farmers' boys still have to get up before daybreak to do the chores; but there is a different atmosphere to it all. The old isolation and loneliness are ended. During the last few years a good many books have been written about this. Half of them hail the change as a great blessing; the other half bewail it as a loss of something precious and fine.

But the important thing, right now, is not analysis so much as simple recognition. The change that has come upon American farm life is only a single aspect of the vaster change that has come upon all American life, rural and city alike. We need more than anything else to recognize this change and accept it. It may be that the old days were better than the new ones and it may not be; the big thing—the thing that we must all accustom ourselves to—is that they are gone.

No one is so lost as the man who is unable, or unwilling, to see that a time has come for readjustment to new conditions. No task that the nation faces is more pressing that the task of recognizing its changed circumstances and devising a way of living and thinking that will enable it to make the change as beneficial as possible.

KING GEORGE'S ILLNESS.

WE have been asked why King George got sick so slowly and is recovering by such slight daily gains. The answers given are based on the assumption that the ordinary newspaper reports of his illness are correct. The questions might be transformed into: Why does an ordinary pleurisy develop rather gradually, at least in many cases? Why does a pleurisy yield slowly to treatment?

In the minds of both the interviewer and the interviewed there is contrast between pneumonia and pleurisy as to both onset and convalescence. Pneumonia is prone to start with a chill, high fever, and other evidence of shock. Infection and inflammation of the nearby pleura are apt to start otherwise. In tubercular pleurisy the physician is apt to find the pleural cavity full of fluid, even though there has been no chill, no fever, and no shock.

When an ordinary pleurisy starts with a pain in the side the discomfort is apt to disappear as fluid accumulates in the sac. There may be a sudden onset of the disorder somewhat like the onset of pneumonia, but that is not the rule. The patient with pneumonia is a seriously sick man from the start; the one with pleurisy is apt to be free from shock and to have no evidence of being toxic for several days. Perhaps the principal reason for the difference is that the pleura is not richly supplied with lymph channels, blood vessels, or nerves. Another reason is that the pneumonia microbe is not the most frequent cause of pleurisy.

And now to the second question. Pneumonia is apt to terminate by crisis. This morning the patient is very sick, skin dry and high fever, rapid breathing, fast pulse, mind clouded. This afternoon, skin cool and covered with sweat, fever low, pulse low, breathing quiet, patient weak, sleeping peacefully. The two pictures are exactly like those of diphtheria before and after a big dose of antitoxin.

In pleurisy, convalescence is different. The gains are gradual and interrupted. There are periodic setbacks. Weeks are required for complete cure. There is nothing that happens similar to that which happens after the use of antitoxin.

One reason for the slower recovery after pleurisy is that there is no way out. There are no bronchial tubes leading to the outside. Such lymph and blood stream absorption as goes on is inadequate. Sometimes the physician drains off the pus with a needle. As a rule, an open incision and a drainage tube must be used.

The pleural sac in pleurisy becomes in effect a large abscess wall. After drainage the walls of an ordinary abscess collapse and healing is prompt. In pleurisy the bony chest walls keep the abscess walls apart. Therefore it is often advisable to take out pieces of ribs, sometimes of several, to let the walls collapse and grow together.

These are the principal reasons for the slow convalescence after severe pleurisy.

FINICKY APPETITE.

Mrs. P. W. W. writes: My 11½ months baby girl refuses to eat vegetables of all kinds. She has been eating only oatmeal, prunes, graham crackers and orange juice and cod liver oil every day besides her 8 ounces of plain milk every four or five hours.

I feel sure she isn't getting the right vitamins from this diet, but friends have told me to keep trying. She also refuses yolk of egg.

REPLY:

The list you give does not include any vegetables. It is poor in iron as well as deficient in other ways.

Have you tried different methods of preparing vegetables?

How about soups?

How about the specially prepared canned vegetables?

Have you tried different methods of preparing eggs, such as custards?

There is a book by C. A. Aldrich on finicky children with poor appetites.

SNOWSLIDES.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—[Friend of the People.]—I live on West Eighteenth street and the house next door is a three story house with a slate roof. Every time there is snow it piles up on the roof and then it starts falling down into my gangway with such force and quantity as to make passage unsafe. Does the city ordinance require the owner to remedy this condition? P. W.

There is no provision in the building code for so-called "snow guards" on roofs; the only requirement is for rain gutters and downspouts. CHRISTIAN P. PASCHEN, Commissioner of Buildings.

NO PROOF OF LOAN.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I loaned $200 to a fellow, but I have nothing to show for it. That is, he didn't sign anything, but I have my bank book, which shows that amount drawn out and some people know I loaned him the money. He has never paid it back. 1. Is there any way I can collect it?

2. Can you help me out in this matter?

A. F.

1. Yes, it is common for litigated cases to be proved by all testimony. Your word should be believed in court as readily as his.

2. We are not in a position to handle the case for you.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

TEMPORARY STREET FILLING.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—[Friend of the People.]—We would like to know if the 4700 North Lavergne avenue block will be paved this spring and if not, could we possibly have a narrow filling of ashes or cinders to make it passable by automobile? We are much handicapped as no deliveries of coal or ice can be made, unless the ground is much frozen in winter or a very dry period in summer.

J. E. M.

Report is made that there are no special assessment proceedings for the paving of the 4700 block on Lavergne avenue. Request for ash filling will be placed on file and complied with at the first opportunity. The suggestion is made, however, that you request the alderman of the ward to introduce an ordinance for the paving of Lavergne avenue by special assessment.

Acting Superintendent of Streets.

FOR EJLERT LOVBORG.

Before the ways of love I am not brave—or am I brave?—I could not bear to see my eager joy in you and yours in me bow down to habit, and the nights we gave to beauty turn to orbits for desire that has not kept its breathlessness and fire.

Much easier it was for me to kill love's free swift march than see the ghostly tread and lagging feet of one whose steps are dead before me, lying patient and too still to carry love. I think I was afraid we could not keep the paradise we made!

JEANNE DE LAMARTER.

Hier, Oberkellner, Ein Stein Bock!

There ought to be more teeth in the Volstead act. There had, indeed. We had just drunk our regular second glass of milk at luncheon yesterday when we glanced at the picture page of Mr. Shaffer's w. k. Post and there—there—was a picture of a man with three steins of beer in each hand. And three girls were in the picture and each one of the girls had three steins of beer in each hand. And the steins were bubbling over with creamy foam. And the picture was labeled "Bock Beer Season Opens With Rejoicing in Berlin, Germany." And right away we wanted a stein of bock beer. And we couldn't finish our milk. We wanted beer; bock beer. Anywhere in this broad land of ours you can get bootleg gin, whisky, wood alcohol, California grape juice, formaldehyde, Leadville mule, dago red, gasoline, moonshine, and canned heat—but where, oh, where can you get an innocent mirth and goodwill producing stein of bock beer? Echo, in tears, replies not. Then why must John Shaffer be allowed to torture us with pictures of the bock beer season opening in Berlin? If we can't have it, John Shaffer, you quit teasing us. Bock beer! Bishop Cannon, make him stop!

One Sometimes Wonders if There Are.

Gent: Mr. Kellogg's well known eirenicon has nothing on the one I have been trying to put over with my husband's friends since I made the 1928 Linebook with that strange interlude. I should have prefaced it as authors do, particularly Geoffrey Dennis, whose method is: "All the characters and happenings described in this book are imaginary. No reference is made to real people. There are no real people." THE WHITE CAT.

Oh, a Grand Game! Come On, Boys, Twenty Can Play as Well as One.

Dick: I have just invented a new indoor game called Bumpemoff, which contains more thrills an' excitement than a bullfight, a lion hunt, or any other indoor or outdoor sport in existence! All you need is an automatic shotgun an' a lot of patience. Furthermore, this is within the law!

INSTRUCTIONS: At 9 o'clock in the morning go downstairs an' place small sign above your mail box which reads as follows:

"WILL NOT BE BACK TILL 5:30 P. M.
PLEASE LEAVE PACKAGES WITH THE JANITOR."

Then go back upstairs, enter your apartment, lock all doors, grab shotgun, crawl behind large piece of furniture, an' wait patiently.

How to keep score:

Ordinary Apartment Prowler....	25 points
Burglar	50 points
Gunman	75 points
Bandit with Mask..................	100 points

Now that swell guys can't go outdoors and bat a golf ball around the lot or sit in the grand stand and watch the White Sox lose another game, this thing of shootin' daylight burglars is really the king of indoor sports. I ran up a score of 225 last Saturday and it wasn't a very good day at that. I would have made 275, but when the last burglar came he fumbled around the door so long I got buck fever and yelled out, "Come on in, there hain't nobody home!" It didn't fool him a bit. He just turned and went down the steps ten at a time. Still, I had a pretty good day at that.

"MIAMI CROWDS Welcome Hoover."—Chi. Eve. Post. Ah, yes, much whoopee and cheeree and shriekee in Miami, but away out there in the west, out in Los Ongialzo, there is naught but gloomee and tearee and weepee. California was Mr. Hoover's old home state and now that he's elected he hotfoots down to Florida. Oh, California! Oh, climate! Oh, sunkissed oranges! Oh, Hollywood! Oh, hell!

BERNARD SHAW has completed a new play which he calls an ultra-modern political play. Its name is "The Apple Cart." Oh, gee! Bet you a nickel he upsets it.

AND YESTERDAY the bandits stole twenty thousand dollars' worth of oriental rugs in Chicago. From the prices they asked us when we went shopping for oriental rugs, we don't believe the bandits used a dray. If they only got twenty thousand dollars' worth of rugs, the robbers probably just picked 'em up and slipped them into their weskit pockets.

AND NOW they are organizing companies to sell airplanes on the installment plan. We are not going to do it. That first clause, "A dollar down," would simply spoil it for us. Gosh! We do hate that word "down" when we're thinking of airplanes.

WE MUST OMIT the last line today. The weather man said yesterday that there was the coldest cold wave coming and for everybody to look out. So we wrapped the last line up in two blankets and Hank put it under the radiator. We couldn't bear the idea of its freezing up. We want to keep it in perfect condition until the weather gets warmer. Hope you are the same. R. H. L.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

JANUARY 23, 1864.

WASHINGTON.—The President has directed Gen. Halleck to issue an order placing Gen. Rosecrans in command of the department of Missouri.

WASHINGTON.—The President has announced to the Arkansas delegation that he has determined not to appoint a separate military governor but to intrust to Gen. Steele, the newly appointed commander of the department of Arkansas, both military and civil administration of the state. He expressed hopes that the formal organization of the state government under the terms of the amnesty proclamation would speedily be made by the people.

NEW YORK.—The World's dispatch says: "Late arrivals from within the rebel lines at New Orleans report that the rebellion cannot stand much longer. The currency has become worthless. The planters hide away everything of value from rebel impressment."

CAIRO.—Col. Bussy of the 2d Iowa cavalry has been on a scout in Mississippi county, Mo., after a band of guerrillas, who were overtaken, a number captured and the leader killed.

CHICAGO.—We are gratified at the announcement which appears in some of the papers that a line of first class packets is advertised to run between this port and England, commencing in April next. Of the successful issue of this movement we entertain no shadow of doubt. Chicago is not altogether unknown on the other side of the Atlantic, nor the facilities she offers for direct shipments and importations. There is no reason why, with unrestricted water communication nine months of the year, we should be compelled to pay tribute to the seaboard.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

JANUARY 23, 1899.

ATHENS.—Entire towns were destroyed and many lives are believed to have been lost by a series of terrible earthquakes that shocked the Peloponnesus, or peninsula of lower Greece, today. The center of the agitation was on the western coast, in the vicinity of the Gulf of Arcadia. The shocks lasted for hours.

CHICAGO.—Eugene de Montreville of the Baltimores is undoubtedly the man for whom the Chicago ball club is either dickering or has already traded Dahlen, its star shortstop and captain.

CHICAGO.—Miss Leah Leffingwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Leffingwell, and Clyde D. Beck will be married today at the residence of the bride's parents, 190 36th street.

LONDON.—A dispatch from Paris says there is a belief that Maj. Comte Ferdinand Walsin Esr Esterhazy, reputed author of the Dreyfus bordereau, suffering from remorse, will make a clean breast of the entire Dreyfus case. He is to appear before the Court of Cassation tomorrow.

LONDON.—The whole Swansea valley is aflame over the approaching wedding of Adelina Patti and Baron Cedarstrom on Jan. 25. He will go to Wales tomorrow for the ceremony. The whole countryside will feast and hurrah.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

JANUARY 23, 1919.

ARCHANGEL.—Bolshevik troops are heavily shelling the farthest south positions of the American and Russian armies at Ust Padenga, on the Waga river, thirty miles south of Shenkursk.

PARIS.—A helping hand has been held out to Russia by the peace conference. With a view to stopping the reign of terror there and in the hope of establishing a representative government, the allied war council has sent by wireless a proposition to the various Russian governments—including the bolsheviki—Finland is excepted—to send delegates to meet a mission from the peace conference at the Princes islands, in the Sea of Marmora, thirteen miles south of Constantinople, on Feb. 13. One condition is prescribed. That is that the warring factions shall declare a truce and cease aggressive military action.

PARIS.—France favors immediate armed intervention by the allies in Poland, according to unofficial information. The French view is said to be that only military assistance can save Poland from being crushed by the bolsheviki.

CAUGHT IN A ROUNDUP.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Your story concerning the capture of 2,649 criminals brings to my recollection a similar farce in which I suffered. Mayor Thompson had given one of his "go as far as you like Charley" orders to the chief of police, so Charley told the boys to bring them in and so they did in point of numbers anyhow.

At that time I was working on Donnelley's city directory for $10 per week and rooming at the then newly opened Salvation Army palace for workingmen in West Madison street. Returning from work Saturday afternoon I noticed a cop eying the crowd and found myself selected for his purpose. He told me I was wanted for attempted murder and took me to the Des Plaines street station, which I found jammed with a crowd similar to myself, i. e., the poorer class, in point of cash, among workingmen. [The bums had fled to the saloons and known and unknown crooks left the sidewalks.]

Apparently the murder charge was overlooked, at least I never after heard of it, but on Monday all of us were tried in batches, by three or four police assisted by a judge and fined individually $5 and costs. I didn't have enough to cover the total, so was taken to the workhouse, and so remained until a friend paid the fine a few days later.

The time spent from Saturday afternoon till Monday morning in the police station even yet seems like a horrid dream. Packed and treated as cattle, awful sanitary arrangements, with a small sandwich for dinner and no other food in nearly 48 hours, lying, resting on the floor anywhere, we accumulated dirty hands and faces black enough to pass us as regular bums at the so called trial. I made an error in not demanding a jury trial, perhaps another in not following up the case in an action, but one who then passed and even yet does as a wise politician advised me to drop it unless I intended a permanent move to another city. FRANK EDSON.

BACKS POLICE PROGRAM.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—In regard to Ald. O'Toole's appeal for 5,400 more police I say it's a good idea, but why wait till July to increase our small police force? If Commissioner Russell gets 500 new men a month in uniform by July they will save the city thousands of dollars and hundreds of lives. Forty-nine more aldermen to back O'Toole's resolution and we may get some protection.

HARRY KELLY.

A MOVE TO LICENSE CITIZENS.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—People should arouse themselves and take a hand in crime reduction themselves. Let us report to the police those numerous bands of young men who loiter around poolhalls, saloons, and occupy flats in certain rooming districts.

Following the European custom, a system of registration is necessary. Police cards bearing the photo of each inhabitant and forming in reality a civic passport, along with strict police regulations, would do wonders to reduce crime. Hotel and rooming house keepers would be required to report to the police all newcomers, following which strict police investigation should take place.

WALTER PIJAKOWSKI.

CONFISCATION OF MILK.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Wouldn't it be logical to jail for life the farmers who have destroyed 96,000 pounds of milk [as per TRIBUNE of Jan. 20] because of their failure to obtain a few extra cents per gallon that they feel they should have?

It seems to me that the deprivation and suffering of thousands of babies—also grownups—caused as a result of such ruthlessness warrants some action and the more drastic the better.

A SUBSCRIBER.

CO-OPERATIVE MILKMEN.

Oak Park, Ill., Jan. 21.—For milk distribution, why not have large trucks carrying all brands of milk, using three men to deliver—one driver, one man for each side of the street? This would speed up deliveries. It would not eliminate many men, but think of the saving in horse feed. The housewife could still have her choice of the various brands of milk.

P. E. JANSEN.

PATRIOTISM AND PEACE.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—We have heard a great deal about disarmament, peace treaties, and so on. The leading thinkers of the country agree that the only logical system of attaining peace on earth is the disillusioning of the public regarding patriotism. An effort should be made to make the world one nation and remove the present international restrictions and prejudices. Why not a United States of the World? The school children, instead of being taught to laud and revere the leaders of our past wars, should be taught to look upon them as butchers and murderers. Patriotism—mob spirit—down with the other fellow—blood at fever heat—bunk.

OKLAHOMA VOTES ANOTHER CHARGE OF IMPEACHMENT

House Adds Sixth Article to Johnston List.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 22.—(AP)—The Oklahoma house of representatives late today voted a sixth impeachment charge against Henry S. Johnston, suspended governor, while committees of both the house and senate continued their investigations into rumors of official corruption in the Johnston administration.

The sixth article of impeachment alleged the illegal employment by Johnston of Kirby Fitzpatrick, formerly of Ardmore, as a special attorney for the state banking department. The vote was 60 to 36. Five other counts against Johnston had been adopted by the house and sent to the senate.

Ruled by Woman Secretary.

The name of Mrs. O. O. Hammonds, comely confidential secretary of Johnston, figures prominently in hearings of both house and senate investigating committees. She is charged by political enemies with wielding great influence over Johnston's official acts.

A story that she shook her fist in the governor's face and commanded him to "be quiet" was related by W. L. Graham before the senate committee investigating reports that $100,000 was employed to put an end to the attempted impeachment session of 1927. Graham is former state highway department auditor.

A declaration that he saw an envelope containing money passed to Mrs. Hammonds by a woman who was charged with negotiating for Mrs. Hammonds' purported influence with the administration was made by L. K. Ford, an engineer, in testimony before the house investigating committee.

Editor Is Witness.

Carl Magee, Oklahoma City editor, was the first witness called before the senate committee, which was formed to investigate Magee's published reports that money had influenced senators to change their vote and bring about the termination of the attempted impeachment session in 1927 after members of the house had voted six charges against Gov. Johnston.

Ford and C. B. McCormack, an Altus contractor, involved Mrs. Hammonds in testimony before the house investigating committee regarding McCormack's attempts to collect $8,200 from the state highway department for work he had done.

ACTING GOVERNOR

W. J. Holloway, lieutenant governor, takes place of suspended governor of Oklahoma.

BOY, 3, TRAVELS FROM ROTTERDAM TOCHICAGOALONE

Shipshape and smiling, George H. Tompkins, 3 years old, arrived in Chicago yesterday from Rotterdam, Holland, having made the long sea voyage in the care of the Holland American steamship lines. George was born in Java in 1925, while his father was employed there, but he is an American. He has been in the care of his mother's relatives in Holland.

For months George's father, R. H. Tompkins of 617 Cornelia avenue, a credit man, had been making arrangements to have the child brought to this country, but no one could be found in whose care he might be placed during the crossing. Finally he was entrusted to the steamship company, and was met in New York by his father's sister. Coöperation of government officials, Tompkins said yesterday, helped to secure a safe journey for the child.

TWO MINERS KILLED.

Madisonville, Ky., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Two miners were killed in an explosion in the Blackstone coal mine, near here, yesterday and the mine still was blocked today, so that extent of the damage remained to be determined.

ENGLAND TAKES STEP FOR TUNNEL UNDER CHANNEL

French Also Boost Plan to Link Nations.

LONDON, Jan. 22—(AP)—The scheme for a tunnel under the English channel reached the house of commons again today. Stanley Baldwin, prime minister, announced a comprehensive nonparty reëxamination would be made into the 60 year old project.

A tunnel connecting England with the French coast has been urged by economists but always has been opposed by military strategists. Construction of a 21 mile bridge also has been discussed.

E. Thurtle, a Labor party member, asked for time to discuss the motion and Mr. Baldwin replied that in view of te wide public interest in the project the cabinet had concluded the time was ripe for an inquiry. He said the ministers wished to have the economic aspects thoroughly examined in order that they might be weighed with imperial defense considerations.

Asks Aid of Other Parties.

In view of the time required to carry out the project it would be in the public interest to deal with the question outside a party atmosphere, the prime minister continued. Some agreement was necessary also whereby the decision of the government might not be upset by a succeeding one. He would like to obtain the coöperation of leaders of the other parties from the outset of the inquiry.

When the proposal was before parliament in 1924, Ramsay MacDonald, then prime minister, invited Mr. Baldwin, David Lloyd George and others to attend a meeting of the committee of imperial defense, which was studying the question.

Subsequently Mr. MacDonald informed the house of commons that an adverse decision had been reached unanimously.

France Boosts Tunnel.

PARIS, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The French committee for constructing a tunnel under the English channel met in Paris today under the presidency of Yves Letrocquer, former minister of public works. It adopted a resolution pledging collaboration to the efforts of Sir William Bull, member of the house of commons, to get approval for that project in the English legislature.

FINED $180 ON RUM CHARGE.

Albert Greenwald, 66 years old, proprietor of a soft drink parlor at 1164 Van Buren street, was fined $180 yesterday by Judge W. L. Sanders when found guilty of selling intoxicants.

URGES WORK ON WATER TUNNELS FOR WEST SIDE

Shutdown May Reduce Supply, Wolfe Says.

Continuation this year of construction work on two large water tunnels was urged yesterday by Richard W. Wolfe, commissioner of public works, to relieve the danger of a water famine in large areas of the west side within the next few years. The two projects are faced with an almost complete shutdown unless legislation is obtained permitting the city to issue water bonds.

For this work, Mr. Wolfe has requested an appropriation of $3,447,000 in the 1929 water fund budget. A deficit of $3,712,677 in the water fund resulted in the requests being pared down to $235,000 by City Controller George K. Schmidt. This amount has been boosted by the council finance committee to $2,284,000, the expenditure being contingent upon obtaining legislative approval for the issuance of bonds.

Only 10 Pounds Pressure.

"The district at the western city limits around Chicago avenue has a water pressure as low as ten pounds now," Mr. Wolfe said. "Completion of the tunnel will boost the pressure to 40 pounds."

The appropriation allowed by the finance committee will permit the work to proceed on the two mile tunnel under the lake bed so that it can be finished at the end of 1930, Mr. Wolfe said. This tunnel will connect the Chicago avenue pumping station with the new Carter H. Harrison crib now being erected near the old two mile crib.

Out of the appropriation, if the money is obtained, $864,000 is to be used for the continuation of the tunnel in Chicago avenue west of the pumping station. Shafts will be sunk at the north branch of the Chicago river and at Western avenue and digging of the tunnel in east and west directions will be started. The sixteen foot shaft is being dug out through solid rock 185 feet beneath the surface of the street.

Calls for Completion in 1931.

By the end of 1931, the program calls for the completion of the tunnel to Springfield avenue with connections with the Springfield avenue and Central Park avenue pumping stations. This will boost the water pressure in areas west of the stations to between twenty-five and forty pounds and eliminate the danger of a water famine there. It is proposed, eventually, to continue the tunnel west to the Des Plaines river.

Another activity in the water department which is contingent upon the issuance of water bonds is the installation of water meters.

Why Procrastinate With Deafness?

There's only one way to find hearing, and the health and happiness that go with it. And that's to look for it. Each day that you put off the search is only another lost day of nervous irritation and social embarrassment.

So why not look for hearing today? And why not start the quest in the private consultation rooms of the Acousticon?

We honestly believe that you will find it there, as so many others have, through the medium of the new and finer Acousticon—a scientific hearing aid with a tiny receiver, or earpiece, no larger than a silver dime.

TEN-DAY FREE TRIAL

Take the instrument home with you if you wish. Test it for ten days. Be sure that it's the sort of hearing aid you've always hoped to find. Learn how clearly, how distinctly it transmits sounds to subnormal ears. Probably you'll keep it, but if you don't, you may return it without charge or obligation.

If you find a call impossible, merely send your name and address to Dept. 73-A—for a free home test. Dictograph Products Company, Inc., 12th Floor, 180 N. Michigan Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

THOMPSONISM IS RAISED AS ISSUE IN MAYOR'S WARD

G.O.P. Club Backs Siebel Against Ald. Nelson.

Thompsonism and police protection were made the aldermanic issue in Mayor Thompson's home ward, the 46th, last night by the Republican club of the ward, of which D. L. McKown is president. The organization came out for Capt. August F. W. Siebel as a candidate against Ald. Oscar F. Nelson, once a Democrat but now a city hall Republican and the mayor's floor leader in the council.

The anti-Thompson Republicans in a set of resounding resolutions declared that Ald. Nelson's ward is afflicted with a "lack of strong, able, and intelligent representation in the council." They set forth that if Siebel is elected he will not be a "political tool or a rubber stamp for any discredited municipal administration."

Ask Protection for Homes.

Dwelling on the theme of a larger police force, the Republican club said:

"In view of the crime conditions now prevailing it is necessary to have an alderman who will be fearless and who will secure adequate and proper protection for our homes, families, children and property."

Out in the Austin ward, the 37th, Irwin R. Hazen Jr., son of a former alderman and judge, is campaigning against Ald. Wiley W. Mills, who is rated by the Municipal Voters league as "a very valuable alderman." Yesterday Hazen threw stress on the proposed police increase.

"The city council," he said, "has refused to allow additional funds for the police in order to reduce the budget. I believe there are other pay rolls in the city hall that can be cut, where the lives and safety of the citizens will not be endangered by the reduction."

Seek Opponent for Guernsey.

In the Sixth ward W. L. Bradshaw, an overseas veteran, who has lived thirty years in Woodlawn, has been asked in some quarters to enter the race against Ald. Guy Guernsey on the issue that the ward has not been getting its share of street and alley repairs. At the city hall this is chalked up to the fact that Guernsey is the foremost foe of Mayor Thompson in the council.

Speaking on this theme of streets and alleys and garbage removal yesterday, Ross A. Woodhull, retiring alderman of the 7th ward, in addressing the Illinois Woman's Democratic club at the Woman's City club, remarked:

"Do not vote against candidates for reëlection to the city council because the streets and alleys are not in good condition or because sufficient police protection is not assigned to their wards, but vote for them on their records in council meetings."

DEMAND JAPAN'S GRIP BE BROKEN IN MANCHURIA

Chinese Urge End of Secret Treaties.

BY JOHN POWELL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, Jan. 22.—Japanese Minister Yoshizawa will go to Nanking tomorrow to open negotiations with the Chinese Nationalist government on the tariff treaty and settlement of the Shantung question.

The National Anti-Japanese association today handed the state council a series of seven demands urging the government to abrogate all secret treaties entered into by the Japanese government and the late Marshal Chang Tso-lin affecting Manchuria.

Demands Return of Railways.

The association asks that the Japanese be required immediately to restore the South Manchuria railway, as well as the Dairen and Port Arthur leased territory to China; that the Japanese troops evacuate Shantung; that the Japanese be required to permit China to reopen traffic on the Tientsin-Pukow railway connecting Shanghai with Peking and that Japanese goods be required to pay increased tariff rates from Feb. 1, despite Japan's failure to sign the tariff treaty.

Japanese naval officers at Hankow today arrested five Chinese strike pickets who were interfering with the unloading of Japanese merchandise. This has caused further tension in that city.

Orders More U. S. Planes.

The Nationalist ministry of communications announced today that it is placing an order for six American airplanes similar to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's "Spirit of St. Louis," to inaugurate a mail service between Shanghai and Nanking.

Five other planes, which were delivered here last week, have been shipped to Hankow for the purpose of opening a mail and passenger service between Hankow and Canton and Hankow and Nanking.

The recent trial flight of the Cantonese general, Chang Wei-chang, in a Ryan plane christened the "Sprit of Canton," had a tremendous effect in boosting American planes in China.

Al's Appeal on Democratic Debt Brings in $100,000

New York, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Former Gov. Alfred E. Smith's recent radio appeal for funds to wipe out the $1,500,000 deficit of the Democratic national committee, thus far has brought in approximately $100,000 in contributions, it was learned today.

"DOLLAR DOWN" CALLED KEY TO U. S. PROSPERITY

Britons Urged to Adopt Installment Plan.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 22.—American civilization is due to an amazing distribution of material things, according to J. Gibson Jarvie, managing director of the United Dominions Trust company. He addressed the American Chamber of Commerce today on "Consumer Credit," which, he said, was largely responsible for the widespread prosperity of the United States.

"The installment system is reorganizing the economic structure of the United States," said Mr. Jarvie. He added that America is offering Great Britain its experience in this regard on a golden platter, but it is being refused by conservative Great Britain, which is struggling under the burden of traditions which have become obsessions.

Prosperity Largely Psychological.

"The signs of progress and advancement noted between my last two visits to America are almost unbelievable," he continued. "It is an exhilarating situation over there, but depressing back here. Prosperity is very largely a mental state. Every American is optimistic in anticipation of a banner year, while we talk of hard times and the intolerable burden left by the war."

Declaring British production is developed almost to the point of perfection, the speaker insisted the burning question now is distribution, of which one of the great bulwarks is consumer or distribution credit as practiced in America, where saving deposits, life insurance and home ownership have climbed to unheard of figures.

Aids Sense of Citizenship.

"Chaos and disaster are prophesied for America because of the extent of its purchase credits," he said. "Yet the amount of money in America invested in installment sales is only a fraction of the whole credit structure.

"Should difficult times overtake America it will be able to face them, not only with increased material wealth and solid reserves, but what is even more important, with a treasure house of human qualities, education, happiness, widening outlook, initiative, improved productive capacity and a sense of citizenship which neither moth nor rust can corrupt, and which should enable it to withstand any temporary setback."

Drink Water if Back or Kidneys Hurt

Too much rich food forms acids which excite and overwork the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Flush the kidneys occasionally to relieve them like you relieve the bowels, removing acids, waste and poison, else you may feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, the stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges.

To help neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's waste, begin drinking water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine and bladder disorders disappear.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help prevent serious kidney and bladder disorders.

Colds can be stopped at the start!

Vapex was discovered and received its severest test during the influenza epidemic in England.

The regular use of Vapex is an assurance against colds and the many serious diseases that start as colds. A drop on your handkerchief every morning—breathe the vapor frequently—your head will stay clear and contagion will be prevented.

The use of Vapex could hardly be more simple. The odor is pleasant and refreshing. It can be used whenever you wish, for the strength of one application lasts throughout the day. A drop on both ends of your pillow at night will keep your head clear and relieve the cold while you sleep.

The discovery of Vapex in England during the war startled the medical profession. The immunity to influenza of a few laboratory workers was traced directly to certain chemicals isolated from the materials with which they were working. A new product, called Vapex, was offered for sale and met with an immediate acceptance.

Your druggist now has Vapex. Each dollar bottle contains 50 treatments. Vapex is guaranteed and distributed in the United States by E. Fougera & Co., Inc., New York City.

Maintaining Regular Service

NINETY per cent of all car operation on the Chicago Surface Lines is on scheduled time, according to a survey of the service recently completed. Only 10 per cent of the cars are as much as two minutes off schedule, in spite of the fact that the Surface Lines maintain the fastest service of any street car system in the country.

Railroads cannot present a better record of regularity.

The railroads operate on an exclusive right-of-way, over track that is kept clear by telegraphic signals and few stops are required.

Chicago Surface Lines cars, on the other hand, share their tracks with vehicles in the streets, are subject to all of the interferences and hazards of traffic and make frequent stops.

To maintain regularity of service in street car operation requires the most scientific planning of schedules, a thorough organization of the operating force and constant supervision and effort.

Delays occur, of course, but the management leaves nothing undone to keep the cars moving on time and to send them safely to their destination with all possible dispatch.

SWEAR BOSWELL ASKED REPRIEVE OF GANG LEADER

Others Testify He Collected Graft.

East St. Louis, Ill., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Arlie Boswell, former state's attorney of Williamson county, asked the Illinois board of pardon and parole at Springfield to stay the execution of Charlie Birger, gang leader, after Birger in jail at Benton, threatened to send Boswell to the gallows if he didn't help him, Deputy Sheriff Jesse Wheat of Franklin county testified today.

Boswell with three other former Williamson county officials, are on trial in federal court charged with conspiracy to defeat the national prohibition laws.

Says Birger Made Threats.

Wheat said that a few days prior to Birger's execution at Benton for the murder of Mayor Joe Adams of West City, Boswell visited Birger and the two held a consultation out of the hearing of Wheat. When Boswell had gone, Wheat testified, a man whom he knew as Manuel visited Birger.

"Birger," Wheat said, "wanted to know if Boswell was going to Springfield before the parole board, and Manuel said he thought so."

"He had better go," the witness quoted Birger as saying, "or I will send him down into that same hole where I am going. The reason I am going to be hanged is because the officers in Williamson county were lax and let me get into this."

Former State's Attorney Roy Martin of Franklin county said Boswell told the parole board that he could get evidence from Birger in the case of the highway patrolman, Lory Price, and his wife if the execution was delayed. The board rejected Boswell's plea.

Expects to Prove Plots.

The government expects by evidence of conferences between the leader of the Birger gang to show the conspiracy which it is charged Boswell, George Bell, former coroner; T. Boyd, former police chief at Marion, and Policeman Hezzie Byrn of Johnston City entered into with the gangsters to violate the federal prohibition law.

Mrs. Art Newman, wife of Birger's lieutenant now serving a life sentence for the murder of Joe Adams of West City and of the Prices at Marion, testified today that her husband and Connie Ritter, another gang lieutenant, were collectors for Boswell for protection money from Williamson county bootleggers.

She said she accompanied Newman and Ritter to Boswell's office when they paid him money and that she saw Boswell at Birger's resort east of Marion when he drank there.

Several other witnesses, all former members of the Birger gang, testified they collected graft for or paid graft to Boswell.

Japan Urged to Stop Sale of Wine in Parliament Cafe

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, Jan. 23.—Agitation was started at the opening of the Japanese diet yesterday to prohibit the sale of "sake" or rice wine in the diet restaurants. It was charged that the liquor was responsible for frequent rowdyism and brawls that have characterized the proceedings of former diets.

KING WILL SEEK HEALTH AT SUNNY MANSION BY SEA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 22.—All England is jubilant at the report that the king will leave London within about a week for convalescence in the bracing sea air. Craigwell house, at Bognor, in Sussex, has been placed at his disposal by Sir Arthur Ducros. The following bulletin was issued today.

"His majesty has had a quiet night. His temperature has now remained normal for many days and the condition of his pulse is satisfactory. The empyema wound is small and steadily healing. With his returning appetite, the amount of nourishment is adequate and includes solid food. Although his majesty's general strength shows improvement, there is as yet no appreciable increase in weight. We feel the time is approaching when his majesty's removal to the sea air will be an advantageous step."

It was learned at Buckingham palace at midnight that the progress in the king's condition noted in the morning bulletins was being maintained. His doctors were only in consultation for a short time tonight and the ray therapy treatment was not administered. It was said that if the king's condition continues to be satisfactory it is possible that considerable intervals may intervene between future bulletins.

Craigwell house is described as "a sun trap among the pines." The house faces directly upon the sea and has beautiful lawns sweeping down almost to the edge of the beach. It is completely shut off from the outside world and is only visible at some distance from the shore.

The king's rooms will be in the front of the house, facing the sea, and looking down through an avenue of Scotch firs. From the wide bay windows the king will see to the westward the massive head of Selsey Bill cliffs thrust far into the sea, while in another direction he will get a distant view of the Isle of Wight.

HE SUFFERED FOR TEN YEARS

Then ALL-BRAN Brought Relief in Two Months—Doctor Recommended It.

Constipation is dreaded not only for its own insidious self, but because of the many serious conditions and diseases it causes. Mr. Lind was a sufferer—but read how he found relief.

"For the past 10 years I have suffered from piles. At times I have been unable to work. I have tried suppositories, ointments, etc., but to no avail.

"Two months ago my grocer called my attention to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I began taking it regularly. Immediately the pain and annoyance from the piles was relieved. I found that it requires very little ALL-BRAN to give nature a fair chance to effect a cure."—WALTER J. LIND, R. 2, Box 137, Appleton, Wis.

Don't neglect constipation. At any time its poisons may take terrible toll from your health and well-being. Protect yourself. Eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly—two tablespoonfuls daily, or in chronic cases, with every meal. ALL-BRAN brings sure, natural relief. It is what doctors call a bulk food. It sweeps the intestine clean and stimulates normal action.

Ready-to-eat with milk or cream. Also try the recipes on the package. Results guaranteed. Doctors recommend it because it is 100% bran. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Served in hotels, restaurants, and dining cars. Sold by all grocers.

BLONDES

MARION DAVIES, famous for her blonde loveliness, says: "Smooth skin is a great asset. I am delighted with Lux Toilet Soap."

ESTHER RALSTON, blonde Paramount beauty, says, "Lux Toilet Soap is excellent for keeping the skin delightfully smooth."

DOROTHY MACKAILL, First National, guards her beauty carefully. "Lux Toilet Soap is lovely for the skin," she says.

RED HEADS

CLARA BOW, Paramount, so famous for her charm, says: "Lux Toilet Soap is a great help in keeping the skin in perfect condition."

JOAN CRAWFORD, M. G. M., says: "Never have I had anything like Lux Toilet Soap for keeping my skin fresh and smooth."

MERNA KENNEDY, Universal, guards her skin with care. She says: "Lux Toilet Soap keeps my skin marvelously smooth."

NANCY CARROLL, Paramount—"Lux Toilet Soap is a great aid in keeping one's skin flawless for the all-seeing eye of the camera."

9 out of 10 screen stars use Lux Toilet Soap

AN exquisite, velvety skin is any girl's greatest charm, and for a screen star it is all important, leading motion picture directors say.

"Screen history has proved that the cleverest make-up can't imitate beautiful skin under the glare of the close-up. I don't know a single girl without really lovely skin who has won enough of the public to become a star," says William Beaudine, director for Fox Films.

"A star must always guard the perfection of her skin—the glaring lights of the close-up reveal the slightest unevenness," Myrna Kennedy explains.

The next time you see her in a close-up notice how fine and smooth Lux Toilet Soap keeps her skin or Clara Bow's, Bebe Daniels', May McAvoy's. When next you see your favorite screen star, whoever she is, remember that nine out of every ten lovely stars use Lux Toilet Soap for smooth skin.

Indeed, all the great film studios, following these stars' example, have made Lux Toilet Soap the official soap in all dressing rooms.

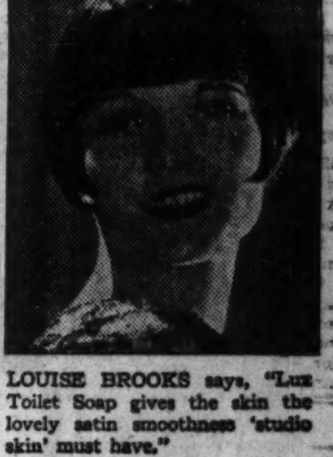
The exacting screen stars like the fact that this delicately fragrant white soap is made by the French method. "It gives my skin that beautiful smoothness I though only fine French soap could give," Renée Adorée says. You, too, will like its caressing lather that leaves your skin so satin smooth. Use it for the bath, too, and the shampoo, as the screen stars do.

BRUNETTES

BEBE DANIELS, Paramount; says: "Lux Toilet Soap is a great help in keeping the skin smooth and lovely."

BILLY DOVE, First National, is charmed with this soap. "I find Lux Toilet Soap delightfully pure and refreshing."

LUPE VELEZ, United Artists; knows how important smooth skin is. "Lux Toilet Soap certainly keeps my skin like velvet."



LOUISE BROOKS says, "Lux Toilet Soap gives the skin the lovely satin smoothness 'studio skin' must have."

. . AND BROWN HAIR

ELEANOR BOARDMAN says: "Lux Toilet Soap is excellent for the very smooth skin a screen star must have."

EVELYN BRENT, Paramount; says: "A star just must have a smooth skin. Lux Toilet Soap is so pleasing and soothing."

MARY BRIAN, Paramount, says: "Lux Toilet Soap is certainly lovely for keeping smooth 'studio skin' in perfect condition."

RENÉE ADORÉE, M. G. M.—"Lux Toilet Soap gives my skin that beautiful smoothness I thought only French soap gave."

PROSPERITY

For Real Estate Buyers In Greater Chicago

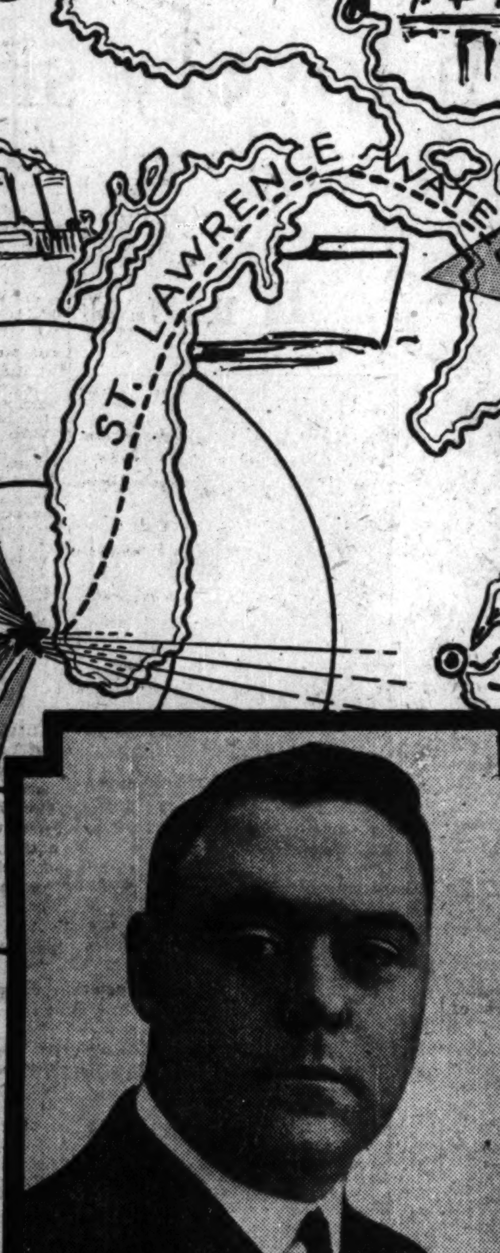
America's Greatest Railroad and Shipping Center.......

THE St. Lawrence River was discovered in 1534 by Jacques Cartier who, in the following year, explored it as far as the present site of Montreal where even then he found a town of red men. This river is 80 miles wide at its mouth and is more than one mile wide for 1,000 miles of its entire length. It is a tidal river for more than 500 miles. It is this river into which the Great Lakes pour their surplus waters. The finest inland waterway of the world will be developed through the opening of the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence to ocean going ships which will bring a commerce to Chicago far greater and more profitable than is enjoyed by any other international port. Already at Chicago is a concentration of super highways, railroads and electric lines tapping every part of the Middle West. With the completion of this waterway it is practically certain that the Chicago of today will seem small in comparison with the Chicago of tomorrow.



HOWARD W. ELMORE
Pres., H. W. Elmore & Co.

In the municipal area of Chicago, which includes the city proper and all its close-in suburbs, the actual population gain each year since the war has been from 70,000 to 150,000. In that same period the annual increase in real estate values included within those boundaries has been in excess of $100,000,000 per year.

If Greater Chicago has been able to make such an advance in this reconstruction period, I do not think it requires an expert to figure out what the future of Chicago real estate will be. We are blessed with economic values here greater than those possessed by any other area in the world. We enjoy a temperate climate free from hurricanes, earthquakes, tornadoes and cyclones. We have around us thousands of square miles of fertile farming land. The Middle West with a population of 20,000,000, hems Chicago about on every side and is connected with it by the finest and fastest transportation systems on the Globe.

It is sometimes difficult for salesmen to make investors realize the value of Chicago real estate. We are publishing this, therefore, in the interest of salesmen and future real estate investors in Greater Chicago. The World's Fair, the waterways and general industrial development will soon put real estate of Chicago beyond the reach of many. The time to buy is now.

LAKES TO THE GULF DEEP WATERWAY

Opening the Chicago market to the entire south via Cheap Transportation

1933 World's Fair To Be An International Industrial Achievement

The importance of the coming World's Fair as an international event is not yet well understood by the mass of people. While the Fair probably will be a most spectacular Exposition, it will also possess features of lasting benefit to every nation. Chicago and its Mid West area is one of the world's greatest consuming markets; it is a prominent manufacturing center with cheap electric energy available, favored by railroad rates and climatic conditions. Labor conditions here are satisfactory to both employer and employed. Foreign nations can reach this market directly through this water route. They can trade directly with this market; can buy cheap food here, cheap clothing, farm implements, automobiles and other manufactured products. The coming World's Fair will be important in that it will be educational so far as the rest of the world is concerned.

1929 Marks the Beginning of a Prosperous Era

We are living in the world's most favored era. This is apparent in Chicago where real estate has shown a steady and consistent growth, ever upward. No matter what the value of the dollar has been, those familiar with the real estate situation today believe that Greater Chicago is actually worth twice as much as it could be bought for today. If that be true then every dollar invested in Chicago real estate should bring such tremendous values in the next ten years as to stagger the imagination of economists and financiers. We in the business believe that Chicago real estate today is the world's best investment. Our vision is for a greater Chicago, a bigger Chicago, and a richer Chicago.

Bank consolidations give us a greater loaning power, a thrifty population is piling bank deposits into our banks and shrewd efficient manufacturers are selling at a profit out of Chicago territory alone over $4,500,000,000 annually. Our retail business is growing by leaps and bounds, building is on the increase, our people are enjoying more and better things. With it all the actual values of real estate continue to mount and those with vision and a few dollars can make themselves rich by the wise investment of their money in Greater Chicago real estate.

DE LUXE ISSUES APPEAR AMONG MAJOR ROSTERS

New Yorkers Outdo Sox and Cubs.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

LOU BARBOUR.

At the rate some of the big league ball clubs are going it won't be long until the roster lists will be engraved on vellum and bound in morocco. And there'll be de luxe editions autographed by the stars of the club.

Until last year it was the custom of each club to print the names of the players, giving rough estimates of their ages, initials, and whether or not they were left-handed. Sometimes a brief note on prior servitude was given, frequently with a degree of accuracy.

A year ago this winter, however, Secretary Harry Grabiner and Traveling Secretary Lou Barbour of the White Sox went into conference, and concluded that Lou was doing virtually nothing during the off season.

Mr. Barbour's Big Job.

"I'll tell you what I'll do," said the traveling secretary, all aglow. "I'll get up a roster that will print more about our ballplayers than they know about themselves."

And forthwith Mr. Barbour went to work, producing a volume that made other rosters look like mere scraps of paper.

This year Mr. Barbour produced another masterpiece, even bigger and better than last year's, except for the depressing circumstance that he had Grady Adkins born in 1887 instead of 1897, and had Dan Dugan born in Plainfield, Ill., instead of Plainfield, N. J. But yesterday's mail revealed that Barbour no longer stands alone as the roster king of baseball.

The Giants are out with a bound roster which has many features omitted by Mr. Barbour. Such items as how many times players have been hit in the head by bean balls are not included in the Giant volume, but the space is effectively used in the presentation of other items.

A 46 Year Old Record.

The first information given by the Giants' management is a table showing the yearly interclub won and lost record from 1883 including 1928. The recapitulation of this detailed record shows that in forty-six years the Giants have won 3,225 games and lost 2,473 for an all time average of .566.

Another department is entitled "Number of Times the Giants Finished in each Position," and reads as follows:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
12	12	5	4	2	2	3	4	1	1	0	0

The players' full names, positions, date and place of birth, place obtained, occupation in 1928, batting and throwing technique, weight, height and percentages are given in elaborate detail. Then follows all conceivable hotel and train information, including data on places where they have eastern or central time.

Yankees Beat the Cubs.

The Cubs inaugurated the practice of printing halftone portraits of the owners and club officials but this year's Yankee roster goes them one better by printing, on the cover, portraits of two talented young men named Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig.

The rosters are distributed among the players and baseball writers throughout the country, a somewhat limited circulation in view of the informative quality of the documents.

"Gee, ain't it a shame every smoke shop and pool hall and saloon and public library ain't got a set of these here rosters," commented the young man who answers telephones in THE TRIBUNE sports department.

United States Will Enter World Soccer Meet in 1930

New York, Jan. 22.—(AP)—At a meeting today of the national and international games and foreign relations committee of the United States Football association it was decided to send a soccer team to represent the United States in the world's cup competition of the Federation Internationale de Football association. The games will be staged in Europe in 1930, covering a period from May 15 to June 15.

It's Your Move! There's No Limit to Pro Influence

Controversies over elegibility in baseball, football, and basketball frequently arise in high school athletics, but now E. C. Delaporte, director of physical education in the public schools is confronted with something new.

"What do you think they've done now?" Delaporte asked yesterday. "Why, Crane is accusing Austin of using a professional player on its checker team."

Holzer of Austin is alleged to have played for money in a south side checker tourney.

"We'll have to investigate," Delaporte concluded.

Schurz High Cagers Whip Senn Twice

Schurz basketball teams strengthened their positions in the north section of the City High School league yesterday by defeating Senn in two games at Schurz. The lightweights won, 19 to 18, to bring their standing to three victories and one defeat, a record that enables them to tighten their grip on second place. The heavies won, 22 to 12, and assumed the pace setting role in the section. In the lightweight contest, Schurz led, 11 to 4, at the half, but almost fell before Senn's second half rush. TWO FOR LINDBLOM.

Lindblom won a double victory from Tilden at Lindblom. Jordan led the heavies to a 27 to 16 victory by caging six baskets and two free throws. The Lindblom lights copped, 16 to 8. Heavyweight lineup:

HARRISON, CRANE DIVIDE.

Harrison heavies handed Crane its second west section defeat, 15 to 10, at Crane. The winners gained an 11 to 1 margin at the half, which was accumulated while Reiss was not in the game. He entered the battle in the second half, but Crane was held in check. Crane took the lightweight contest, 18 to 17, by scoring a basket as the game ended.

The victory of Austin over Crane heavies, which last week was forfeited to Crane, yesterday reverted to Austin. It was discovered that the league rules do not penalize a team if it uses a player who gives his incorrect residence, such as was the case of Benson, Austin forward. Benson automatically is banned for one year.

LANE DOWNS LAKE VIEW.

Lane bettered its standing in the north section by whipping Lake View twice on the Tech floor. With Horvath shooting four baskets and leading the scoring, the heavies won, 27 to 16. The lightweight score was 16 to 12.

Fitzpatrick Wins State 3 Cushion Championship

Fred Fitzpatrick, representing Stevenson and Schalk's billiard rooms, won the state amateur three cushion billiard title last night by defeating J. Riley Monks in the final round at Kieckhefer's. The score was, 50 to 44, in 90 innings. Fitzpatrick will represent Illinois next month in the Western Amateur championships at Minneapolis.

RECORD FIELD OF 4,406 NAMED FOR TRIBUNE DERBIES

Largest Entry List in Skating History.

The Entry

Girls' senior....	2,02	Boys' intermed..	963
Girls' junior....	351	Boys' senior.....	875
Boys' juvenile..	1,026
Boys' junior....	989	Total	4,406

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

A total of 4,406 entries! That's the registration for THE TRIBUNE'S Silver Skates Derbies to be held at Garfield park Saturday and Sunday.

This is nearly double the 1928 entry of 2,607, which broke all records in the twelve years the event has been held.

This year's total could be increased by more than 200 if post-entries were accepted. Notice was given that entries closed last Sunday at midnight. Still they poured in yesterday, but will not be accepted. THE TRIBUNE has made it a fast rule not to accept post-nominations.

Name Must Appear.

Names and numbers of all contestants will be printed in THE TRIBUNE on Saturday and Sunday. Unless a skater's name appears it will be useless to report to the number clerks. The list of entries has been checked and rechecked by Harry Berz, chairman of the registration committee of the Western Skating association and his corps of assistants.

The gratifying feature of the entry is the large number of boys who will face the starter in the juvenile and junior races. In the juvenile race for those under 14 years 1,026 have sent in their names. In the junior division for 14 and 15 year old lads 989 have been listed. The intermediate boys' section attracted an entry of 963 and the boys' senior 875.

Break Girls' Record.

The girls showed unusual interest in the races. In the junior section 351 will compete and in the senior division 202. This is by far the largest entry received for either race and indicates that more growing girls are becoming interested in skating, one of the most healthy of outdoor sports.

The entry for this year's Derby surprised even officials who have been connected with the game for years. William Bratton of Pittsburgh, who has been identified with the ice sport for thirty years, said he never heard of as large a field for any athletic event.

The entry indicates the boy and girl skaters of Chicago and their parents have confidence in THE TRIBUNE races. Mothers and fathers of the contestants know their sons and daughters will be given a fair chance. There will be 100 police in charge of Lieut. Roger Shanahan on the scene to see that spectators and contestants have an enjoyable afternoon on both days.

The rain yesterday will help put the ice in excellent shape. With colder weather predicted for the week-end, the racing course on both days will be fast.

Stage Prelims Saturday.

Preliminaries in the boys' juvenile and junior Derbies will be held on Saturday starting at 2 o'clock.

The program on Sunday will open at 12:30 o'clock with trial heats in the boys' intermediate Derby. No numbers will be given out after noon and clerks will be on hand to pass out the numerals at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

On Saturday, Paul Staff, official surveyor of the Western Skating association, and his assistants will lay out an eight lap track. A six lap course will be used on Sunday.

Contestants are urged to report for their numbers before 1:30 o'clock Saturday and before noon on Sunday. Number clerks will be instructed not to give out any numerals after these hours. Every contestant who goes to the mark will be given a bronze button, a souvenir of the event.

Hartnett to Join Ranks of Benedicks

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall, 5836 Wayne avenue, have announced that their daughter, Martha, is to be married next Monday to Leo (Gabby) Hartnett, star catcher of the Chicago Cubs.

The ceremony is to be performed at St. Mary's of the Lake by the Rev. John Dennison at an hour to be decided later.

"There isn't anything to write about this being a 'pretty romance,' except that Miss Marshall and I are very much in love," Gabby said yesterday in discussing plans. "We're going to do our honeymooning on Catalina Island and we're leaving Chicago with the first squad of Cubs on Feb. 14."

Although Gabby still is in his twenties—28 to be exact—he is the veteran of the Cub personnel in point of continuous employment with the organization.

CLUB SECRETARY FIRED; PROTESTED NURMI'S STATUS

New York, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The athletic committee of the second Masonic district, through its chairman, George Keiser, today repudiated the action taken by its secretary, Jack Harris, in writing an open letter of protest concerning Paavo Nurmi to the Amateur Athletic union.

The letter charged Nurmi had been "influenced" by a man or men with power in official track circles" to shift his entry from the Masonic games here next Saturday night to the Boston K. of C. meet the same date.

In a note of explanation and apology addressed to Daniel J. Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the A. A. U., to whom Harris' letter also was sent, Mr. Keiser apologized for Harris' act and said the latter's resignation as secretary of the committee has been requested and received.

Mandell Returns to Ring; Defeats Jack Gillespie

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Sammy Mandell, world's lightweight champion, punched Jack Gillespie of Detroit all over the ring for ten rounds here tonight. It was Mandell's first bout since he fractured his collar bone last September while boxing Jimmy Goodrich, former champion, at Flint, Mich.

Mandell fought with a broken rib on the left side. He said he sustained the injury while training last Friday. Gillespie was willing but was completely outclassed.

SHUFFLE KNOCKS BIG CHIEF DOWN, BUT NOT OUT

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Shuffle Callahan, Chicago middleweight, won a newspaper decision over Chief Elkhart, Oklahoma, in an eight round slugging match here tonight.

Although he had the Indian on the canvas on five different occasions, Callahan failed to display that knockout punch which gave him many victories a few years ago. A left hook to the body put Elkhart down for a count of nine in the first round. In the fourth the Chief went down three times under a barrage of head blows, but each time he recovered from what looked like knockouts.

Rain Again Delays High School Skating Meet

Balked for the second time by unfavorable weather, high school officials will make another attempt to stage the seventh annual city public high school championship ice races tomorrow afternoon on the north lagoon in Lincoln park.

New York U. Grid Star Out of Hospital

New York, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Al Lassman, New York university football captain who was severely injured in the game with Carnegie Tech Nov. 24, was discharged from the hospital today and sailed this afternoon for Miami Beach, Fla.

St. Viator's Five Defeats St. Louis University, 38-22

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 22.—(AP)—St. Viator's college of Bourbonnais, Ill., gave the St. Louis university's basketball team its worst drubbing of the season tonight by a score of 38 to 22.

MEDILL WAVES HIS LEFT HAND TO BEAT MYERS

3,000 See West Side Boy Win Decision.

Fight Decisions

At Milwaukee, Wis.—Shuffle Callahan beat Chief Elkhart [8].
At New Haven, Conn.—Jackie Pilkington beat George Day [10]; Eddie Wilkins knocked out Jimmy Kelly [3].
At Wilkesbarre, Pa.—Frankie Garcia beat Johnny Dundee [10]; Tubby Noble stopped Jack Salinger [2].
At St. Paul, Minn.—My Sullivan beat Al Van Ryan [10].

Joey Medill, west side lightweight, decisively defeated Spug Meyers of Pocatello, Idaho, in the windup of Promoter Jack Art's boxing show at the Hippodrome last night. Joey won seven of the ten rounds while the other three were even.

The showe attracted a gathering of 3,000, and the receipts amounted to $6,000.

The decision met with the approval of the spectators who admired Myer's gameness and his willingness to trade blows.

Joey won the decision mainly through clever work with his left hand. He sometimes landed three left hooks to Spug's jaw without a return and he crossed his right to Myer's body repeatedly. Medill was the master at the standoff style and he held his own in the clinches.

Ballatin Beats Rivers.

In the fifth round Medill opened an old cut over Spug's left eye with a right cros. Blood continued to flow from the wound for the remainder of the fight. Neither was in distress at any time. Each did his share of the leading and there was plenty of toe to toe punching. Each scaled 136 pounds at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Eddie Ballatin, local junior welterweight, was given the decision over Joe Rivers of Cedar Rapids, Ia., in the ten round semi-windup. Eddie did most of the leading and landed the scoring punches in every round. Rivers was wild and missed repeatedly with right and left swings. They met at 145 pounds.

Mike Esposito Victor.

Mike Esposito, local 124 pounder, was given the decision over Don Allison of Kewanee, Ill., in the opening fight of five rounds. Babe De Corsey, St. Paul middleweight, and King Levinsky of the west side, went six rounds to a draw in the second preliminary. In the other fight on the card Paul Pantaleo, local heavyweight, stopped Henry Peaks of Minneapolis in the fifth round.

HIGH-HEARTED.

Our neighbor is proud of his fertile land,
His sweeping fields of golden grain,
The fancy herds that bear his brand—
But no child romps his shady lane.

My father tilled his barren soil,
The while he watched his children grow;
His days were spent in cheerful toil
With back bent over plow or hoe.

My dad is proud of stalwart sons
Who work from morn till day grows dim;
Our neighbor scorns the lowly ones—
Our kindly dad just pities him.

Connie Mack Heads South to Start Personal Training

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Recuperating from a cold, Connie Mack, veteran manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, left for the south today to do his own preliminary training for the coming baseball season. Mack is going direct to Mount Plymouth, Fla., where he will play golf for three weeks before moving on to Fort Myers to watch Thomas Edison grow rubber trees and wait for the members of the Athletics to arrive for training.

RIPLEY SCORES, BUT FINNIGAN ALSO FINDS NET

Both Sextets Play Listless Hockey.

OTTAWA, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The Ottawa Senators and Chicago Blackhawks battled to a 1 to 1 tie in a slow national league hockey game here tonight.

The visitors opened the scoring six minutes after the start of the second period when Vic Ripley snared the puck after March's wild shot had sent it twirling around the boards behind the Ottawa net, and scored into an open cage, Connell being sprawled on the ice at the time.

Frank Finnigan evened up the score before the period ended when he beat the Hawks' defense after a face-off and shot high into the mesh.

Lineup:

CHICAGO [1].		OTTAWA [1].
Gardner	G	Connell
Wentworth	R. D.	Boucher
Taylor	L. D.	Clancy
Irwin	C	Smith
Gottselig	L. W.	Kilrea
McKinnon	R. W.	Finnigan

Chicago spares—Ripley, Arbour, March, Loughlin. Ottawa spares—Godin, Touhey, Grosvenor, Shields, Elliott.

First period—No score. Penalties, none.

Second period—Chicago, Ripley [March], 6:30. Ottawa, Finnigan, 11:00. Penalties, none.

Third period—No score. Penalties, none.

Overtime—No score. Penalty, Taylor.

Referees—Bell and Le Flamme.

BRUINS HELD TO TIE

Boston, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The Bruins and Les Canadiens employed too many defensive tactics here tonight and the result was an overtime scoreles tie. The flying Frenchmen seemed weakened with Howie Moritz out of the action, and the Bruins lacked a lot of their usual dash, probably because the colorful Eddie Shore was nursing his injuries on the sidelines.

The Bruins missed their golden opportunity late in the third period when Weiland and Mackay rushed through, the former trying Hainesworth with a backhand shot. Mackay swept into play the goalie's pass out and was piled up in the cage with Burke, Silvio Mantha and Hainesworth. When the referee picked the pile apart the rubber was found just outside the net. Lineup:

BOSTON [0.]		CANADIENS [0].
Thompson	Goal	Hainesworth
Hitchman	L. D.	Burke
Owen	R. D.	S. Mantha
Gainor	C	Lepine
Green	L. W.	Joliat
Oliver	R. W.	Gagne

Boston spares—Mackay, Galbraith, Rodden, Clapper, Weiland, Lane, Denneny. Montreal spares—Mondu, LeDuc, Carson, Patterson, G. Mantha.

Penalties—Hitchman, Burke [3], LeDuc [2], Rodden [2], Weiland, Joliat, Owen, Gainor [2], Gagne.

RANGERS WHIP TORONTO

New York, Jan. 22.—(AP)—A brilliant goal by Murray Murdoch a minute before the final bell gave the New York Rangers a 1 to 0 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs in a National Hockey league game here tonight. Nearly three full periods of fast but scoreless hockey passed before the young Ranger spare broke through the Toronto defense to beat Goalie Lorne Chabot on a single handed play.

DETROIT COUGARS WIN

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 22.—(AP)—George Hay's goal after five minutes and ten seconds of overtime gave the Detroit Cougars a 1 to 0 victory over the Montreal Maroons here tonight. Hay circled the right side of the locals' defense and drove a fast backhanded shot past Flat Walsh, Maroon goalie, for the only counter of the game.

CHICAGOANS MAY ACQUIRE HOCKEY TEAM AT OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Frank Ahearn, president of the Ottawa Senators Hockey club, said tonight that he was awaiting the arrival of Chicago representatives regarding the possible sale of his team. He announced that he had received three offers to sell or transfer the team to the United States.

Ahearn also stated that he had received flattering offers for the services of King Clancy, Hec Kilrea and Frankie Finnegan, but that he was not considering them. Ahearn, it is believed, feels he cannot continue to sustain losses here when American cities, especially Chicago, is offering excellent prospects.

HARMON MAKES BID.

Though Paddy Harmon admitted last night he was one of the bidders for the Ottawa Senators, he declined to say how much he was offering for the Canadian club. Even should his bid be acceptable to the Ottawa owners, there is considerable doubt as to whether the club could be brought into Chicago. Under the rules of the National Hockey league, establishing a club in a new city requires a unanimous vote of the other franchise holders and it is practically certain that the Hawks would not permit another club to come into the city.

62 TO 1 SHOT WINS FEATURE AT NEW ORLEANS

Mineralogist Beats Out General Grant.

Justice F. Lame

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 22.—Justice F, the English bred colt owned by William Daniel of Chicago, winner of last year's renewal of the $50,000 New Orleans handicap, went so badly amiss after a workout at Jefferson Park yesterday that he has been declared out of the 1929 renewal of the rich handicap to be run here Feb. 1.

Trainer H. C. Riddle told friends today he had abandoned all hope of ever getting Justice F back to the races and said the Daniel colt would be retired to the stud at once. He will stand at the Brookdale farm in Kentucky. He is the only son of the famous Abbots Trace in America.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 22.—Mineralogist, a six year old which had not won a race in nearly a year, shocked the big crowd at the Fair Grounds track here this afternoon when he took the lead at the half post and held it until the finish of the six furlongs Evader purse, the feature number on the program.

In the mutuel betting he paid one of the longest prices in the history of the Fair Grounds racing when a $2 ticket on him could be redeemed for $126.42. Thus he rewarded his few backers at a little better than 62 to 1.

Packed full of thrills, the victory was decided on the post when Jockey Cooper just held his horse together long enough for the judges to see his nose in front of the furiously closing General Grant. Four lengths to the rear finished Genial Host, while Golden Mac, the favorite, was fourth.

Mineralogist is owned by F. W. Callaghan and is one of those old fellows who have been around a long time. Bred by the Seagram stable, Mineralogist's blood lines are not precisely known, as he was sired by either Ypsylanti II. or Quartz Rock out of the good mare Moucho.

CHICAGO GOLF FOURSOME WINS AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, La., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Four Chicago golfers for the second consecutive year defeated a quartet of New Orleans players here today in a medal match held in conjunction with the qualifying round of the Pan-American amateur golf tournament.

The aggregate low score of the Chicago players was 319 and that of the New Orleans group 336. Chicago players and their individual scores are Arthur B. Sweet, captain, 78; Gus Novetny, 77; Russell Martin, 79; Lee Thiltges, 85.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 22.—(AP)—The condition of Henry J. Killilea, 65, owner of the Milwaukee baseball club of the American association and well known in legal circles, was grave tonight, and doctors hold little hope for his recovery. Mr. Killilea, suffering a heart attack, was taken to a hospital Jan. 7. Last Thursday he suffered a stroke of paralysis.

2,000 Honkers Camp Out at State Refuge

BY BOB BECKER.

When the "chief gander" of all the Canada geese which winter on the gulf coast makes a check up on the flocks this month he is going to find at least 2,000 to 5,000 white throated honkers missing because the Horse Shoe Lake state game preserve in southern Illinois is today a safe resting and feeding ground for that number of honkers as well as thousands of ducks.

Illinois hasn't gone ahead with a commendable state-wide program of game refuges on public shooting grounds. It lags behind the pace set by other states, so the Horse Shoe lake refuge of 2,600 acres bought by the state in July, 1927, stands as a splendid example of what this state should continue to do in the establishment of a series of refuges throughout the state.

Illinois paid $180,000 for the Horse Shoe lake preserve which is not far from Mounds, Ill. About 1,200 acres consists of water. A timbered tract and 800 acres of cleared land make up the balance of the tract. At the present time approximately 165 acres of wheat are available for the geese.

Corn is raised on some of the cleared land and C. J. Spencer, superintendent of the preserve, has been feeding corn to the waterfowl during the past season. Birds dropping in at the refuge are absolutely safe from hunters. It is a refuge in every sense of the word.

The purchase of Horse Shoe lake was promoted by the Southern Illinois Sportsman's league as a conservation measure. Although primarily set aside for the birds, the lake is open to the public during the summer season for fishing, boating and camping.

Wisconsin Victory Tightens Basket Race in Big Ten

BY HARLAND ROHM.

Wisconsin's defeat of Purdue, 31 to 26, at Lafayette last night changed the complexion of the Western conference basketball race quite a little. Primarily it tightened the contest among the three leading teams, Purdue, Wisconsin, and Michigan.

Naturally that result not only gave the Wolverines the edge of being the only undefeated ball club in the league but Michigan already has defeated four of its six opponents, three on their home floors. The other two, Ohio State and Northwestern, have shown so little strength so far that a victory by either of them over the powerful Wolverines would be a major upset.

Michigan Has Long Rest.

Michigan doesn't resume its schedule until Feb. 9, when it meets Ohio at home, but it has at least three tough games ahead of it. Northwestern at Evanston Feb. 11 may or may not be a tough opponent, but the Wolverines were able to defeat Illinois by only four points at Ann Arbor and the return game is, of course, on the Illini's home floor. Iowa, smarting under defeats by teams which the Hawkeyes believe undeserved, will be another hurdle at Ann Arbor Feb. 23, and the final game, March 4, will be against that fast coming bunch of Badgers at Ann Arbor. It wouldn't be at all surprising if that game decided a share in this year's championship.

Wisconsin and Purdue's coming games interlock as they have their second contest to decide at Madison Feb. 25, while the Badgers have that other big game with Michigan. Wisconsin also has yet to meet Indiana at Bloomington, Northwestern twice, and Chicago, while Purdue has games with Northwestern at Evanston, Indiana at Lafayette, Illinois at Champagin, and two games with Ohio State.

Doldrum Season at Hand.

Conference basketball entered its end of the semester doldrums after Monday's games, and there are only three games scheduled in the next 17 days, none of them involving the leaders. Chicago plays at Ohio Saturday, while Northwestern engages in a nonconference game with Notre Dame at Evanston. The next Saturday, Feb. 2, Iowa plays at Chicago, and Northwestern plays at Indiana the following Tuesday. Saturday, Feb. 9, the season gets under way again. Three games, Ohio at Michigan, Illinois at Chicago, and Indiana at Iowa, on that day will complete the first half of the season.

To date no one seems capable of coming within many baskets of the tall Charles Murphy of Purdue. In six games the six foot six inch stretch has scored eighty points, thirty more than Bud Foster of Wisconsin, who is next with fifty points. Other leaders are Strickland, Indiana, 49; Tenhopen, Wisconsin, 48; Gleichmann, Northwestern, 36; Irvin, Ohio State, and Walter, Northwestern, 34, and Truskowski, Michigan, 33.

Lake View Senior Track Team Defeats Senn High

Lake View's senior track team defeated Senn, 56 to 20, yesterday at the Lake View gym. Capt. Stecht of the winners was high point man with 11¼ points. He won the 440 and 50 yard events and was a member of the winning relay team. This was the third win this year for the Lake View team.

Bruins Seek to Topple Central Cagers Tonight

Chicago's Bruins, who have been gradually battling back to a position among the leaders in the American Pro league, will complete their two game series with Johnny Beckman's Rochester Centrals tonight at Broadway and Thorndale.

The fives split even in a series played in Rochester last week, but the Bruins took the edge by walloping the New Yorkers in a red hot match last Sunday night at White City. Rochester, with the possibility of Beckman back in the lineup, will be out to even things up at the armory.

Beckman, who has been under the care of the club's trainer since he was injured last week, is responding rapidly to treatment and if his condition has improved sufficiently he will take his regular place in the lineup.

Rochester, which is fighting to hold third place in the organization, stands out as one of the most dangerous fives in the league because of the stellar work this season of Beckman, Artus Grody, Gillum, Barlow, Kintzing, Rabin, and Marty Barry.

Chicago will present its regular lineup of Hickey and Ely at the forwards, Voss at center, and Kennedy and Russell at the guards. This combination has been working smoothly of late and with Wickhorst, Harper, and Skurnick in reserve the locals should give a good account of themselves for the remainder of the season.

Suzanne to Sail Friday; Baldwin on Same Boat?

New York, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The New York American says today that Suzanne Lenglen has engaged passage for herself and mother on the French liner Paris, sailing Friday, and that officials of the line are holding in reserve a stateroom for Baldwin M. Baldwin.

The Lenglens, who were reported eastward bound after a hurried departure from the California home of Baldwin's mother, Mrs. Anita M. Baldwin, have evaded all efforts to locate them. Baldwin at various times reported a suitor for the hand of the former world's tennis champion, left his mother's home at the same time.

CHICAGO, OHIO FIVES TO PLAY AFTERNOON GAME

Clash on Buckeye Court Saturday.

With four defeats in as many starts, the Chicago basketball team is about fed up on reverses and is looking for the famous cloud with the silver lining. Saturday afternoon the Maroons meet the Ohio State five at Columbus.

Three of the four losses suffered by Chicago can be attributed to inability to cope with the height of the opposing players. Purdue downed them twice, and in the two games Stretch Murphy amassed 51 points, as many as most teams pile up in two encounters. Wisconsin presented four giants, Chielewski, a guard, being the only man the Maroons did not have to jump at when he got the ball in his hands. And so far this "jumping-jack" style of defense has not been any too successful.

Illinois with a team of average size beat the Maroons by only three points on its own floor. Which substantiates the view in the Midway camp that the Maroons are as good a team as any their size.

Against Ohio Coach Norgren will rely on his original lineup, with Capt. Gist at center, Changnon and Kaplan, forwards, and Fish and Abbott, guards.

Komrska Team Wins Brothers' Bowling Meet

The tournament was the most successful since its start 20 years ago. Competition was more spirited and fine bowling was necessary to pull down the cash prizes.

Twenty-five teams finished in the money. The leaders:

GOLD IMPORTS AGAIN PROBLEM FOR U. S. BANKS

Shipment Regarded as Important.

BY O. A. MATHER.

Announcement that about $2,500,000 in gold is being shipped from London to a New York banking firm was the most important financial news yesterday. It was the first English gold to be consigned to this country since the middle of November and was the result of the sterling exchange rate falling below $4.85, making shipments of gold to this country profitable.

If this shipment marks the beginning of a strong influx of gold to this country, a situation might develop that would confront American bankers and the federal reserve authorities with a dilemma similar to that of a year and a half ago. Then the reserve authorities enforced arbitrarily low rediscount rates in order to help Europe stabilize its currencies by forcing American gold abroad.

Predict Inflation.

It will be recalled that the Chicago Reserve bank directors warned against that action of making money rates unduly low. They predicted a wave of stock market speculation and inflation of prices. When this prediction was fulfilled and the reserve authorities attempted to reverse their policy the resultant controversy led to a change in the reserve board personnel.

In the last year and a half the United States has lost around a half billion dollars in gold as a result of that "help Europe" movement. This loss of gold is the primary reason why money rates recently have risen to the highest levels since the post-war deflation period and why there has been an unusual credit stringency. This situation has been abetted by the vastly greater demand for credit to be used in stock market speculation.

Now the question is to what extent imports of gold may continue. Any important influx would tend to bring easier money rates and expand credit. But the federal reserve authorities do not desire any further influx of gold for the twofold reason that it might encourage even more frenzied speculation and hurt the position of foreign government banks.

Further Expansion.

It is no secret that American financiers have been hoping for the time when the reserve system would adopt a policy of imposing rediscount rates equal or slightly above open market money rates. Even the present 5 per cent rate has not discouraged heavy borrowing by the member banks from the reserve banks. Any large influx of gold would probably forestall any increase in the present rediscount rate, yet such action would appear to be about the only way of checking speculation and forcing the member banks to reduce their loans to the reserve banks.

Cheerful news predominated in trade and industry yesterday. Further expansion has taken place in the steel industry in the last week. Production now is above 83½ per cent of capacity, compared with around 82½ per cent a week ago and 84 per cent a fortnight ago. Independent steel concerns have increased from 80 to 82 per cent in the last week, while the Steel corporation has remained slightly under 85 per cent.

ANACONDA SEEKS CHILE COPPER CO. MINORITY STOCK

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 22.—Coincident with the announcement today of an 87½ cents per share quarterly dividend by the Chile Copper company, directors of the Anaconda Copper Mining company made known an offer to acquire the outstanding minority stock of the Chile company at 73 shares of Anaconda for 100 shares of Chile.

The Anaconda company will increase its capital stock from 6,000,000 to 12,000,000 shares at the same time. Declaration of the 87½ cents dividend by Chile puts that stock on an annual basis of $3.50 compared with $3. The statements today follow wide advances in the prices of both Anaconda and Chile in the last few weeks.

Anaconda already owns more than 91 per cent of the 4,415,498 shares of Chile outstanding.

There is some expectation that Anaconda will make an offer for Greene Cananea.

Big Interest in Annual Booty of U. S. Steel

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 22.—The rapid rise of United States Steel stock on the "big board" is matched by the vast increase in rumors circulated in Wall street concerning the booty that is to be distributed by that corporation. With the quarterly meeting of the board of directors only a week away, speculation and estimates of earnings have reached a fever pitch.

United States Steel's profits for the final three months of the year were estimated to have approximated $4 a share on the outstanding 7,116,235 shares, which, with the $8.17 a share reported in the first nine months, would make about $12 a share for the year.

Surplus at the end of the year was believed to have increased to about $700,000,000 compared with $633,044,914 at the end of 1927. A tax refund of $26,000,000 was recently received. Working capital was believed to have increased to about $575,000,000.

Steel's strong working capital position, its large earnings and surplus put it in position either to declare a stock dividend of good size or to split its stock, in either case increasing payments to stockholders, it was contended.

Canners Are Meeting New Food Demands

BY SCRUTATOR.

Manufacturers of foodstuffs and kindred products compose the largest industrial group, in dollar measurement, in the United States. In 1925, the last year for which complete figures of the census are available, their products were valued at ten and a half billion dollars, with only factories having a gross output exceeding $5,000 being considered.

Canned and preserved foods in the same year were sold—the manufacturers' price—for 873 million dollars, an increase of 105 millions in two years. It is entirely possible that with the small canners missed by the census and with a natural increase, canning and preserving is now a billion dollar industry.

All of which brings up speculations as to the trend of eating habits of the American people. On the subject there is no definite large scale information. That was settled yesterday by inquiries of some of the best informed men attending the conventions of the National Canners' association at the Stevens hotel and the National Wholesale Grocers' association at the Congress.

Green Stuffs.

It is known that the per capita consumption of green stuffs, both canned and fresh, has gone up enormously in recent years. Recently a vegetable wholesaler ascribed this to the insistence of the medical profession for vitamins. Another explanation is that women who want to get thin or stay thin have forced their menfolk to a diet devoid of starch. Probably both suppositions are correct.

The views of a prominent canner on the matter are somewhat enlightening. "Women are learning to use canned goods as they should be used," he asserts. "Once it was enough to cut the top off and put the vegetables on the table. Now they know how to add something fresh and get better results. Better quality and standardization have helped us recently as mere convenience helped us long ago."

A wholesale grocer from Philadelphia held that there is but one trend in food consumption—eat what you like.

"Our level is so far above mere subsistence that there's room for everything on the list," he said. "Millions don't want variety. They are satisfied with the foods they ate years ago. On the other hand, we have the progressives. We are prosperous, but not too prosperous to be thrifty.

Matter of Price.

"As I see it, food consumption is pretty largely a matter of price. Our market is safe, because nobody can stop eating."

So the wholesale merchants devote themselves to discussing trade practices, credit problems and relations with manufacturers and other distributors. The canners recognize the consumer as a person who wants good food and lets the variety of it—provided it is canned—worry him not at all. Their research department has invested a million and a half in improving canning methods and not a cent in investigating consumer demand.

Company's Kilowatt Output Doubles 1927 Production

The production of electric energy in 1928 by the International Paper and Power company system was 3,504,131,000 kilowatt hours, practically double the output of the system for the previous year, 1927. For December, 1928, output was 355,978,000 kilowatt hours, an increase of 53% over the production of the system in December, 1927.

Purchasing Price.

At the outset the corporation is to acquire about 300,000 shares of stock of the Prairie Oil and Gas company at $60 a share, and about 550,000 shares of the Prairie Pipe Line company at $52 a share. The shares of these companies were recently acquired by Blair & Co. from the Rockefeller interests.

Elisha Walker of Blair & Co. will head the new company as chairman and J. H. Markham, president. The directors besides Mr. Walker and Mr. Markham will include J. S. Bache, T. L. Chadbourne, William G. Costin, Arthur Cutten, Ruloff Cutten, H. W. Farnum, P. A. S. Franklin, Halsted G. Freeman, F. T. Haskell, Charles Hayden, L. W. Hill, E. F. Hutton, R. P. Lamont, Earle H. Reynolds, H. H. Rogers of Tulsa.

The next largest offering in new corporate financing programs will be $25,000,000 of Associated Gas and Electric company 20 year 4½ per cent convertible debentures. The price is 95 and interest. The debentures are convertible between March 1, 1930, and March 1, 1932, into 17½ shares of class A stock for each $1,000 debenture.

As part of a $10,000,000 new financing program offering will be made of $3,000,000 American Service company five year 6½ per cent convertible debenture bonds, priced at 99½, to yield about 6.60 per cent. Each $1,000 debenture will be convertible into eight shares of preferred stock and 20 shares of common stock of the company, which controls 72 ice manufacturing plants in the south.

Public offering will also be made of 60,000 shares of class A common stock of the American States Public Service company, which owns, operates, or controls properties supplying water and artificial gas to thirty-eight communities of California and Idaho. The price will be $27 a share.

Other offerings include $1,500,000 of State of Tennessee 4¼ per cent park bonds.

"Standard (Ind.) Policy Same if I Win"—Rockefeller Jr.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 22.—Stockholders of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana have been informed on behalf of John D. Rockefeller Jr. that the fight to oust Col. Robert W. Stewart as chairman of the board of directors will have no bearing on the policies of the company, it was announced late today at the Rockefeller offices.

This statement is interesting in view of rumors that one of the underlying reasons for Rockefeller's opposition to Stewart is a disagreement over a contemplated merger of the Standard Oil of Indiana with Sinclair interests. Reports of a step in this direction have been current of late. It is said that if Rockefeller wins in the battle of proxies that he would undoubtedly act to prevent such a combination.

Letters signed by Thomas M. Debevoise, one of Mr. Rockefeller's associates, were sent to stockholders who had inquired concerning the effect of the Stewart-Rockefeller fight upon future activities of the Standard of Indiana.

Chance to Show Public.

"We think of this contest as an opportunity for the stockholders of the Indiana company to clean house and to show the public that the owners of one big business will not countenance in their representatives such a course of conduct as that followed by Col. Stewart in the Continental Trading company transaction and in his appearances before the senate committee," said one significant paragraph in the letters.

With this announcement that the fight being waged by the younger Mr. Rockefeller is purely a personal one against Col. Stewart, it was also revealed that the Rockefeller interests have not yet obtained sufficient proxies to control the meeting of stockholders on March 7.

It is assumed that 90 per cent of the company's 58,000 stockholders will be represented at the meeting. Since not more than 70 per cent have been represented at previous meetings, it is believed that 45 per cent of the stock will control the March voting.

From Debevoise's Letters.

Following is another excerpt from the Debevoise letters:

"You ask whether, if Col. Stewart is defeated, Mr. Rockefeller will favor any change in the past liberal policy of the management of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana in connection with dividends, cash and stock.

"The only possible answer that can be given to this question is that Mr. Rockefeller will expect the new management to consider primarily the best interests of the stockholders and that as far as dividends, cash and stock are concerned, Mr. Rockefeller has not raised any objection to the and we see no reason why that policy should not be continued in the future."

DR. BUNDESEN WILL ADDRESS BUYERS OF CHILDREN'S WEAR

Dr. Herman Bundesen is to be the principal speaker at a meeting of infants' and children's wear buyers to be held at the Palmer house Feb. 4. The meeting is being held in connection with the convention of the Interstate Merchants council and is sponsored by the Chicago Infants' and Children's Wear association and the domestic and foreign commerce committee of the Association of Commerce.

Dr. Bundesen will speak on the relation of clothing to children's health. Some four hundred and fifty buyers are expected to attend the meeting, which is regarded as an important step toward making Chicago a recognized center of infants' and children's wear.

One of the things planned for the meeting is a round table conference participated in by merchants and buyers with the purpose of discussing ways of helping the Chicago market. Sol H. Shoniger, president of the infants' wear association, will be one of the speakers.

"PAY AS YOU FLY," IS PLAN OF NEW FINANCE CORP.

CHICAGO HAS 11 OUT OF 100 LARGEST BANKS

Chicago has eleven of the hundred largest banks in the United States, according to a compilation made public by the American Bankers yesterday. These hundred banks at the end of 1928 had aggregated deposits of $20,653,618,100 and capital of $1,066,080,133.

The ranking of the Chicago banks is given as follows: Continental National Bank and Trust, eighth; Illinois Merchants' Trust, thirteenth; First National, nineteenth; National Bank of the Republic, forty-eighth; First Trust and Savings, fifty-fourth; Central Trust of Illinois, fifty-fifth; Foreman National, fifty-eighth; Union Trust, sixty-third; Harris Trust and Savings, sixty-eighth; Northern Trust, eighty-second, and State Bank of Chicago, ninety-eighth.

The rankings of several Chicago banks, however, will be changed when impending mergers become effective. The Continental National-Illinois Merchants consolidation will place it in third position, while the First National-Union Trust and the Central Trust-Bank of America mergers will bring those institutions considerably higher.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 22.—With a group of standard issues popularly supposed to be sponsored by powerful banking interests setting the pace, the stock market resumed its advance in rather spectacular fashion today. Trading was furious, transactions totaling over 5,100,000 shares and price upturns in many instances sensational. One of the dizziest performers of the list, Du Pont, rose 45 points, making a total of 75 in two successive days. Five or six others jumped anywhere from 9 to more than 20 points.

United States Steel resumed its climb in aggressive style, going to a further high above 190 and closing with a net gain of 4⅝ points to its credit. Johns-Manville, another favorite with influential interests of the street, soared to the highest price in its history, 225, a gain of 21 points for the session. Public Service of New Jersey, still another "big league" issue, enlisted in the demonstration, pushed to a new peak, while seasoned dividend stocks like American Can, Union Carbide, and Borden company performed impressively.

Jumps 17 Points.

Peoples Gas, with a good earnings statement to stimulate interest, went ahead for 17 points. At the close the stock was selling at 240, a new all time high.

There were a lot of other conspicuous favorites in the procession—General Motors advancing more than 4 points, Western Union up 4⅛, Chile Copper up 2⅝, Commercial Investment up 6⅛, International Nickel up 4⅝, Goodyear Tire up 3¼, and many others.

Copper, steel and public utilities stocks featured the group movements. The Anaconda circle of coppers set a fast pace in the early trading and when they began to tire after news of the higher dividends came out, Steel

CHICAGO STOCKS SHOW FEAR OF BROKERS' LOANS

Lower in Expectation of Boost in Total.

BY GEORGE HAMMOND.

The bogey man cast his shadow over the Chicago stock exchange yesterday for about the tenth consecutive Tuesday and made the usual threat of an increase in brokers' loans when the report for the week ending tonight is issued tomorrow. The trend of the entire list was lower with few exceptions.

Renewed profit taking in the Insull Utility Investments issues held considerable interest. The debentures dropped 20 points, the preferred stock was off 3¼ and the common declined 1½. Gleaner Combine Harvester lost 3½ and North American Car receded 3 points.

Extra Dividends.

Poor & Co. sold off a major fraction although the directors were expected to issue a favorable statement concerning earnings during the day. The directors declared extra dividends of 50c a share on both the class "A" and "B" stocks in addition to the regular quarterly payments of 37½c on each.

It was also announced that for the calendar year of 1928 net earnings were equal to more than $3.50 a share on the class "B" common which is listed on the exchange. Net for the same period of 1927 was $2.17 a share.

Poor & Co. was incorporated last April and with its subsidiaries are engaged in the manufacture of railway supplies used in construction work and track maintenance chief of which are rail anti-creepers, rail laying machines, automatic rail oilers, switch point protectors, and car stops. Its subsidiaries are he P. & M. Co., Chicago, the P. & M. Co. of Montreal, the Vermilion Malleable Iron company of Hoopeston, Ill., Canton Forge and Axle company, Canton, O., and the Maintenance Equipment company, Chicago.

Wisconsin Parts was fractionally lower on light trading. Stockholders of the company approved the sale of the company to the Timken Detroit Axle company at a meeting in Oshkosh, Wis. The purchase agreement provides for the issuance of two and one-quarter shares of Timken stock for each share of Wisconsin Parts held.

Is Radio Feature.

Ceco was a feature of the radio group with a 6½ point jump in early dealings on reports that earnings for nine months ended Dec. 31 will total around $332,000 or $5.50 a share. December earnings are understood to be around $1.44 a share. The stock closed with a net gain of 4 points. U. S. Radio shot up 8 points but lost all but 3 of the advance. Zenith and Atlas Stores were fractionally higher. Atlas Stores is expected to issue its detailed earnings statement for 1928 in a few days. Sonatron Tube eased a fraction. The company's December earnings are understood to be around 77 cents a share.

American Service was unchanged. The company will offer $3,000,000 of five year 6½ per cent convertible debentures through A. B. Leach & Co. tomorrow at 99½ and interest to yield about 6.6 per cent. Each $1,000 debenture is convertible at any time into eight shares of preferred and 20 shares of common. The company announced the purchase of the Shreveport Ice and Brewing company and the Angelo Ice company.

RISK COMPANIES, BANKS BUY BONDS AS PUBLIC SELLS

(New York bond list page 19.)

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 22.—Railroad convertibles held first place in buying interest in the bond market today. Wide advances were achieved by a number of selected issues.

Government securities developed a reactionary trend following their show of strength in Monday's session. Activity in standard investment issues as a whole slackened to some extent.

There is more buying of bonds "off the board" at present than on it, with the life insurance companies recently taking large amounts of high grade rails and public utilities as well as tax exempt securities. Since the middle of January the savings banks have also been good buyers, although there is a new phase of the competition with bonds in the form of bankers' acceptances, which, at 5 per cent, give the savings banks a better return than they can get on the securities they are permitted to purchase.

This absorption keeps high grade issues steady in spite of the slow stream of liquidation that is all the time coming from national banks and trust companies and from private investors who insist on substituting stocks for bonds. The temporary ease in money rates, with call loans again today at 6 per cent, has had little effect on the demand, which is governed mainly by the rates for long term paper, still holding up at 7¾ per cent.

Quality Merchandise

THERE is a natural and entirely legitimate difference in the general policy of different business institutions with respect to the quality of merchandise which they offer.

Some great business successes have been built on the basis of quantity distribution; while others, equally successful, have stressed the quality of their merchandise, emphasizing a class appeal rather than a mass appeal.

It has been the deliberate purpose and policy of Lawrence Stern and Company, in the investment securities field, to become known as an institution dealing only in the highest quality of invesments. In order to maintain such a standard, it has been necessary for this company to restrict its offerings and to forego a very considerable volume of business which could have been handled with profit to ourselves but which might have involved a sacrifice of the quality which we are committed to maintain.

Our experience has demonstrated that this policy of offering only the highest quality of investment securities appeals to the well-informed and intelligent investor.

We have available at this time a very attractive list of diversified investments which we believe can accurately be described as quality merchandise. We shall be very glad to submit this list to interested investors.

What Policy Should Be Behind Your Investments?

Income return or enhancement in value are the only ways through which an investor profits through buying securities.

With prices at today's high levels, income in many cases is so low as to be discouraging. This places even greater emphasis on the necessity of selecting securities that will show a growth in value.

What Securities to Buy?

Investors should be particularly careful, with conditions as they exist today, to avoid disastrous speculation, and to place funds only in securities of well managed and growing corporations that have not already risen to the point where they are no longer attractive. It is the purpose of Brookmire Service to help individuals to do this.

The Current Brookmire Bulletin

(1) discusses the general position of the stock market—

(2) analyzes specific stocks—

(3) sets an investment ratio, designed to combine safety and return to best advantage.

The hog market staged a remarkable "comeback" yesterday, recovering all of the decline recorded since last Friday. Top and general average prices at $9.40 and $9.20 respectively equaled the highest point since Nov. 10.

Dwindling supplies at leading outside points, coupled with brisk eastern demand, brought local buyers on the market early in the forenoon with orders to buy for numbers at the full upturn in an effort to satisfy the urgent demand. Available supplies cleared quickly, most of the 5,000 left being held off of the market.

Gains of 20@30c were general in midsession, the Armour and Swift houses obtaining only small droves at $9.25@$9.27, comparable to droves costing $8.98@9.00 Monday. Shipments from Chicago Monday and Tuesday totaled 39,900, compared to 34,613 a week ago, 29,666 a year ago and 26,202 two years ago, indicating the expanding outlet for pork at prevailing prices.

There was a letup in supplies of cattle yesterday and further sharp losses were blocked, although movement was as slow as any time of the season, with a big share of receipts still in first hands at the close. Butcher stock declined 15@25c more. Calves broke 50c again. Stockers and feeders were slow sellers at weak to unevenly lower prices. Top 1,475 lb steers brought $14.50, with 1,452 lb averages at $14.10. Thousands of steers of fair quality are selling at $11.50 and below, some plain 1,300 lb averages at $10.50.

Sheep Receipts Dwindle.

Sheep receipts dropped off abruptly again yesterday, the supply at 13,000 comparing with 17,219 a year ago and with 21,239 two years ago. Receipts this month are running below normal for January, arrivals so far at 228,800 showing a decrease of 8,300 compared with a year ago, when offerings were second smallest for January since 1920. Prices held firm, and in many instances were considered 10c@15c higher toward the close. Numerous loads went to packers and shippers at $17.25, with bulk of the supply at $15.50@17.00. Yearling wethers sold upwards to $15.00. Feeder and shearing lambs were firm.

FEDERAL WATER SERVICE CORPORATION

Class "A" Common Stock

Listed on the New York Curb

Federal Water Service Corporation is the largest Public Utility of its kind in the United States.

It is anticipated that the Corporation's constantly increasing earnings will show a marked upward turn within the next few months due to a rate increase granted to its largest subsidiary.

Dividends can be taken in stock at the rate of 8% or in cash at $2.00 per share annually. It is expected that an extra dividend will be declared this year.

Increasing earnings, 8% return and the prospect of larger dividends should bring substantially higher levels for the Class "A" Stock.

The prospects of Miller and Hart, Inc., can be judged from the following:

Plant and equipment are of the most modern construction and planned to take care of future expansion.

The wide use of labor-saving devices makes for economical production of its products.

An increasing demand each year for meats such as hams and bacons, in which this company specializes.

Executive officers have served for periods ranging from 8 to 35 years. Their experience is one of the strongest assurances for the future growth and expansion of business.

BIG LEAGUERS SET BRISK PACE ON WALL STREET

The street continues to hear that something wonderful is going to happen at the forthcoming directors' meeting of this corporation and this expectancy continues to find expression in a heavy demand for the shares. True, the price fell off yesterday, but the trading elements say this was only a breathing spell and some predictions as to the ultimate price peak of the old time leader are heard. Approximately half a million shares of the stock changed hands in today's frenzied buying.

In the motors division, Studebaker, Nash and Chrysler were in a buoyant mood and divided interest with the group leader, General Motors. Studebaker with its steady upthrust is getting to be something of a sensation in the street. Evidence that a strong pool is at work in this stock was pronounced today. The closing sale was at 94½, an additional gain of more than 2 points for the day.

Was in Evidence.

Quiet accumulation of rails was in evidence during the session. Southern Pacific at 134 was higher than at any time since 1910. This is one of those companies which could increase its dividend, according to information bandied about the cloakrooms but nothing has been done. The street hears that the directors may do something in a dividend way at their next meeting about the middle of February.

Chicago Great Western issues were in good demand among the lower priced railroad stocks, and New Haven was fractionally higher.

The oils were generally neglected. Difficulty in controlling production does not make these issues so attractive as they were a while back, in the opinion of many.

Otis Elevator Falls.

Renewed strength in Montgomery Ward after a period of rather protracted dullness attracted fresh speculative interest to that stock.

A scattering of issues which have been prominent in speculation of late suffered substantial losses today. One of them was Otis Elevator, which fell off 10 points. Case Threshing Machine, another, lost nearly eight points.

Credit conditions eased up considerably today, funds being in ample supply all day at a call rate of 6 per cent. Gold imports and favorable news on a number of industrial companies which figure prominently in the speculative community's calculations helped to inspire buying enthusiasm.

DAMAGE FEARS ARE FACTOR IN RISE OF WHEAT

Oats and Rye Show Gains; Corn Is Lower.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Fears of heavy damage to the new winter crop, as the result of a forecast for temperatures as low as 15 below over part of the belt following rain and sleet storms, added to intimations from the east that developments at Washington regarding farm relief legislation would be encouraging to speculation in grain, advanced all deliveries of wheat yesterday to a new high on the crop. May sold up 3½c from an early dip to a top of $1.28⅝, compared with a low of $1.15¾ on Jan. 5.

Houses with eastern connections were aggressive buyers and there was also buying credited to short covering for a leading local professional. The close was about the top with net gains of 2½@2⅝c, with March $1.25¼, May $1.28⅝ to $1.28½, and July $1.30⅝ to $1.30½.

Selling of corn against purchases of wheat, credited to a large professional trader, and profit taking caused a recession in the former grain, with general selling at the start on reports of rain in parts of Argentina where drought and hot weather have prevailed of late. Strength in wheat brought about a rally of 1⅝c from the inside figure, but the close was ¼@½c lower, with March 98¼c to 98⅝c and May $1.01⅛ to $1.01¼.

July oats sold at a new high on the crop, 50½c, and closed ⅝c higher at 50⅝c, with other deliveries ½c higher, March being 53⅛c and May 53½c. Trade in rye was larger and the close ⅞@1⅜c higher, with March $1.08 and May $1.10⅛.

Export Demand Slow.

A large short interest had been built up in wheat as the result of what the trade construed as a decidedly bearish statistical position, and while there has been relatively little change as far as the world's statistical position is concerned, a leading foreign authority expressed the belief that there was an unusually large consumption and imports would continue on a big scale, with intimations that estimates as to the world's needs would have to be increased. Foreigners were buyers of futures here early, but failed to show much interest in cash grain, with sales estimated at 200,000 to 300,000 bu in all positions.

Selling of wheat during the day was largely in the way of profit taking, and from holders of offers. Liverpool futures close ⅝d lower. Rains were reported in parts of Australia, which will be favorable for plowing. Crop comments from Europe were generally favorable, except from Spain, where drought prevails. Buenos Aires May closed unchanged at $1.17¼. Winnipeg was 2@2¼c higher.

Cash Corn in Demand.

Shipping demand for cash corn was the best since last October, with shipping sales of 341,000 bu reported for the day, with the local spot basis steady to 1c higher. Country offerings to arrive were small. Outside trade in corn was somewhat smaller as the result of the pronounced activity in wheat, and locals were inclined to the selling side, while the early break was checked by buying against bids.

Scattered rains occurred in parts of the province of Buenos Aires and the Pampas, but later cables said it was dry elsewhere. Buenos Aires May corn closed ⅛c lower at 90⅝c, and Rosaria was ⅛c lower at 88¼c. Broomhall claimed that unless general rains came there would be a partial crop failure, which would be a serious proposition as far as European importing countries were concerned. The Pacific coast was said to have been a good buyer at interior points in the west at better than a Missouri river market parity.

Trade in oats was larger, with persistent commission house buying and short covering, while longs were the best sellers. Commission houses took rye freely, strength at Winnipeg and in wheat helping along the advance.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw market firmer today as result of increased buying by operators, which may have been promoted by expectations of an upward revision in the duty on imported foreign sugars. Prices were 1-32c higher with sales of 275,000 bags of Cuban for February shipment and 28,000 bags of Philippines early February arrival, all at 3.83c delivered. Raw futures were irregular. The close was from 2 points higher to 5 net lower. The market opened 1 point higher to 1 point lower and after some hesitation prices on near positions gradually hardened on buying by houses with trade connections. Approximate sales, 74,950 tons, including considerable exchanging from the near to the more distant positions. Prices for the day follow:

ILLINOIS OATS.

The 1917 crop of oats, totaling 239,200,000 bushels, was the most valuable and largest ever produced in Illinois.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

A large reduction in the short interest in wheat and corn resulted from covering by two large local operators, one of whom had spreads between the two grains. With this taken into consideration there was a disposition on the part of most operators to go slow on the selling side owing to predictions of a cold wave to follow rains over a good part of the winter wheat country.

A great deal of talk regarding political action by the new presidential administration is said to be the basis for buying of wheat and corn by eastern interests which also affects the shorts and tends to check selling. It is the impression that favorable action will be taken on any farm relief bill presented by Mr. Hoover and all news regarding any move is being closely watched for.

Failure of the wheat to respond to the bearish statistical situation is given as one of the reasons for buying on breaks. With temperatures below zero over the greater part of Nebraska following rains, there is apprehension as to damage to the winter wheat and pressure from shorts is mainly confined to local interests.

A trader calls attention to the fact that Liverpool wheat prices are down to the lowest premium of the season compared with Chicago, while pool operations in Winnipeg are responsible for the draggy tendency of that market. Mills have been heavy buyers of wheat in that market for several days.

HOG NEWS BULLISH

With hog news bullish and prices 10c to 15c higher under a brisk demand, and with offerings from hedgers smaller and commission house buying better, lard prices advanced and closed at net gains of 15c to 17½c, near deliveries leading. Reports from Europe said hog supplies in a few countries had been reduced owning to high prices for feed. The number of hogs in Germany is given as 2,800,000 less than in 1927 and prices were equivalent to 19½c, against 9.13c a year ago.

Hog receipts at western packing points were smaller than a week and a year ago. Prices follow:

PLAN 8 STORY HOTEL OPPOSITE HARMON STADIUM

Warren and Wood Corner Is Purchased.

BY AL CHASE.

Construction of an eight story commercial hotel with a three story garage building adjoining it is being considered for the northwest corner of Warren avenue and North Wood street, it was learned yesterday when Patrick T. Harmon and Sidney N. Strotz purchased the property from the estate of Charles T. Luckow. According to Naumann & Steuer, brokers, the president and secretary of the Chicago Stadium corporation bought this corner for $81,000.

The property fronts 270 feet on Warren avenue and 125 feet on Wood street. It is directly across from the big stadium now under construction. Although no architect has been engaged and not even preliminary plans drawn, it is understood the new owners are seriously considering erecting a hotel on the corner, with a 150 car ramp garage on the 125x125 adjoining on the west.

Wreckers to Get Busy.

Color is given to this report of a new hotel by the statement of the brokers that the old improvements on the corner are to be wrecked as soon as possible. It is pointed out that at present there are no tall, modern commercial hotels in the immediate vicinity of the new stadium.

Edgar Crilly has sold his eight room residence at the southeast corner of Oakley and Euclid avenues, Hubbard Woods, to S. C. Pirie of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., for a reported $38,500. The lot is 80x140. The house was designed by Ralph W. Varney. Mr. Pirie bought the residence as a gift to his son, John T. Pirie II.

Milwaukee Avenue Leases.

Negotiation of a $610,000 loan by the Central Trust company of Illinois on the two story business building now going up at 2760 Milwaukee avenue, disclosed yesterday that several important leases have been negotiated. Albert Hoefeld, loop and outlying haberdasher, has rented a store, 30x125, for twenty-five years. Maling Bros. also have leased space for fifteen years. A lease to the McCrory stores was announced last September. The second story has been rented to a women's apparel concern.

Nathan Feldman has purchased the premises at 8802-04 Commercial avenue, in the South Chicago shopping district, from Henrietta Kurrie and Mable Robertson, sisters, for a reported $41,500. He will remodel the premises immediately into a department store which he will operate himself. Nathan Harrison was attorney for Mr. Feldman.

DRY GOODS.

Williams Oil-O-Matic Heating.

L. W. D., Springfield, Ill.—With the addition to its line of the Dist-o-Matic, a new small oil burner, and Ice-o-Matic refrigerating machines, the Williams Oil-o-Matic Heating corporation was able to show a good improvement in both net sales and net earnings for the year ended Oct. 31, 1928, over the year before.

Net income of $450,057, or $1.15 a share on the 390,000 shares of no par common stock, compares with a deficit of $51,327 for the preceding year.

Surplus stood at $674,705 at the end of the latest fiscal year, as compared with $222,779 at the close of the year before.

Current assets amounted to $1,853,177 and current liabilities to $224,642 as of Oct. 31, 1928.

This left net working capital of $1,628,535, which compares with $1,181,669 on Oct. 31, 1927, when current assets were $1,232,904 and current liabilities $51,235.

No dividends have been paid on the stock since a quarterly payment of 37½c a share on May 16, 1927.

The stock is a speculation at present.

Increased production of Ice-o-Matic refrigerating machines has resulted in substantial enlargement of the sales force and is giving the corporation a longer profit period per year than ever before, according to President Williams.

Barnsdall Warrants' Life Short.

R. W.—Through the call for retirement Feb. 15, 1929, of Barnsdall corporation debenture 6s of 1940, the stock purchase warrants given with them become void if not exercised on or before Jan. 31.

Turning in these bonds with the warrants means accepting a considerable loss as compared with recent prices for the bonds with warrants.

On debentures which are presented for payment accompanied by two stock purchase warrents, the redemption price will be 106 and interest; on those presented with one of the two warrants the price will be 103 and interest, and on those without any warrants the price will be par and interest.

AWAIT GINNING RETURNS

Cotton traders were not disposed to extend commitments being uncertain as to the showing to be made by the census ginning report due today. The impression is, that it will be close to 13,700,000 bales, and will compare with 12,501,000 bales last year. In view of this there was evening up of trades with a rather bullish sentiment, and a disposition to buy on breaks.

Garside estimates that the supply of cotton at the end of the season will be 1,700,000 to 2,000,000 bales, on an average against, around 2,862,000 bales last year. Reports as to the goods trade were quiet and not the kind to attract new buying. Prices follow:

THE BUFFER

By ALICE HEGAN RICE

SYNOPSIS.

Hickory Hill has been the homestead of the Freers for generations. Cynthia Freer, chained to it by family obligations and a promise to her mother never to leave her, chafes at her bonds and longs to be free of the place and all it entails.

Dolly Freer, Cynthia's mother, meets the new assistant rector of St. Timothy's church in town and invites him to Hickory Hill to meet her family. Aunt Lizzy Freer, Dolly's sister-in-law, has been an invalid for twenty-five years, but she runs the family and its finances from her bed.

Barney, Dolly's eldest son, is delighted at Claire's arrival and the cousins spend a great deal of time together. Barney is a wild youth, but the most popular of the Freer clan.

Mr. Benson is invited to stay with the Herbert Freers in town for a few weeks. They invite a number of their friends in to tea to meet their guest.

INSTALLMENT XXI.

A DELICIOUS INSECURITY.

As Curtis and Dorothy stood for a moment alone in the alcove looking over the music, she took a small yellow rose from the copper bowl on the piano and slipped it into his buttonhole. It was a gracious little act of homage, followed by an engaging pat as she adjusted the lapel of his coat.

"You were ours first," she whispered, with a little nod of triumph.

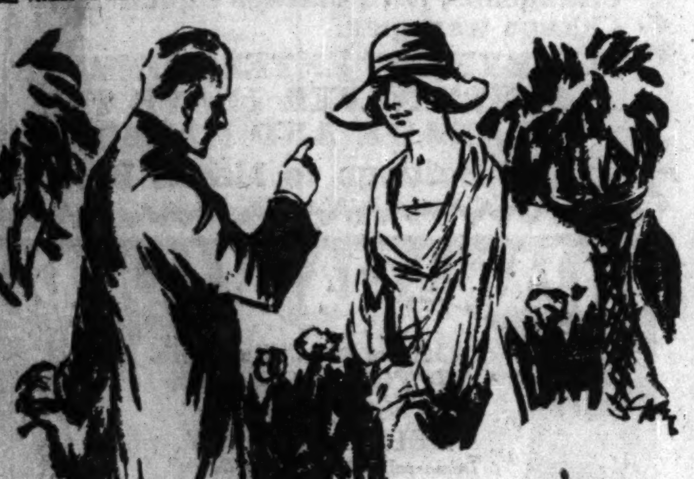
"I am yours still," he replied softly, his lips almost touching her soft hair. Then, frightened at the warmth of his tone and at the color that surged into her face, he turned quickly to the music.

He was in no hurry to bring things to a crisis. Dorothy Freer was his ideal of what a woman should be, and in all probability he was going some day to ask her to marry him. But the pastime of wading in the shallows of love was very different from the stern business of swimming out beyond one's depth.

As she turned the sheets of music, Mrs. Herbert bustled up importantly: "I know what I want you to sing," she said. "It is a lovely old English song and will suit your voice to perfection."

Curtis found that he had sung it before but he had forgotten the words. He hummed through the score to make sure it was within his range, then he handed it to Dorothy, who thought she would have no difficulty with the accompaniment.

Stepping forward, he cleared his throat, gave the signal to Dorothy, and as a hush fell on the company began to sing. Even he was surprised at the rich volume of his voice; never before had he sung so well. He could feel the vibrations sweep from him to his audience, the rapt look in all those faces, old and young, dark and fair. And above all he could feel the perfect sympathy and ardent admiration of his fair accompanist.



"Why did you laugh while I was singing?"

"'Would to God,'" he sang with fervent abandon, "'I were the tender apple blossom.'"

As Curtis was descending to earth with the concluding note, his eyes came to rest on one averted face. It was a slender, quizzical face, with long, narrow eyes, and lips that were unmistakably trying to control a smile. Instantly he was on his guard. His feet touched the floor, his hands dropped to his sides, and he managed to finish his operatic performance with a modicum of restraint.

Five minutes later he escaped from the admiring throng that closed about him, and went in search of Cynthia Freer. He was piqued and fretted that she treated him as she did. Something must have happened to change her attitude so completely. He was determined to find out what it was.

She was not in the parlor or the library, and he had almost come to the conclusion that she had gone home, when he spied her in the sun porch, half hidden by a large fern, talking to Claire Kelsey. The two girls presented a sharp contrast. Claire in brilliant crimson and Cynthia in demure gray. They were evidently absorbed in their conversation, and to judge from Claire's perturbed face and lively gestures she was in the midst of a dramatic recital. At sight of Curtis, however, she instantly assumed the gay, conscious manner with which she always acknowledged a masculine presence.

"Do join us, Mr. Benson! It's much cooler out here," she urged. "Come, sit here. Don't go, Cynthia!"

"I think I will go in and have a cup of tea," said Cynthia.

"Let me bring some out to you both," insisted Claire. "You must be famished, Mr. Benson! How do you like your tea? Cream? Sugar? Or just a whiff of brandy?"

"Alas! Not a whiff," said Curtis, ruefully. How he hated prohibition! Turning to Cynthia, he added: "Can't we sit down and chat for a moment?"

There was a perceptible pause before Cynthia decided to accept his invitation. As she did so she gave him a sidelong glance: "Aren't you getting too far out of the spotlight?" she asked.

"I prefer the sunlight," he replied, gallantly. Then he lifted an accusing finger and shook it at her without speaking. It was an old trick of his which he usually found effective. An underlip caught between his teeth, a reproachful eye, and that accusing finger suggested knowledge of some secret naughtiness, and instantly piqued curiosity. Usually it was nothing more than a signal for the feminine train of thought to stop at his station, but today he really had a grievance.

"Well," said Cynthia, "what is it?"

"Why did you laugh while I was singing?"

"Did I?" she asked demurely. "I am sorry. Perhaps I was visualizing you as an apple blossom!"

"Ah! It is a silly song," he agreed, relieved that it was the song and not himself at which she laughed. Then he rose to accept his tea from Claire. "Won't you sit down?" he asked politely, hoping very much that she would not.

Claire stood before them, poised like a bright red bird for flight. Her eyes were restless and she seemed curiously perturbed. She took out a cigaret, and found she had no match. "May I?" she asked, lifting her lips with the cigaret between them to his.

Curtis bent his head and their faces came close together as their cigarets touched. He did not fancy young Mrs. Kelsey, thought she was insolent, audacious, unwomanly.

"Have you seen Barney today?" she asked him when she had got her light.

"Only for a moment in a drug store. He was getting some throat lozenges and said he had taken cold and was feeling pretty badly. I begged him to go over to the hotel with me, but he said he had to see a man out in the country, and would come here later."

"He promised to meet me here at four," Claire pouted. "If he doesn't turn up soon he is going to hear from me!"

"O, he is probably held up by the rain," said Cynthia. "He never carries an umbrella, yet he knows that if he gets wet he catches cold."

She rose as she spoke, saying she ought to be moving about speaking to some of the other guests, but a maid came up to say Mrs. Kelsey was wanted on the phone, and Cynthia had to sit down again until Curtis finished his tea.

"And now," said Curtis, settling himself with a sigh of contentment on the couch by Cynthia, "I want to hear all about everything. What have you been doing? Why haven't I seen anything of you of late?"

"You have been too busy being lionized," said Cynthia, not looking at him.

"Hardly that," protested Curtis, "though as a matter of fact they have kept me rather busy. You should see my mail! I haven't had a free evening for three weeks, and I am actually booked up until after Thanksgiving. If this continues I am afraid I shall be spoiled."

Cynthia sipped her tea, and her eyes twinkled at him over the rim of her cup. It was queer what a different effect she and her mother had upon him! In Dorothy's presence his ego became slightly and agreeably inflated and soared pleasantly over the average run of men. With Cynthia his ego no more showed its presence than it was pricked by a word, a glance, a twitching lip. Dorothy made him feel like a superman. Cynthia at times made him feel like a boy.

That night on the island, for instance, he had actually, for the time being at least, recaptured his lost youth. Not in years had he sat in a boat on a moonlight night and sung love songs to a pretty girl. Not in years had he met any one who so stirred the placid depths of his being, and who left him with such a delicious but disturbing sense of insecurity.

Good Morning!

This excellent [if lengthy] picture from the story by Dr. Selma Lagerlof was shown at Orchestra Hall last Friday evening and will be shown again tonight. It is presented under the auspices of the Swedish Cultural society. It deserves comment because of the thought and intelligence that have gone into its making. Long as it is, it rarely permits the interest to flag, and that, I think, is saying something.

The tale of the Ingmars and what happens to them starts in the early eighties and takes you from Scandinavia to Jerusalem. It is full of engrossing incident, forcibly presented and well photographed.

If you have a chance see "In Dalarna and Jerusalem." You won't be sorry.

Heart Stamps Bring $100 Cermak Check; Interest Praised

Ten thousand stamps brought a check for $100 yesterday from Anton J. Cermak, president of the Cook county board, to the Chicago Heart association, which is financing its year's work through such sales.

"Cook county is the only county in the United States which sets aside places in its charity summer camps for heart disease sufferers and their families," declared Mrs. Gertrude Howe Britton, in receiving the check.

"The association has found resting places for cardiac patients at Camp Reinberg for seven successive summers through Mr. Cermak's interest.

"Last summer 400 beds were given to cardiac patients. The first year we had 90 beds for heart sufferers and the county board has increased our quota each year. We found in many cases that the mothers with heart disease could not leave their children, and in other cases a child with the affliction could not be happy without its mother, sister or brother. The experiment with the family teaches others than the sufferer the importance of rest."

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

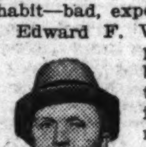
The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Merton L. Elson, 20 Sophia street, West Chicago, Ill., was awarded $5.

The Question.

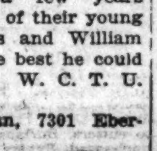
What do you think of the "breath sniffing" campaign of the W. C. T. U. at Nashville, Tenn.?

The Answers.

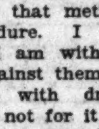
Mrs. Ethel Schneiderman, 1117 Karlov avenue, housewife—I think its all right, a good idea. Something like that should be started right here in Chicago, for the good of the young people. Yes, and it would be a good thing for the older people, too. Drinking is just a habit—bad, expensive.



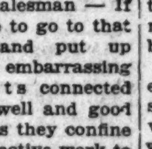
Edward F. White, 2240 West Superior street, automobile salesman—I don't think much of it. Coming from Tennessee, most anything may be expected. We have heard from Tennessee before—a few years ago one of their young men stirred up things and William Jennings Bryan did the best he could to make him famous. W. C. T. U. What next?



Mrs. Bertha Lehman, 7301 Eberhart avenue, housewife—One would hardly know what to say about that method of procedure. I cannot say I am with them or against them. The same with drinking I am not for it and I am not against it. I have three sons, and I never have it in the house.



Robert Burnham, 4818 Lexington street, salesman—If they care to go to that trouble and put up with the embarrassing moments connected with it, well and good so long as they confine their detective work to consumers of whisky and the strong drinks. No, as to light wines and beer.



Miss Claire Connelly, 3924 Pine Grove avenue, stenographer—I think they are nutty—something like that. Maybe it is the exception for people to do any drinking down there. They must be living a quiet and demure life, far, far away from civilization.

Rockefeller Jr. Plans New York Place de l'Opera

Leases Nearly 3 Blocks from Columbia U.

New York, Jan. 22.—[Special.]—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, announced today that Columbia has leased its so-called "upper estate," occupying practically all of the three blocks from 5th to 6th avenues and from 48th to 51st street, to John D. Rockefeller Jr., for a mammoth real estate development in which the proposed new Metropolitan Opera house is expected to be the nucleus.

In the absence of Mr. Rockefeller, who is abroad, Ivy Lee, his spokesman, said Mr. Rockefeller contemplated "a comprehensive real estate development in architectural harmony with the new opera house, assuming that it is built there." If the opera house is not included, Mr. Lee went on, a different plan would be worked out for "a real estate development of the highest character."

The scene would be something like that of the Place de l'Opera in Paris, with the opera house on one side of an ornamental park and fashionable shops on the other. An added touch would be a complete double-decker system of shops provided by a mezzanine or balcony which would run not only along the front of the building to the east of the plaza but also along the fronts of other buildings fronting on 49th street and 50th street and might run along the 5th avenue fronts also. Here one could shop or take tea while looking down into the avenue from a second story street set back from the sidewalk.

These mezzanines would be connected by viaducts across 49th and 50th streets. There might be two or four viaducts, but in either event two would connect with a system of mezzanines with an outdoor promenade on the front of the second story of the opera house.

The same tentative plan calls for automobile ramps under the opera house.

It was said on Mr. Rockefeller's behalf that his primary purpose in leasing the property was to conduct a sound and profitable enterprise. The annual rental for the eighty-seven years the lease will run, including optional renewals, is about $3,000,000, or a total of 261 million dollars' rent, and this is understood to be the largest business transaction that the younger Rockefeller has ever conceived and executed himself.

Whether the opera house is included in the property, it was learned tonight, depends upon negotiations pending between Mr. Rockefeller's agents and members of the Metropolitan Opera and Real Estate company, owners of the present opera site at Broadway and 40th street. R. Fulton Cutting, spokesman for the opera owners, refused comment. Otto H. Kahn, chairman of the new opera house committee, who was thwarted last year in a plan for another site, was sick in bed and could not be interviewed.

Aside from business reasons, it was explained by Mr. Rockefeller's associates, he was actuated by a desire to do something to add to the beauty of the city, especially in the midtown section, which has come to be regarded as the joint property of residents of all the greater city. The tentative plan now under discussion for the development of a group of buildings which may include hotels, apartments, and offices, with the opera house as a music center, calls for the development of the whole scheme around a beautiful plaza two hundred feet square.

THEATER

"DIAMOND LIL":

Play, in three acts, by Mae West (at the suggestion of Mark Linder): made known in Chicago (by the Chatham Square Productions) January 20, 1929, in the Apollo Theater, with this cast:

Diamond Lil	Mae West
Captain Cummings	Curtis Cooksey
Chick Clark	Herbert Duffy
Gus Jordan	J. Merrill Holmes
Pablo Juares	Jack La Rue
Dan Flynn	Ernest Anderson
Rita Christina	Raphaella Ottiano
Jim	Chuck Connors (jr.)
Spider Kane	Jack Cheatham
Sally	Beverly Osborne
Jacobson	Louis Nusbaum
Frances	Marion Day
Flo	Hélène Vincent
Mary Ryan	Thelma Lawrence
Kitty	Mary Martin

HERE, in "Diamond Lil," is one grand little play; and here, in Miss West, is one grand little actress. I might add that she is one grand little play-writer, too, but am deterred by the circumstances that Mr. Linder, to whom she gives credit for a suggestion, and numerous other unknowns have filed claims to the actual authorship of "Diamond Lil." My belief in the matter is not only that Miss West wrote it, but also that nobody else now living or whoever has lived could possibly have written it.

If you see her in it, you will agree with me; and I hope you see her in it! The reformers are, I understand, already seeking to monkey with a masterpiece, and are asking for deletions, qualifications, corrections, revisions, and modifications. For one thing, they don't care much for a scene wherein Mr. La Rue makes love to Miss West; and their objections are nutty, for the reasons (a) that there is no other way to make love to Miss West, and (b) that Mr. La Rue has nothing to do with it, being paid by Miss West to do as he is told.

The tale is of how Lil, having been translated from Chicago to New-York, disposes of Chick, Gus, Dan, Rita, and Pablo in the course of her campaign to obtain the affections of Captain Cummings, who is seemingly a high-minded leader in the Salvation Army, but is really the Hawk, the one detective in all Manhattan capable of striking terror among the evil-doers of the Bowery—the Bowery, that is, of the 'Eighties, Miss West explains, although she is not offensively scrupulous in the details of historical accuracy. She gets her prey, and cares none the less for him on learning that he is a cop in disguise.

Miss West sings; but there is no music in Mae. She dances; but you will forgive her, as I freely do. When you really like Miss West, you like her as an ensemble: that is, for her walk and her talk, for her style and her guile, and for the fact that she has added "Diamond Lil" to the available exhibitions of Chicago in 1929. She may, as has been written of her by reporters less gallant than I, be among the reasons why the stage in this fair land is what it is; but I've managed without disaster to sit three times through "Diamond Lil," and I am without apprehension that she will work any harm to the morale of Chicago.

Her actors—and the cast contains at least fifteen more than I have transcribed above—belong with her and in "Diamond Lil"; and I doubt that they could well be fitted into any other play or made to compose so good a background for any other star.

News-Notes of the Stage.

"Lizard Gap," a farce by Harry Lacy Hamilton, is bulletined for the Goodman Memorial Theater after "Six Characters in Search of an Author."

Louis Calhern and Miss Charlotte Granville are hired to assist Miss Francine Larrimore in Rachel Crothers' new piece, "Let Us Be Gay!"

"Journeys End" is hailed as a success in London, where it was produced Monday night. There is Chicago interest in it for the reason that it was written by Maurice Browne, who for a time conducted the Little Theater up in the Fine-Arts Building. He is co-author of "Wings Over Europe," which the Theater Guild has currently in New-York. The new play, like the first, contains no female character.

The Vanities, which has been running in New-York since August 6, is to be shut down next week, and not sent on tour. W. C. Fields is the principal performer in it.

Mr. Tyler submits for inspection a telegram to him from the manager of the Masonic Auditorium in Detroit to ask that he return his revival of "Macbeth" to that city as soon as possible. "All Detroit," says the telegram, "declares 'Macbeth' most marvelous performance ever given upon American stage. . . . It glorifies the Theater. We are drenched in its beauty. We must have return-engagement." F. D.

"Don Pasquale" Hands Laughs to Opera Goers

For Trevisan and Others Do Their Best.

BY EDWARD MOORE.

The final subscription night of the opera season—though not the final performance—was celebrated last night at the Auditorium by the performance of the final addition to the season's répertoire. It was Donizetti's comic opera, "Don Pasquale," the thirty-second work to be mounted since the Chicago Civic Opera company began operations twelve weeks ago.

"Don Pasquale" is one of the gayest of them all, and the better it is played the gayer it is. Here were some of the best comedians in the organization doing their rôles in the highest of high spirits and hampered only by the way the atmosphere of the piece was allowed to dissipate by intermissions that seemed due never to end.

It is submitted that any performance permitting intermissions of fifteen minutes between the scenes of an act, and longer between acts, puts itself against a severe handicap at once. The eminent cast taking part therefore had the task of reconquering their audience all over again each time, and unnecessarily so, because the synthetic and none too brilliant scenery employed could have been, and frequently has been, set in place much more promptly.

However, there was Vittorio Trevisan, star of stars as a buffo-comedian, in the name rôle, wise, learned in his art, technically and temperamentally an unequaled funmaker of opera, and never better than he was in this part. And Giacomo Rimini, the suave and peppery baritone, appeared as Dr. Malatesta, a person of infinite jest and resource in a part that called for resource, good manners, quickness, and guile—in other words, one of Mr. Rimini's finest and most polished characterizations. And Margherita Salvi, as Norina, displayed abilities not wholly unsuspected, but better than she has had a chance to make manifest this season. Here her grace, her mannerliness, her burnished but flexible voice, were all turned toward comedy of a high order, and she came through with high success.

Add to these Charles Hackett, who had the comparatively straight part of Ernesto, but who has been singing this season as he never sang before and was given some first rate melodies to illustrate the fact; also Lodovico Oliviero in a small bit as a comic notary; finally Roberto Moranzoni, who conducted as though he enjoyed every note of the score, and you have some of the assets of the performance. The chorus of servants in the second act, one of the score's high spots, was good, if not quite up to the height of expectations.

The Chicago Symphony orchestra concert at Orchestra hall yesterday afternoon was in good part the same as that of last Friday and Saturday. The difference lay in the fact that Eric DeLamarter conducted Tschaikowsky's Second Symphony. Then Ottorino Respighi appeared, and, as happened last week, played the piano part of his attractive Toccata and conducted his two other works, the greatly amusing "The Birds" and the sober and colorful "Church Windows." Once again he scored a success.

The opera bill for Saturday afternoon will be reversed from its announced form. That is, "Judith" will be the first part of the program and "Cavalleria Rusticana" the second.

Bishop James Cannon Wins Palestine Trip by Anti-Wet Crusade

New York, Jan. 22.—(AP)—A trip to the Holy Land is the prize awarded to Bishop James Cannon Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church south by the Christian Herald for the most significant contribution by an American citizen to religious progress in 1928. The bishop will sail on Feb. 14 on the Calgaric and prior to his sailing will be honored at a dinner here, it was announced today.

Stanley High, editor of the Christian Herald, was quoted in Columbus, O., yesterday, as saying the bishop was chosen because of "his long and distinguished Christian leadership and, in particular, because of his campaign in the south on behalf of prohibition before the last national election.

"The wets reviled him," said Mr. High, "and the wet press made him the brunt of its caricatures. But he never flinched and now, in victory, he asks no reward for himself."

Correct Nail Biting Habit Before It Ruins His Hands

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

Mrs. Bevans has prepared two booklets, one on "Prayers and Graces for Children" and another called "Books to be Read to the Children or by Them," which will be sent free on receipt of stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

She sat opposite me in the subway the other night—she and another girl. They were very attractive and everything they had on was the last word, the very, very last word in style for their age and station—hair curling up bonnily in back against the tight little felt hats, very much furred coats, very bright young lips, very gay novelty shoes, and very scallopy stitched gloves which lay in their laps, because they were candy hungry.

My attention was first caught by the realy pretty hands and long, brilliant red finger nails of one of them. As I watched, her hand came out of the bag of chocolates and the other girl's hand dippd in. What a contrast those two hands presented—one highly cared for, even if it made you thing of an accident with red paint, the other disfigured by bitten nails. Her gay clothes just couldn't compensate for that hand.

It seems as thought lately I keep running into people who have or have had the nail biting habit. Sometimes they're men, sometimes women, and quite as often they are people who grew up with every advantage as they are people who were neglected or poor as children.

Every mother or father who has a child that bites his nails should by some means break him of the habit. If it is checked the nails can become perfect in appearance. But if it is allowed to be done continuously for years the nails cannot be made to look normal.

Do save your children from this humiliation as they grow older! Hands are such wonderful, fascinating, subtle things—so full of individuality—that it is a great pity when one has to be ashamed of them.

Tribune Cook Book

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Onions and Garlic.

There are at least two ways of talking about food preferences, one positive to ecstatic, the other negative When people do not like onions they are likely to use strongly negative terms concerning them. In an ancient English book on dinners and dishes there is this statement: "Thus in English society there is a general dislike to onions and a positive detestation of garlic. No wonder, for the former are present to the mind in the form of huge fried bulbs and the latter in the cookery of Italian country inns."

The author goes on to tell how both onions and garlic will be liked in certain thick soups and with a soubise sauce, which we know is only another name for onion sauce to be served with mutton, etc. He says that if the onion and garlic were missing in certain dishes which he lists with their French names (in which they play so conspicuous a part), their banishment would insure a complete failure.

Then he adds: "These dislikes depend, like nearly everything in the world, on the way of putting things. And another reason for them is that they are often based on bad specimens of the viands themselves. Many people detest ducks and geese because they have only eaten the strong, full grown and ill conditioned birds often served up. The tender duckling with olives, or the green goose stuffed with truffles, or the ingenious salmi which carefully blends the wings of the one with the savory back of the other in one harmonious whole, would probably change their feelings of enmity into toleration, which might in time, with skillful handling, ripen into friendship."

There are two or three sermons in the above statements which almost anybody can work out from these texts if he has a mind to. But intolerance as regards foods is one of the most difficult prejudices to combat.

In a letter just received from H R. M., who certainly knows his onions, he says: "I have been talking with a number of people about onions and most of them surprise me by saying that they like an onion with some nip to it, that the Bermudas are too mild. When they eat an onion they want to know what they have been eating—and so will everybody else. That is, they seem to want the kind of onion that is as they say, 'An apple a day keeps the doctor away, and an onion a day keeps everybody away.'"

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

It snowed hard all day and daddy shoveled the walks three times, assisted by 4 year old Jimmy with his little shovel. A day or two later it snowed some more, and as daddy started forth Jimmy again made ready to help him.

"Gee," exclaimed the little fellow as he dragged on his goloshes, "all us mens do from mornin' to night is shobel, shobel, shobel!"

There were already two sisters for 8 year old Bobby to have to play with and so the announcement of the arrival of another baby girl, brought this doleful response. "Gee, another girl up to bat!" W. B. M.

It Is Unwise to Exaggerate the Importance of Dress

BY DORIS BLAKE.

There is a fine preoccupation with dress. And there is ugly preoccupation with it. Two cases recently came to our ears illustrating the ugly side.

Happily, publicity was spared the girl in the first case, who pilfered her employer's till to the extent of $900, every dollar of which was spent on dress and jewelry accessories. The story underneath was that the girl was madly in love with a man whose social connections were such that she thought she had to dress a more expensive part than she could afford to be seen about with him.

There was nothing certain about the man's interests in the girl, but clothes, she thought, would work a telling part in her hold on him. Which, incidentally, is one of the common fallacies.

The other is the case of a married woman to whom dress is as much of a vice as drink or gambling to certain men. It is enough that she see a dress or coat or hat to want it. And wanting it, nothing under heaven will persuade her she can live without it.

On her husband's salary it was impossible to meet all the bills. So there began a borrowing here and a borrowing there until every borrowing source was exhausted. Then, one day, there was a framed burglary scene. The intention was to collect insurance money to meet a fur coat bill. The truth came out, however, before the woman got her hands on the money. Her husband's contempt was only part of her sorrow.

The instinct for adornment, of course, is strong in every normal woman. And so long as she keeps from spending disproportionate sums—sums out of keeping with her budget—there is no criticism to be raised. It is the lopsided view that clothes are the all important thing in a woman's life that breeds trouble. Where men are concerned it may be put down as an axiom that dress extravagance is pure waste of time and money on a woman's part.

MOTION PICTURES MISCELLANEOUS

MARKS BROS.

LEADERSHIP

Marks Bros. won leadership in entertainment through incomparably superior shows; stage productions and talking pictures of unsurpassed quality. The history of modern motion picture entertainment began when they brought fresh ideas to the industry. A new era began in which they are pre-eminent.

"GRANADA AND MARBRO SHOWS ARE BETTER"

Everyone's neighbor has made that remark. It is common knowledge. To foster this sentiment Marks Bros. have engaged Broadway's greatest stars and Hollywood's finest talking pictures.

All Chicago KNOWS that talking pictures were presented at the Granada and Marbro years ahead of others. The public also was introduced to novelties in lavish stage productions that have never been excelled. That Marks Bros. are imitated is the penalty of leadership.

MARKS BROS.' LEADERSHIP IS CHICAGO LEADERSHIP

Loyal Chicagoans point with pride to the fact that a Chicago organization has outstripped eastern competition in artistic productions. New York sends representatives here to get ideas that reappear months later in traveling units. These are adapted to a score of communities and cannot compare with the gorgeous creations built especially for Chicagoans, with Chicago capital and by Chicago workmen.

Roller Skating Party at Naval Station Thrill for Society

BY THALIA

Commandant and Mrs. Thomas T. Craven of the Great Lakes Naval Training station apparently are instigating a renaissance of the gay social life that hasn't been so active at the station since before the war. This coming Saturday evening, they have invited about 150, including a number of the Lake Forest colony with whom they have become quite popular, for a roller skating and dancing party to take place in the armory at the station. The affair primarily is for the Cravens' daughter, Mrs. Rodman de Kay of New York City and Port Washington, Long Island, who has arrived this week for a month's visit.

Guests who have roller skates to which they are particularly attached may bring them, but those who don't possess them and would like to skate will be provided with same. The Great Lakes band is to play for the skating and the dancing. The Cravens plan this to be one of the first of a series of skating parties reviving the vogue of more than 10 years ago.

Another promising entertainment, although a smaller one, is a party Marcellus D. Redlich, Persian consul in Chicago, who has been much sought after by society during his stay here, is to give tomorrow evening. His guests are to gather at Mrs. Katherine Winterbotham Buchanan's apartment at 6 o'clock, and from thence will be transported for dinner to a new Persian restaurant away out on the south side somewhere, to learn something of the culinary tendencies of the country which their host represents.

And speaking of the local consular corps, we are given to understand that the newly arrived British consul-general, Godfrey Digby Napier Haggard, O. B. E., is being cordially welcomed here by society. He is staying at the Drake until he finds an apartment to his liking. Mrs. Haggard is to join him shortly. The British vice-consul, W. H. Gallienne and Mrs. Gallienne are to leave the first of February for Mr. Gallienne's new post as charge d'affaires on the island of Santo Domingo in the West Indies.

Mrs. Frank R. Wheeler, who is to leave soon to reside in Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Edmund S. Hoche gave a delightful luncheon and musical yesterday at the Drake hotel. Smilax and cybodium ferns adorned the balconies, and the platform whereon José Mojica of the opera company and Troy Sanders gave the program was embowered in palms. Centerpieces of spring flowers surrounded with lavendar, pale green and yellow candles decorated each of the sixteen tables. Mrs. Ulric Atkinson of New York City was to have been among the guests, but was prevented by illness from coming on for the affair.

Mrs. Everett Wyman is to be hostess today in behalf of the Lighthouse Volunteer Aids at the Lake Forest tea-room that is giving them part of its proceeds during their service. Miss Emily and Miss Marion Smith of Highland Park officiated yesterday, and Mrs. Frank Priebe is to be present tomorrow noon. Mrs. Stanley Morrill is to be on duty tomorrow night. No net profits have been reckoned yet, according to Miss Elizabeth Rumsey, who is one of the workers, but the venture seems to be doing well.

For this once, the Arts club tea this afternoon opening an exhibition of early Chinese arts, loaned by C. T. Loo of New York and Paris, will get along without hostesses to assist in receiving and pouring.

Charles Stuart of New York City and his sister, Miss Elizabeth Stuart of 999 Lake Shore drive are to sail on Saturday with a group of New York friends for some deep sea fishing in the West Indies. They plan to be gone about 6 or 7 weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Peabody Brush Jr. of 23 Bellevue place are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on Monday at the Michael Reese hospital. Mrs. Brush was Miss Katrina Van Dyke before her marriage, and is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Van Dyke of Princeton, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. L. Curtis of 230 Lake Shore drive took the Century yesterday for New York City, where they are to be at the Plaza until Saturday, when they sail on the S. S. Homeric for the Mediterranean cruise. They don't plan to return until April.

Mrs. Donald McPherson of Winnetka, who has been working for the Bill Bates benefit performance of "Macbeth," to be held next Monday at the Auditorium, left on Sunday for Southern Pines, N. C., for three weeks of riding and hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrow B. Fulton of 57 West Burton place are being congratulated upon the birth of a second daughter on Jan. 18 at St. Luke's hospital. Mrs. Fulton was Miss Anna Wrenn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gammie of Great Neck, Long Island, and New York City have sent word to Mrs. Gammie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Sims of 112 Bellevue place of the birth of a son, to be named John Gammie Jr., on Sunday at the Lenox Hill hospital in New York City. Mrs. Gammie was Miss Helen Sims before her marriage.

Mrs. Charles H. Chadwick of 209 Lake Shore drive has as her guest an interesting young interior decorationist [if there is such a thing], Jan Juta, whose parents Mrs. Chadwick knew in Capetown, Africa. He is being quite a popular visitor and is in much demand for dates. Mrs. Howard Linn gave a dinner party last evening and the Chadwicks have entertained at several semi-informal affairs. He is to stay until tomorrow.

At the annual meeting of the Vocational Society for Shut-ins held on Monday afternoon at the Tavern club Mrs. Laird Bell was elected to take on the duties of president for the coming year. The other officers include Mrs. Hiram C. Murphy and Mrs. Augustus J. White, first and second vice presidents; Mrs. Anna B. Marx, treasurer; Mrs. Earl J. Zimmerman, recording secretary, and Mrs. Walter A. Strong, corresponding secretary.

Plans for Recital

MRS. WALTER HELLER.
[Kellogg Photo.]

Mrs. Walter Heller, president of the Jewish People's institute, is in charge of arrangements for a recital to be given by Rosa Raisa next Sunday evening at the Auditorium for the benefit of the Rosa Raisa scholarship fund. Boxes and main floor seats for the event have been disposed of, but tickets are still available for 500 extra seats on the stage and for the balconies and galleries.

After ten years in the president's chair of the Visiting Nurse Association of Chicago Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy yesterday turned over the gavel to her successor, Miss Margaret B. Conover, and with it a report of the busiest year of charity work in the thirty-nine years of the association's existence.

The annual meeting, held at the Blackstone hotel, was attended by 175 members and 134 graduate and student nurses in blue and white uniform. When Mrs. Cudahy relinquished her chair following the annual reports she was presented with a gold key to the association's headquarters at 104 South Michigan avenue by Mrs. Charles Garfield King, in behalf of the board of directors, as an appreciation of her decade of service.

"Due to the growth of population in Chicago, 1928 was the busiest year our charity ever has experienced," Mrs. Cudahy declared in her report. "Our staff of nurses made over 1,000 visits each working day to homes dependent on our nursing care. Our patients numbered 47,721 and our calls 327,123, or 6,687 more patients and 39,342 more calls than in 1927."

Additions to the endowment announced by Mrs. Cudahy are $10,000 each from the estates of John A. Spoor and Mrs. Walter Peck; $10,091 from the estate of Lucretia Tilton; $30,000 from Mrs. Charles B. Goodspeed to endow the Charles Gordon Fuller memorial nurse, and $2,000 from Miss Anna P. Williams. The total endowment for the year is $1,676,699.95, which produced an income of $95,388.78, or one-fourth the total expenditures of the association. The association has 19 nurses that are provided by specific endowments bearing the names of the donors of funds or persons for whom such funds are memorials.

How the Visiting Nurse association grew from the work of the nurse who visited the south side territory back in 1889 to the present staff of 120 nurses and an additional group of student nurses, working in 98 districts, was told by Miss Edna L. Foley, superintendent, who has been with the organization for 17 years.

"Back in 1895 the board considered the purchase of a horse and buggy for the use of the nurse in South Chicago hardly necessary, if she were authorized to hire one when her calls were too far out," Miss Foley said. "Now we have 30 automobiles, twelve belonging to the association, and the remainder to the nurses."

"The tuberculosis committee really was responsible for the organization of the Chicago Tuberculosis institute," she declared.

Other officers announced by Mrs. Joseph L. Ryerson, chairman of the nominating committee, are Mrs. Bruce Borland and Mrs. Earle H. Reynolds, first and second vice presidents; Mrs. Uri B. Grannis, secretary; Miss Naomi Donnelley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. George E. Throop, treasurer; Mrs. John H. Blair, assistant treasurer. The new directors are Mrs. Lewis L. McArthur, Mrs. Robert B. McGann, Mrs. George R. Nichols Jr., Mrs. Melville N. Rothschild, Mrs. Albert A. Sprague, Mrs. Richard I. Stearns, Mrs. Henry N. Tuttle, Mrs. A. Rawson Waller, Mrs. Charles Edward Brown, Mrs. Joseph T. Ryerson, Mrs. Joseph H. King, Mrs. J. Hambleton, Mrs. Charles Garfield King, Mrs. John B. Drake, Mrs. George A. Ranney, and Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy.

Society Sees Play to Gather Money for Buying 'Kenmore'

The smart audience at the performance of "Rosalie" at the Illinois theater last night seemed to consider watching the blithesome capers of Mr. Ziegfeld's star a thoroughly agreeable way to aid a worthy and patriotic cause. The proceeds, as you know, are to be contributed to the reconstruction of "Kenmore" at Fredericksburg, Va., and the theater benefit was instigated by the Illinois committee of the association, of which Mrs. Arthur Meeker is chairman. Programs were sold by a bevy of young women wearing bright orange badges, including Miss Mary Meeker, Miss Anita Blair, Miss Margaret Hambleton, Mrs. Walter Paepcke, Miss Laura Thompson, Miss Sarah Brewster, and Miss Rue Winterbotham.

Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick and Mrs. Meeker shared a box. Mrs. McCormick's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elting, Prof. Senn of the University of Chicago, and Edwin D. Krenn. Mrs. Meeker had with her Mr. and Mrs. William A. Yager and Mrs. Louis Coburn. Mrs. J. M. Patterson entertained a large box party, including Prince and Princess Michael Cantacuzene, Mrs. Waller Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Blair, Col. George Voevodski, Paul Welling and Paul Rudhyar. The George Halleck Taylors' guests were Mrs. Howard Logan and Leonard Prince. Mrs. Caswell A. Sharpe was hostess to Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Pauling and Miss Minna Seaman.

These Calm Paintings Friendly Like Things That They Depict

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

At the Chicago Woman's Aid there is current a delightful exhibition of paintings by Agnes Potter Van Ryn. On first sight one gets an impression of coolness and of space. The paintings are leasurely and uncrowded. They are friendly and entirely unassuming. In fact they are the sort of pictures which are on bowing terms with the rest of the world and with just the merest hint of encouragement would jump from the status of acquaintance to that of intimate.

In color the paintings are clear and light, rather than somber and dark. They are refreshing adventures into landscape. One of Miss Van Ryn's favorite subjects is a wet road, a shimmering and smooth expanse of cool asphalt that stretches invitingly into a distance that usually runs up hill and disappears beyond a clump of trees. The wet road is sometimes like a purple wash of sea; it is always a beckoning of the Romany trail.

In the current exhibition in addition to the road there is a square where winter rules. The bare branches are like priests with upraised arms. The snow is a mantle and the iron rails the walls of a citadel. This winter square is the largest canvas shown and is impressive and picturesque as well as effective. It decorates as much as it stimulates. A slighter picture, but with a similar note of brooding, on a farther wall, is the painting of two naked trees alone against the sky.

The exhibition will continue into February.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Too Personal.

My most embarrassing moment occurred one night at a party to which I had been invited by one of my best friends. She lived in a part of the country where I knew few people, but I found her friends easy to get acquainted with and I was having a great time. I spied a man among the crowd whom I had not noticed before. I must have looked astonished, for Lucille asked me what was the matter.

"Gracious, Lucille!" I cried. "Look at that man. Did you ever see such big feet? Why, they're monstrous! How can he get shoes to fit them? Those aren't shoes he has on—they're canoes."

I've never been able to tell why, like a perfect fool, I raved about that man's feet in such a manner. I must have been too excited to realize how I sounded, for I kept right on until I noticed at last that Lucille was looking at me rather strangely. Then, to my horror, I saw that the man whose feet I thought so immense was coming toward us.

"Hello, ladies," he said as he drew near. "Were you motioning for me to come over?"

"Yes, Uncle Wallace," said Lucille mischievously. "My friend here wishes to meet you. Now I must go and entertain my guests."

And here I was, left to talk to that man! M. B.

FOR BRILLIANT TEETH AND CORAL GUMS

NATURALLY you want to preserve sound teeth and healthy gums. Then you must guard The Danger Line. For it is in the tiny V-shaped crevices at The Danger Line, where teeth and gums meet, that the acids are formed which cause the most dangerous forms of tooth decay and gum irritations.

Squibb's Dental Cream, because it contains more than 50% of Squibb's Milk of Magnesia, neutralizes the acids in those crevices which no toothbrush can reach. It brings the protection you need. And it is particularly suited to keeping teeth white and lustrous. Millions have found that it solves for good the problem of proper mouth hygiene. 40c for a large tube—everywhere.

Why Tote Around Fat on Diaphragm When It's Easily Lost?

"It wasn't the waistline I'm worrying about," a saleswoman was overheard telling a confrère. "It's this lumpy fat over my diaphragm."

I hadn't time to wait to hear all the observations on customers the saleswoman launched into, but I did hear her tell her listener that she noticed so many women whose legs were slender, whose shoulders were narrow, and whose hips weren't so bad, gave their ages away with that puffy wad of fat on the diaphragm.

A good corset will help to minimize the protuberance by shifting the fat around one or the other corners. But the conversation reminded me that I, in turn, should remind women to slant that side profile of theirs and see if there is the bulge spoken of. And then, not to rely on a high priced corset to do the shifting of the fat, but to flatten the diaphragm with exercise. It is the easiest fat of all to get off, really. Easier than off the hips, or waist, or legs.

Time and again you will see a woman getting on a bit in years whose figure is of average height, hips nice and slender, and having a pair of unusually good looking legs, but whose torso looks like nothing so much as those funny Brownies we used to meet in the nursery. On a side view, the resemblance is even stronger to the round, little men with the spindly legs and the merry stomachs.

Singers rarely have that fat grievance, no matter how large they may be in other parts. Their deep breathing provides exercise.

I recommend deep breathing as first aid, then, in muscular control. When you're walking, standing, or sitting you can take deep breaths. And for good measure (and a flatter diaphragm) you should take twenty to fifty long, deep breaths before an open window every morning—or at some time during the day.

The bending "touch-your-toes" exercises are likewise good and any waist turning and twisting movements you know can be used on the diaphragm.

WALTER GIBSON, VETERAN LAWYER, DIES SUDDENLY

Walter S. Gibson, veteran attorney of the Chicago Title and Trust company, collapsed suddenly at 47th street and Greenwood avenue yesterday and died shortly afterward. Organic heart disease is believed to have caused his death. Mr. Gibson, who was 80 years old, was on his way to his office from his home at 1026 East 46th street.

A native of Fayette county, Pa., Mr. Gibson came to Illinois as a boy. He was graduated from Eureka college and served as county judge of Woodford county for a number of years. He moved to Chicago in 1891 and later joined the law staff of the Chicago Title and Trust company. For the last fifteen years he had been the company's chief examiner.

He is survived by his widow and one son, Dr. Harold K. Gibson, of Chicago. Funeral services will be held at the residence at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow. Burial will be at El Paso, Ill.

Widow of Policeman Slain in Haymarket Riot Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Dell M. Shannon, widow of Policeman Nicholas J. Shannon, who was killed in the Haymarket riot of 1886, will be held this morning at the residence, 927 Buena avenue, and will be followed by solemn requiem high mass at St. Mary's of the Lake church. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery. Mrs. Shannon died on Sunday at the age of 64 years. She is survived by a son and three daughters.

Fay Cooper-Cole Plans to Study Navajos' Speech

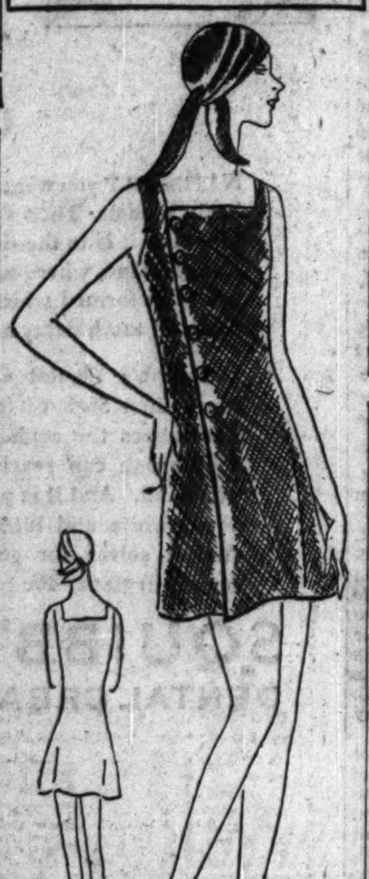
Now Bathing Suits Are Made of Tweed



BY LOLITA.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Well, well, we have all heard about seaweeds, but this one they have just pulled off on us is new. For it is sea tweeds of which we are now hearing. And who would have ever thought of that except Schiaperelli, the doughty engineer of many important sports clothes? She is the author of the tweed bathing suit and one of her models is sketched for you today.

It is a regular tweed that forms the tunic and it is done in a picturesque combination of green and yellow. Nor does the fabric constitute the only salient feature of this new kind of bathing suit. Observe the silhouette and you will see that the princess silhouette is as ready for a dip as for a stroll. Altogether new in effect, indeed, is this moulded line with its flaring skirt.

Large yellow bone buttons are used to negotiate a side fastening, and trunks of yellow jersey underneath are cuffed in the tweed of the tunic. The cap of green silk matches the green of the cloth mixture, and so, too, do the sandals with their popular two strap formation.

The sleeveless mode dominates all types of bathing attire from pajamas to swimming suits. Indeed, a number of the new beach wraps come today without sleeves. These wraps are in numerous fabrics, but it is well to note that the terry cloth of former years loses nothing through modern competition.

GEE, MOM, I'VE

GAINED 11½ POUNDS IN 8 WEEKS

Mothers and Fathers of Skinny, Frail Boys and Girls—Read This

"My son, due to arduous studies at school and to a too rapid growth, became thin and pale and did not gain the necessary nourishment from his food until he started to take McCoy's Tablets. In a little over 2 months he has gained 11½ pounds and feels and looks 100% better than he did."—GEO. G. O'BRIEN, N. J.

TASTELESS SUGAR-COATED M'COY'S TABLETS are as easy to take as candy and they supply the youngsters just those vitalizing elements they need to build them up in double quick time.

No wonder thousands of mothers and fathers are blessing the day this convenient, pleasant little tablet was perfected.

LITTLE GIRL GAINS 12 POUNDS IN 3 WEEKS

Michigan mother says: "My little girl has taken almost 3 boxes and I am certainly pleased with results. Her weight when she started was 53 pounds—it now is 65 pounds. She is 12 years old."

FINE AFTER SICKNESS

Illinois father writes: "My little girl (7 years old) had the measles and was very much run down. We started her on McCoy's and she gained 6 pounds in 30 days."

For children who have been sick with colds, flu or grippe and are slow to recover, McCoy's Tablets are especially valuable in helping to build up weakened constitutions, and in quickly restoring strength and weight to normal. No need to give them any more nasty tasting medicines that upset their little stomachs—these tablets are made to take their place.

IRONCLAD GUARANTEE PROTECTS YOU

McCoy takes all the risk.—If after taking a 30 day test treatment of McCoy's Tablets you are not joyfully satisfied with the good results—if there is not a marked increase in weight, appetite and strength your money will be refunded.

Just watch how pale, pasty skin becomes clear and ruddy, how spindly legs and arms and frail little bodies fill out and grow strong and sturdy with McCoy's—then you'll understand why these mothers and fathers are glad to recommend these tablets.

Don't take any chances with that undernourished, underweight child of yours. Get McCoy's today at any good drug store.

AMBASSADOR OF GERMANY TO U. S. VISITS CHICAGO

Greets Countrymen; Will Speak Over Radio.

BY KATHLEEN M'LAUGHLIN.

Friedrich Wilhelm von Prittwitz und Gaffron, German ambassador to the United States, had no sooner disowned the title of baron yesterday than that of prince was conferred upon him by enthusiastic Chicagoans whom he had encountered in his busy tour of the city, which closed last night with a dinner by a large group of Chicago Germans.

His address following the dinner, which was held at the Germania club, 108 Germania place, was delivered in his native tongue. His topic was the progress that has been made in Germany in the ten years since the war, and the relations between Germany and America.

To Talk Over W-G-N.

This evening at 6:45 o'clock he will convey greetings in English to Chicagoans in general and to those of German descent in particular, in a brief speech over radio station W-G-N.

Although he started his diplomatic career twenty years ago, as an attaché at the German embassy at Washington, both the ambassador and his wife personify what may be termed a new type of diplomat. Both are youthful in appearance and brisk in action, in contrast to the dignified middle age of most ambassadorial incumbents. Both are tall and slender, and both speak excellent English.

Preceding the Germania club dinner, they had completed a full schedule of official and social functions, ending with tea at the Tribune Tower at which Holmes Onderdonk was host, and a trip through the Tower and TRIBUNE plant. Guests in addition to Ambassador and Mrs. von Prittwitz were Dr. Hugo F. Simon, German consul general, and Mrs. Simon; Hans Kroll of the consulate, John T. McCutcheon, W. E. MacFarland and others.

50 Guests Attend Luncheon.

At noon Dr. and Mrs. Simon entertained fifty guests at a luncheon at the Drake hotel, at which the German and American flags were entwined as decorations. Guests included Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Plate, Dr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Ludwig Baum, Mrs. Mitchell Follansbee, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harshe, and Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis.

None of the events on the schedule were omitted, not even the trip through Lincoln park, where, despite the rainy skies overhead and the icy ground underfoot, Dr. Prittwitz carried out his original intention of laying wreaths on the Lincoln, Schiller, and Goethe monuments.

He was enthusiastic about his return to Chicago, which he visited twenty years ago, and professed himself eager to see everything possible in the three days of his visit.

Refers to "Era of Good Will."

"We are living in an era of international good will," was his only comment on anything approaching executive affairs, "and the spectacle of foreign troops on German soil does not fit into the peace picture."

He declined entirely to speak on reparations.

"The experts attending to these things should be left in peace to work out their solutions," he explained. "When they settle a question it is time for others to voice their opinions."

On her arrival in the morning, Frau von Prittwitz was swathed in a mink wrap, with a small brown hat. For the social affairs she changed to an ensemble of black velvet and gold cloth, with a hat of black felt, touched with gold about the brim. She wore a shoulder bouquet of orchids and heavy gold earrings and necklace.

BLOW ON SHIN CAUSES DEATH.

William F. Cunningham, 40 West Oak street, a hotel manager, died yesterday of an infection which following an injury to his shin on Jan. 5. Cunningham was inspecting a new building when he struck his shin on a piece of lumber.

Elmer Listens to 'Evangeline,' Told by Radio

Air Version of Famous Poem Is Success.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

Last evening's principal radio program was a dramatization of "Evangeline," from New York, through W-G-N, 8 to 9. And, this being a drama requiring close and uninterrupted attention, I fear many listeners permitted this broadcast to slip by unheard.

How true the radio version was to the original of Longfellow's poem I do not know—it's been a long, long time since I read "Evangeline." The story opened slowly and at this early stage it seemed to me that only the fame of the poem kept it alive. Toward the close of the hour interest began to develop. Every broadcast put on by the New York people on this Tuesday evening 8 to 9 hour has its justification, and the power with which an unexpectedly happy, startlingly dramatic surprise situation brought the play to a close was great enough to make the entire play worth while.

Of light concert order was the 9 to 9:30 program by Frank Barden, tenor, and the W-G-N Symphony orchestra.

I found myself engrossed in an address by the Rev. R. L. Smith at a banquet of the National Food Brokers' association, broadcast by WMAQ, 9:30 to 10. This talk may have been a reminder to a few of the older listeners of that great lecturer, Robert Burdette. Anyhow, in Mr. Smith's address there was either a smile or a hearty laugh with every sentence.

PLAN CATHEDRAL OF SCIENCE FOR CHICAGO'S FAIR

The "Cathedral of Science" planned for the 1933 Chicago World's Fair will stand at the 23d street entrance to the exposition grounds, if decision reached yesterday by the architectural committee is carried out. The committee today will close a three day session in the office of Edward H. Bennett, architect.

Plans being prepared by John A. Holabird and other architects are designed to bring out a cathedral effect in the science building. It is tentatively proposed to erect the structure on an elevation in a plaza which would have to be crossed in entering the fair grounds at 23d street. The elevation would, it is declared, afford a complete view of the entire exposition panorama. Fifteen great aisles would be built into the interior of the cathedral where scientific displays would be laid out.

SCIENTISTS HUNT "LOST WORLD" IN SIBERIAN WILDS

MOSCOW, Jan. 22.—[U. P.]—The life and thought of the sixteenth century, scientists here believe, have been preserved by a colony of Russians cut off from the rest of humanity for about 400 years.

A well equipped expedition, headed by Uri D. Chirikhin, is being sent by the academy of science in Leningrad to find the little "lost world" somewhere in the uncharted wilderness of Yakutia, northeastern Siberia.

Before the revolution a political exile, M. Zinzinoff, said he had penetrated the icebound fastness to the lost colony. He told of a people speaking ancient Russian, totally unaware of anything that has happened in the world since the Sixteenth century and scarcely aware of the existence of other human beings. More recently a Yakut named Arosin came out of the north with a tale of a Russian tribe leading a clean, moral and religious life.

Both reports agreed in placing the colony somewhere far towards the mouth of the Indigir river, where it empties into the North Polar sea.

Poincare Again Wins Vote of Confidence in Chamber

PARIS, Jan. 22.—(AP)—For the second time in a fortnight, Premier Raymond Poincare today won a vote of confidence in the French cabinet. The deputies voted 327 to 262 to support the government. The confidence expressed was particularly welcome to the premier at this time because of the approaching reparations, negotiations, and the question of ratification of the Briand-Kellogg pact for renunciation of war.

FUMIGATING GAS KILLS VICTIM; ASK REGULATORY LAW

Committee to Consider New Ordinance.

An ordinance regulating the use of poisonous gases in the fumigation of buildings, which has been hanging fire in the city council since its introduction last March, will be presented to the council committee on public health today. The ordinance requires the licensing of all persons or firms engaged in fumigating work and makes compulsory more precaution in notifying occupants of the buildings in question.

Health Commissioner Arnold H. Kegel, at whose instance the ordinance was proposed, pointed out the need of such action following the death of Albert Freund, 35 years old, in his home at 3355 North Harding avenue, yesterday. Freund died as the result of inhaling gas used in the fumigation of the apartment below him, occupied by his brother-in-law, Henry Zientarski, which had been fumigated Monday by the Exterminating Service company, 20 East Jackson boulevard.

Wife, 2 Sons in Hospital.

Freund's wife and two small sons are in a serious condition at the Belmont hospital as a result of inhaling the same gas. The inquest into Freund's death was continued until Feb. 7.

Officials of the company said yesterday that the Freund family had been notified of the fumigation, and cautioned against remaining in the house unless the windows were open. They said hydro-cyanic acid gas was used in the fumigation.

Must Employ Watchman.

According to Joel J. Connolly, chief of the health department's bureau of sanitary engineering, the proposed ordinance is particularly aimed at the use of this gas, which is odorless and has a tendency to rise to the upper floors of a building. The gas is more effective and easier to handle, Mr. Connolly said, but is more dangerous unless properly controlled.

The new ordinance requires all exterminating companies to obtain permits before fumigating buildings. It also specifies that companies must employ watchmen to patrol the premises during and following the fumigation.

RADIO DELEGATES NEAR BASIS FOR DIVIDING WAVES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 22.—Delegates at the international radio conference here today were near to reaching a definite ratio for dividing the intermediate wave band between countries on this continent.

One of the committees is now engaged with the question of dividing the bands between various countries and subdividing the priority channels between the different countries. Another committee is considering technical questions, such as methods of maintaining stations on assigned channels and width of bands for different purposes. It is expected both committees will report their findings tomorrow and recommendations will then be made to the respective governments

So far the question of population has not arisen in deciding the ratio of division between the interested countries. Delegates from the United States have indicated a willingness to accede to Canada's position that the space to be covered, rather than the density of population, should be the foundation for an agreement.

EFFORT TO CAUSE DEPORTATION OF SAMPSON FAILS

Immigration officials yesterday tried unsuccessfully to find sufficient cause to deport Tony Sampson, known as "Tony the Wop," a notorious stool pigeon and ex-convict. Technically, Sampson cannot be deported.

Picked up by the detective bureau, Sampson was turned over to Immigration Agent R. W. Davis, who took him to the Transportation building for examination. There records were consulted and it was found that he had served a term for burglary in the Waupon, Wis., penitentiary in 1924. But since an habitual criminal must have served two or more terms of one year or more each since 1917 before he can be deported under the law, the officials were powerless to put him out of the country.

It was learned that Sampson had done time on several occasions prior to the passage of the law in 1917, but these convictions were useless for current action.

75 Excellent Used Cars Cut to the Bone

Now Offered at Remarkable Prices!

Here is the most remarkable opportunity for shrewd buyers to make an exceptional saving in the purchase of a used car. Every automobile in our stock must go regardless of original cost. This is the chance of a lifetime!

PIERCE-ARROW SEDAN. 7 pass. "81" demonstrator, driven less than 2,500 miles. Equipped with 4 whl. brakes, Houdaille shock absorbers, spare tire, bumpers, and many other extras. Finish is a beautiful gray. Expensive upholstery. Here is a chance to get a practically brand new Pierce-Arrow at an unusual saving. No one could tell that this car was ever used, but we are willing to sacrifice it at a saving of almost $1,900.

ESSEX SEDAN. 1928 model with low mileage. In appearance and performance this Essex is exactly the same as when it first left the factory. Equipped with shutter front, bumpers, spare tire, etc. A real buy for $445.

Equipment includes 4 whl. brakes, shutter front, seat covers, spare tire, etc. The motor is 100%. Today $1,150.

NASH VICTORIA. Late Adv. Six 4 pass. coupe that's a beauty. In fact, it's like new in every respect but price. Tires have little mileage and the equipment includes 4 whl. brakes, bumpers, spare tire, etc. Reduced from $800 to $645.

HUPMOBILE SEDAN. We recommend this as one of our best buys. Has 4 whl. brakes, snubbers, bumpers, practically brand new spare tire, etc. Finish is bright and shiny and the upholstery has not a worn spot. Only $375.

LINCOLN TOURING. Here is a bargain if there ever was one. This expensive Lincoln was owned by a prominent banker, who gave it careful attention. Today it will give new car satisfaction. Has spotlight, shutter front, bumpers, spare tire, etc. Looks and runs as though it might be worth over $1,000. Now $250.

PIERCE-ARROW LIMOUSINE. Was chauffeur driven and oiled and greased every 500 miles. The motor is very efficient and the appearance is classy. Extras are spare tire, heater, snubbers, etc. Special for $485.

PACKARD PHAETON. We just received this late model and it's a beauty. The finish is a handsome brown and there's a wealth of equipment, including 4 whl. brakes and many extras.
